

REMINGTON UMC

.22 Cal. AUTOLOADING RIFLE

Give Him a Rifle Worthy of the Years Ahead of Him

SON has often been inside of his head than father expects. Thousands of boys have set their hearts on owning a Remington UMC .22 Caliber Rifle—because they know Remington UMC Rifles stand at the top in the world of sport.

Remington UMC .22 Caliber Autoloading Rifle shoots 15 shots without taking aim off the target—simply pull the trigger for each shot. Handles Remington UMC Autoloading .22 Cartridges (rim fire). Hammerless. Solid Break. Safe. Easily taken apart and put together without tools.

Clean and oil your gun with REM OIL, the combination Powder Solvent, Lubricant and Rust Preventative.

Sold by your home dealer and 870 other leading merchants in North Dakota

THE REMINGTON-UNION METALLIC CARTRIDGE CO.
Largest Manufacturers of Firearms and Ammunition in the World
Woolworth Building, New York

WIMBLEDON

News, Aug. 31.—Miss Laura Etter left for Fargo Tuesday on a visit.

M. C. Kronebusch on Monday sold his house to Paul Ambuhl.

Al Hemp went to Valley City Monday, returning Wednesday.

John Lang recently purchased a new threshing rig of More Bros.

A. J. Nichols, who was ill last week with tonsillitis, resumed his work Tuesday.

Miss Senora Fodderude returned on Monday from a visit at New Rockford.

Christ Christ is building a new house on the lot north of his residence.

H. C. Knecht leaves Sunday for Minn., where he is going to teach this year.

Leo Holden returned the first of the week from a six weeks visit at Medina.

Miss Anetta Hoover, arrived last Saturday from Fargo to visit her sister here.

The German Ladies' Aid society met with Mrs. Laura DeVere on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Tom Flewell visited at the Frank Wilson cottage at Spiritwood Lake Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Kuhlman, of Winona, Minn., are visiting at the John Kuhlman home.

The Audubon Society met with Robert and Janet Clendening on Wednesday evening.

Elwood Kribbs and Fred Wilke autoed to Lidgerwood and spent Sunday with friends.

Mrs. J. L. Nichols of Akron, Ohio, spent last week with her son, A. J. Nichols, and family.

T. X. Calnan and Hugo Brueske made a business trip to Dazey and Rogers last Thursday.

Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Miller and son, Harold, are guests at the H. M. Stroud cottage Friday.

A. J. Kitchian and family autoed to Lidgerwood, where they are visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilson returned to New Rockford Monday after a visit at the Tom Flewell home.

J. M. Joss returned from Jamestown Monday, where he started a threshing rig for More Bros.

Henry Wilson came up from Indiana last week and is running the threshing engine for Otto Hemp.

Anton Jensen, in company with several others, bought a new threshing rig of More Bros. recently.

Mrs. L. E. Miller, who spent a couple of months here visiting Mrs. E. R. Sherman, left Friday for Noonan.

Esther Steffen returned from Spiritwood Lake on Tuesday. She was a guest of Dudley and Stanley Stroud.

Miss Dorothy More, who has visited at the J. J. Bascom home several weeks, returned to her home at Fargo Monday.

Mrs. A. E. Dennstedt and Miss Mary Hackett came up from Valley City and spent Saturday here with friends.

Mr. Dennstedt returned with them. The Dennstedts are stopping at the Rudolf hotel while in Valley City.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Gould, of Minneapolis, were over-Sunday guests at the Tom Flewell and R. B. Cox homes.

Mrs. Charles Pollock returned Saturday to her home at Fingal after spending a few days with Miss Helen Bascom.

John Calvin Curtiss and Charles Dittman autoed through from Oklahoma and spent Sunday at the C. E. Kribbs home.

O. A. Olson returned Tuesday from Fingal, where he made the acquaintance of a little daughter born Thursday, Aug. 24.

Cards have been received here announcing the marriage on Sept. 6 of Miss Catherine McDougall to Jacob Great, of Mott.

Mrs. M. S. Mallough on Tuesday went out to the H. M. Stroud cottage at Spiritwood lake, where she will spend a few days.

Mrs. Fred Paul and daughter, Daisy, and Mrs. M. Koller of Cochrane, Wis., are visiting at the Jacob Knecht home this week.

