CONDITION.

There is no surer indication of state presperity than that shown by bank conditions and in that connection it is interesting to note the comparative statements of the state banks of North Dakota which has just been published by the new bank examiners. This state ment shows that the state banking institutions of North Dakota are in excellent condition and that there has been an improvement during the past few months.

The statement shows that there has been an increase of loans and discounts of $1,410,422.52 from February

Deposits subject to check show a gratifying increase of $1,731,430.28 posit taking a jump up of $1,087, whole shows that the banks of the their condition has been materially improved during the past two months.
