Letters are still coming in making in quiry relative to the double assessment of real estate in this county. Only vesterday we saw a letter from New York on this subject. It is clear that the records are not yet cleared of this careless and unfortunate business. The party writing has paid his tax promptly each year and holds the Collector's receipt therefor. Yet his property was again advertised for sale in THE NEWS last month. It is very annoying that these errors should be continued from year to year, without an effort made to rectify

Social Dance. The second dance by the Palatka Dancing Club was given at Capt. Lucas' Hall last night, with quite a large attendance. There were twelve couples, besides quite a number of stags, as they are commonly called. The evening was as pleasant as could be desired, the rain having cooled the atmosphere which made it much better for the dancers. The young ladies looked very attractive in their pretty costumes. These dances are growing in popularity, and some of the young men who are so fond of dancing should try and bring a partner. There are several dudes who make a practice of going to dances without ladies and then try and monopolize the company of those that are there. These are not stag dances, gentlemen.

The Palatka Club. The Palatka Club held a special meeting Tuesday evening for the purpose of transacting important business. There were seven as members and two applications received, which will be voted on at the next meeting. The club is in a flourm., yesterday, was up to high tide ishing condition; the treasury having a mark. Who said anything about it large surplus on hand and no outstanding debts. This organization is one that should be upheld by all good citizens, as but if this rain keeps on the residents on it is conducted on the right princisome of the streets will change the topic ple and is a benefit to the young men of this city; affording them a place to spend their evenings. The Monday evenfined character, and it has been suggested that if a few married ladies would attend, with their husbands, the single ladies would not have such a besitancy in attending these entertainments, to which all are invited.

After service the body was called toether by the former Moderator, Deacon E. H. Reynolds, of Orange Home, Sumter County, and J. R. Snow, of Eden Church, Lake Lindsey, as temporary secretary. The names of messenger were enrolled from the followings churches: Brooksville, ten: Eden, four; Sumterville, four; Leesburg, two; Leconte, one; Pine Level, four; Whitney, one; New Hope, one. The following visitors were present and took an active part: Rev. N. A. Bailey, pastor of the First Baptist Church, of Orlando; Vice President Foregin, of the Mission Board, of Southern Baptist Convention, and one of the editors of the Baptist Witness: Rev. W. N. Chaudoing Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer of Baptist Convention of Florida, also one of the editors of Florida Baptist Witness, and Vice President Home Board: Rev. G. W. Hall, Sunday School and children missionary of the Baptist Convention of Florida; R. G. Hood, S. S. Missionary of Alachua Baptist Association: Mrs. L. B. Telford, Corresponding Secretary Woman's Mission Work. On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Telford held a a meeting for ladies and children, relating incidents connected with her work as missionary to the Chinese twenty years ago. Exhibiting idols worshipped by Chinese women, her discourse was listened to with attention and profit. The following questions were discussed: (1) Importance and best methods of conducting prayer-meeting. (2) Best means of cultivating the missionary spirit in the hearts of all. (3) Woman missionary work. (4) How to interest children in the cause of missions, (5) Intemperance its evils and how to correct them. An interesting programme was arranged for the next meeting," which will occur on Friday before the 5th Sunday in July, Rev. J. C. Porter being appointed to preach the introductory sermon. Sunday at 10 a. m. addresses were de livered to the Baptist Sunday School on Chaudoin preached the Missionary Sermon to a large congregation of interested and impressed listeners, showing what large results have come from small beginnings in missionary, educational and church building work, in the State and outside of it, as conducted by the Baptists. At close of services a collection was taken up, amounting to $27.05. At 3 p. m. Rev. G. W. Hall talked and sang to a large audience; the services were very interesting and will long be remembered. N. A. Bailey preached in the evening, taking for his subject "The World's Prayer-meeting." The church eloquent and forcible sermon made a deep impression. Seldom do we have the opportunity of listening to as masterly a discourse. On Monday afternoon Mrs. L. B. Telford met with the Ladies' Mission So ciety of Brooksville Baptist Church, and aided the sisters in organizing an Associational Union of the Societies, within the bounds of the Alachua Association, of which Mrs. Paul Willis was chosen president, Mrs. W. B. How, secretary and Mrs. W. Y. Trammel, treasurer. Monday evening Rev. N. A. Bailey preached the closing sermon to a large and appreciative audience. Too much credit cannot be given to the resident pastor, Rev. Paul Willis, for his untiring efforts to make this one of the most successful meetings of the Association. Good results are sure to follow the labors.

A Child's Letter to the Emperor.