Loreny James and daughter, Mable, of Vancouver, came Saturday and were over-Sunday guests at the Tom Flewell and R. B. Cox homes.

Miss Thelma Kitchen, of Ft. Dodge, Iowa, while on her return from a trip to Glacier park and the Pacific coast, stopped off here Sunday to visit her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierce, and her cousin, Bella. She left for her home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hubbell left Saturday for their home at Sawtell, Cal., after spending several days here with Mrs. R. Clendening.

Miss Pearl Wheeler, of Moose Jaw, Can., while on her way home from Minneapolis stopped off here to visit at the S. J. Russell home.

J. F. Scheidt and family returned Saturday from an auto trip to Long Prairie, Minn., where they spent several weeks with relatives.

Miss Margaret Russell returned home last week from Moose Jaw, Can., where she was visiting friends and relatives for several weeks.

Mrs. E. L. Raymond, of Minneapolis, arrived Tuesday and is a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Jarvis.

Dr. Raymond is expected later.

E. R. Vaughn, Harvey Monroe and several others expect to leave Sunday on an auto trip to Montana to investigate homestead propositions.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Joss, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Beers and Miss Tracy Giesen, returned Saturday from an auto trip to Wadena, Minn.

R. R. Brueske made an auto trip to Sanborn on Saturday, taking home Mrs. Brueske's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Jones, who were visiting here.

P. C. Coleman is building a new six-room house on his hill property. The small house which stood there has been worked into the new one, which will make a fine residence.

Mrs. J. L. More and children autoed to Jamestown on Monday, accompanied by Rev. Wm. Landis, who returned to Jamestown college after conducting services here Sunday.

A. Y. More came up from Fargo Saturday and spent Sunday with his family at Spiritwood lake. On Monday they all returned home but Miss Helen, who will spend a few days with her aunt, Miss Helen Bascom.

Mrs. Mark Marquisee and Mrs. A. F. Steffen demonstrated their eligibility to membership in the order of pedestrians by walking out to the C. M. Kribbs farm Thursday, where they spent the afternoon with Mrs. Kribbs.

Improved 160 acre farm for sale, 108 acres under cultivation, can all be broken, heavy soil, seven miles from town, good well. Will sell with or without stock and machinery. Apply to owner, Wm. Patton, Van Hook, N. D. 31-4pw

SANBORN

Enterprise, Aug. 31.—Fred Stephan was a county seat visitor today.

Thos. Kane was in from the west end this morning.

Contractor Mulken was a passenger to McHenry this morning.

Mrs. F. O. Brewster, of Bismarck, is expected in Sanborn Sunday.

Mike Bier, formerly of Eckelson, now of California, greeted friends here today.

Mrs. Spicer and children, of Valley City, were arrivals on No. 7 this morning, and will be guests of Mrs. Willenar.

J. L. Houghtaling will open the Marlo theatre Tuesday, Sept. 5.

Mrs. Ward Fritch and children are guests at the F. J. Bignall home this week.

The German Lutheran Ladies' Aid society will meet with Mrs. A. Hannemann next Thursday, Sept. 7, at 2 p. m.

The Steele Ozone says that Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Whitford will remove from Sanborn to Steele, they having purchased the Dr. Lodge residence property.

Mrs. Ben Free, of Wabasha, Minn., known here as Nellie Reese, visited with the Houghtalings and other friends in this neighborhood the past two weeks.

Andrew Brimer, old-time farmer from the west end, informs us that he will be satisfied with expenses this year, profit being out of the question on his place.

Miss Olive Rhodes, of Valley City, who has been stopping at the farm of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Rhodes, northwest of town, was a Sanborn visitor Monday.

Miss Clayton, returning from a visit to Fargo en route to Cooperstown where she is engaged with the Severn store as bookkeeper, was in Sanborn between trains Monday morning.

E. M. Shannon was up from Valley City Monday.

Miss Lillian Elder returned home last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Malm and children returned yesterday from a visit of several weeks with Minnesota relatives and friends. They were accompanied by Mrs. Malm's mother, Mrs. Disch.

Misses Elder, Yingling and Leinhardt were passengers to Jamestown last Monday morning, where they spent the day visiting St. John's academy and other places of interest and personal friends.

Charlie Crowther, erstwhile locomotive engineer on the branch, has disposed of his residence property in Fargo and spent a few days here last week, while waiting to complete the transfer papers.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Vannie and Jack, of Sherbrook, parents and brother of Harry Vannie, and F. L. Ray, of Hope, were Sanborn visitors Sunday, the guests of Harry Vannie, employed in Siegfried's drug store.

