WOMAN DEMENTED.

Poverty and Suffering is Cause of Pitiable Case.

Belfield, N. D., July 25.—A demented woman, Mrs. Deward Skozenko, was taken off here in a pitiable condition, in charge of her husband and Victor Hayes. Their home is at Mary postoffice, forty miles north of Belfield. The family has been in destitute circumstances some time, the husband being sick and unable to work all summer, earning nothing for the long winter. The neighbors gave them some flour and this was practically all they lived on. It is presumed the woman, who was nursing a child became weak from want and worry until her mind gave way. She was taken to Dickinson, where proper care will be given her.

BABY SUFFOCATES.
