Wonder where the enthusiasm shown at the Commercial club meeting the other evening existed for two years past? We are not kidding, but it looks very inconsistent to us.

Don't preach about home trade and at the same time send your orders for job printing out of town. Your home printer can do your work just as good, and in nine cases out of ten he can beat the city man's prices, because he pays much less for running expenses. By sending your next printing order to this office you'll be better satisfied all around, and you'll be keeping the money at home.

Every property owner and tenant should take the greatest pride in cleaning up and keeping their holdings and home in an admitted sanitary condition. Health is happiness. We have the reputation of having the healthiest climate and the best water in the state. Let us keep that reputation by all means.

It is doubtful if the average resident of the eastern half of North Dakota realizes the development in the rest of the state during the past decade, especially within the past few years. The western counties will soon be as thickly populated with as prosperous residents as any other section of the state. The work of development is going on rapidly each year, and the Red River valley and other sections of the state will have to hump themselves to keep up with the procession.—Forum.

Hall, contestant, against homestead entry No. 24257, made June 26, 1903, for SW 1/4, section 32, township 112, range 105, by Harry Butterfield, contestant, in which it is alleged that Harry Butterfield has wholly abandoned said land, has never at any time built, resided on or cultivated the same or any part thereof as required by law, that all of said defaults and failures do now exist and did exist six months prior to Jan. 18th, 1907, and that the alleged absence from the said land was not due to his employment in the Army, Navy or marine corps of the United States in time of war; said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on April 22, 1907, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office at Dickinson, N. D.
The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed March 11, 1907, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.

"Yes, we are going to move to escape housecleaning."

"15 L—street."
"What? Why, that is where we are leaving!"

An exchange gives the following copied verbatim from a notice posted in the post-office lobby at Wishek, indicates how badly the owner of a lost calf wants the animal, even if he doesn't know how to express himself in English: "Vone rode and vite cafe. He was a she cafe. His two behind legs was vite. The feller vot brings me that cafe pays me five dollars. He was three miles behind the bridge."

Wise—It's always clear in California six months out of the twelve.
Green—Gee! What a cinch for the weather man!

Time For Rejoicing.
The editor of the Bacon Ridge Bacon came out on Main street tossed his hat twenty feet in the air. "Praise to Providence!" he whooped, dancing around like an Indian.
"Are you crazy?" demanded the only policeman in the town. "What do you mean by cheering when the cyclone has carried away your office."
"That's just it, friend. I have been complaining twenty years because the circulation of my sheet was so limited and now there's a chance of its being circulated in four states and twenty counties. Wouldn't be surprised if one copy don't blow clear to Europe."—Ex.

No Sale After That.
It seemed that his New Year poem was about to be rejected.
"You say December wore on," sneered the editor. "What, may I ask, did it wear?"
"The close of the year?" the poet faltered, smiling tentatively.

CASH RESERVE

Every business man, even the United States government itself, carries a CASH RESERVE. Each individual needs one just as much. You may say, "It takes all my income to live" but this is a fallacy. People with twice your income say the same and others with much less than your income do save. YOU can do the same if you simply DETERMINE that you will do it. Try it.