W. E. Williams, manager of the Sanborn Produce Co. returned Saturday from Litchville, where he established a branch station. Walter Bergeron is temporarily in charge. Mr. Williams says the new branch opens auspiciously.

Engineer Tom Costella, who has been head push on the N. P. weed-burning outfit for some weeks past, has completed his job for the season, and will next take one of the Valley City pushers. He greeted Sanborn friends last Sunday.

Mrs. Samuel Zing, from the Missouri river country, was an arrival last Saturday, en route for Walum, for a visit with her daughter, Florence, who is sick and will probably be operated upon for goiter, from which she has been suffering for some time.

Six auto loads of Green township residents passed through town Sunday en route to Spiritwood lake. They were piloted by L. K. Stillings and Andrew Davidson and tarried long enough to say that crops looked better up here than with them.

Miss Lancetta Steele is the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. A. Siegfried. Miss Steele has spent the past three years in England, and but recently graduated from the Royal Academy of Music. She has had interesting and unusual experiences in London since the war started.

Charley Rebscher was a Sanborn caller last Saturday.

W. W. Blacker was an arrival from the county hub last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Boughten were county seat visitors Monday.

Mrs. W. E. Williams returned from Litchville Thursday evening.

Joe Wilkonn arrived from Valley City on No. 7 Friday morning.

C. E. Hanson, of Minnawaukan, visited the home folks the past week.

Miss Ruth Biggs returned from Jamestown on No. 8 Monday evening.

The frame of Willie Nocker's new barn begins to loom up south of town.

Miss Hulda Hansen is visiting at the Mrs. John Lawry home, arriving Tuesday.

Miss Mabel Schrieter left for Bismarck Friday morning for a visit with her relatives.

Mrs. M. Hinchberger and daughter, Gerlie, returned from Eckelson Saturday evening.

Arthur Shafer, of Duluth, is looking after the interests of the late John Shafer estate here.

R. B. Cox and son, of Wimbledon, motored through town Friday en route to Valley City.

W. M. Wright, of Aurora, S. D., who owns a farm north of town, is here looking after his interests.

Mrs. Hanna Roberts, of Fargo, returned to her home last Saturday, after a visit with Sanborn relatives.

Mrs. Clements and children, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cline, motored to Fargo Sunday, accompanied by Miss Levett Cline.

Mrs. C. F. Revell, Paul and Margaret were passengers to Fargo last Saturday, where they will spend a week with Mrs. Dwight Simmons.

Mrs. R. E. Kee and daughters and Mrs. Thos. Swartout, left Saturday for Valley City, where Mrs. Kee will be the guest of Mrs. Swartout.

Kenneth, C. G. and Bruce Kee went to Spiritwood Saturday, where they will visit with their grandparents, Mrs. and Mrs. George Bronson.

Mrs. Tremblay left for her home in Superior, Wis., last Saturday, after a visit at the Beaudoin home. Mr. Tremblay left the Monday previous.

There will be a stated communication of Sanborn lodge A. F. & A. M. No. 14, on Tuesday evening, Sept. 5.

The movies shown in Sanborn this week, using Houghtaling's lights and machinery, were the best we have seen. Mr. Houghtaling evidently has a first class outfit.

O. E. Hanson, of the First National Bank of Minnawaukan, visited relatives and friends here this week. Mr. Hanson has been with the First National for the past five years.

Jim Hutchinson, a blacksmith formerly working for H. C. Stroh, is greeting friends here today. He has just recovered from another attack of rheumatism and erysipelas.

EASTEDGE

Nome Tribune, Sept. 1.—Henrietta Thone, of Fingal, visited with her aunt, Miss Anna Severson, the latter part of last week, returning Sunday.

Miss Paula Jacobson returned Saturday after visiting a few days with friends at Litchville.

Lars Haanes, accompanied by Elsie Lingley, autoed to Fingal and Valley City Sunday.

Mrs. Gilbert Hanson was a visitor at Kathryn between trains Friday.

Miss Anna Severson left for Fingal Sunday to spend a couple of weeks with her sister, Mrs. Ella Thone.

Misses Marie and Gerda Jacobson, of Litchville, visited at the Iver Johnson home on Sunday.