New York Herald (cable). Recently a little eight-year-old peasar child of Erefeld, wrote a letter to the Emperor, saying that if he would send her his picture and that of Fritz, the Crown Prince, she would send him the pictures of her little brother and herself. Her letter was addressed to the King in Berlin, but was signed simply, "Mari-anna." Accordingly the Emperor had the school trustees of the postal district search till Marianna was found. The general feeling in the stock market thi exceptions to the general decline were Reading and Northern Pacific. New England was also special object of attack, and recorded the heaviest decline for the day. The money market displayed a hardening temlency, which aided in frightening out some long stock.

The opening was heavy, but the early tendency was upward. This soon disappeared, however, and under the lead of coal stocks the entire list sagged off. The market was extremely dull, outside of Reading, which for some time furnished one-half the entire business done. In the early part of the afternoon an attack was made upon Pacific Mail and New England, and the entire list showed more animation at morning figures. A short period of dullness and firmness intervened, but in the last hour the dedline was renewed, and the close was weak at about the lowest prices of the day, Sales, 250,00 shares.

and the market unde a liberal break on the crop, amounting to some 15 to 16 points, with more or less sympathy on the new crop, where the shrinkage was some ten points. The principal pressure came from New Orleans, but under an impression that the clique was unloading their own local long interest took fright, and spilling freely added material to the supply. During the afternoon the pressure was somewhat relieved, and the bidding coming sharper from a few quarters a steadier feeling temporarily prevailed, with a small reaction, but no general demand."

Fear of the Supernatural.

of fear. It is difficult to assign any normal object for this fear, unless it were a genuine ghost. But, in spite of psychical research societies, science has not yet adopted ghosts; so we can only say that certain ideas of supernatural agency, associated with real circumstances, pro-horror is probably explicable as the result of a combination of simpler horrors. To bring the ghostly terror to its maximum.

many usual elements of the dreadfu must combine, such as loneliness, darkness, inexplicable sounds, especially of a dismal character, moving figures half dis cerned (or, if discerned, of dreadful aspect), and a vertiginous baffling of the expectation. This last element, which is intellectual, is very important. It pro-our blood to see a process, with which we are familiar, deliberately taking an chair sliding unassisted across the floor.

The lower animals appear to be sensitive as ourselves. My friend, Professor W. K. Brooks, of the Johns Hopkins university, told me of his large and noble dog being frightened into a sort of epileptic fit by a bone being drawn across the floor by a thread which the dog did not see.

Darwin and Romanes have given similar experiences. The idea of the supernatural involves that the usual should be set at naught. In the witch and hobgoblin supernatural, other elements still of fear tinkers, and accompany them on their trips among the farms. The farm folks everywhere know them, and "Hello, Joe (or Dick or Bob), you here agin?" is the universal greeting. Then we are given the old store of unreliable copper boilers broken griddles, handleless tea pots and sieve like milk pans, which have been accumulating since the gypsies went away last year. For the village tinsmith's hammer is now seldom heard on all well established gypsy routes. Because Joe is a gypsy he always manages to get a better price for his work than a village half. No one acquainted with the sub-

Chicago, June 22. A moderate business is wheat was transacted, though mest of the da-he market ruled weak. No new features were oresented, and operators are inclined to trade on a small scale for the present. Many sensa-ional rumors were circulated during the day, out all proved to be without foundation, and but all proved to be without foundation, and only affected prices momentarily. Receipts of wheat are falling off rapidity, and only sixty cars are estimated for to-morrow's arrivals. July opened at 705,6704, and advanced to 705, then became weaker and declined, with some fluctuations, to 695, railied and closed at 70. June opened at 695, and closed at 694.

Corn ruled quiet during the greater part of the session, and trading was dull. Receipts to-day and estimated arrivals for to-morrow were quite small. July opened at 365, decimed to 36 and closed at 354.

Outs were moderately active, but there were many sellers. The market, however, was strengthened by very light receipts. July opened at 355, sold up to 556, but later the demand falling off it reacted to 254 and closed at 255.

strengthened by very light receipts. July opened at 25½, sold up to 25½, but later the demand falling off it reacted to 25½ and closed at 25½.

There was only moderate trading in provisions, and the feeling was unsettled and prices rather weak. Arrivals of hogs were not large, but receipts of products were liberal. This had a depressing effect temporarily, and encouraged operators to enlarge their offerings for future delivery. Later the market showed little more strength, and prices railied again, and the market closed steady at outside figures. July lard opened at $6.25, sold down to $6.23½, closed at $6.25½65.0. —Edgar L. Wakeman's Letter. The Scientific American has been making some investigations recently in regard to the distance required to stop a large ocean steamer. Mr. Nash, for many years secretary of the board of pilots, calculates that a vessel running nineteen knots an hour would cover two miles after its engines were stopped and reversed. Two other trusted New York pilots made the same calculation and reached the same result. The captain of the Aurania believed that he could stop his vessel when going at full speed in a mile, and the commander of the Alaska believed it could be done in a mile and a