Paul Hanson and family made a trip to Valley City in their Ford Sunday.

DON'T FORGET

Mark A. Smith

Cor. 3rd Ave. and 3rd St. Phone 568

Bran, Shorts, Feeds of all kinds, Baled Hay and Flour.

LUCCA

Nome Tribune, Sept. 1.—Ed. Simonsch, of Jamestown, was transacting business in town Monday.

Mrs. W. F. Tritchler and children returned Tuesday from a weeks visit at Little Pine lake, Minn., and were guests at the summer home of Attorney and Mrs. W. H. Shure, of Fargo.

Miss Vena Hogue, of Meauwataka, Mich., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Tritchler, having arrived Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Daybuff and Miss Hazel Stock, of Butzville, were callers in town Monday.

Mrs. R. R. Martin, of Enderlin, passed through town Friday en route to Casselton.

Henry Oftedahl, formerly barber in Lucca, has severed his connections here and is now working at his trade in Nome.

A. J. Atwood, of Jamestown, called on trade here Monday.

Harry Sorenson, relief agent, spent Sunday with a friend at Buffalo, Minn., and returned for work Monday morning.

Mrs. R. Fritz is on the sick list at present.

Casper Meili is making some new counters for the pool room and fixing things up in general in the building.

Henry Shaw, of Spokane, Wash., has been engaged to run the Atlantic elevator for the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Strick, of Alice, were guests at the C. F. Ellsbury home Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Mueller autoed to Fargo last week Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. G. and Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Ellsbury have returned from their trip to Elgin and Byota, Minn., Graton, S. D., and Cogswell, N. D. The trip was made by auto and was very enjoyable.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Marschke left by auto Thursday for Golden Valley. Mrs. Marschke will remain with her husband until he completes the school house for which he has the contract.

LITCHVILLE

Bulletin, Sept. 1.—Aug. Anderson autoed to Sanborn Sunday afternoon.

Construction work on the new photo gallery commenced this week.

T. E. Rose came up Tuesday from Spring Valley, Minn.

C. B. Nupen and J. W. Jongeward were callers at Fingal Tuesday.

E. P. Lind has taken a claim in the Fort Peck reservation in Montana and expects to move there this fall.

Carl Nelson is the new mail carrier at Marion on route No. 1, running north and west of that town.

Dr. W. C. Aylen and family motored to Fargo Saturday, returning Sunday.

Miss Eva Sandberg, a teacher in the Portal schools, is the guest of Miss Helen Stixrud.

Mrs. A. M. Hansen will entertain the Immanuel Ladies' Aid next Thursday afternoon.

Frank Haseleu, a brother of William Haseleu, who has spent the past three weeks here, left again for St. Paul Saturday.

Mrs. A. P. Hanson entertained a few ladies Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Thea Neresen, of Gary, Minn.

Garret Arends was a Fargo caller last week, going down to see his doctor. His broken leg is getting along nicely and he will soon be able to walk about without crutches.

Thorvald Olson returned here on Monday from St. Paul, where he has spent the past three weeks. While in St. Paul he had a diseased mastoid bone removed by Dr. Emil Boeckman, Jim Hill's son-in-law. Mr. Olson returned to Kincaid, Sask., Wednesday, to help garner his 40 bushel wheat crop.

A. L. McCarroll, of Ravre, Mont., is spending the week in the city.

Mrs. A. M. Hansen returned from Fargo Saturday.

Mrs. Richard Blake returned from Aurora, S. D., Saturday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Ryberg, a seven and one half pound baby boy on Aug. 23.

A. L. Nelson left for Dunn Center Monday, after spending his vacation here and at Marion.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Hougen went on a business trip to Fergus Falls, Minn., Monday.

Judge and Mrs. Willie Murphy and children were here from Sanborn Sunday afternoon.

The past seven days have been elegant for threshing and the machines are putting in long hours and cleaning up large tracts every day.

Miss Thea Neresen, of Gary, Minn., who has spent the past week in this city as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Sundet, left again on Monday.

Hon. and Mrs. A. P. Hanson motored to LaMoure and Grand Rapids Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. C. A. Cross is seriously ill at St. John's hospital at Fargo, where she was taken last Thursday.

Mrs. J. E. Duncan and children returned home last week after spending a month's vacation at Minot, at the home of Mrs. Duncan's sister.

Miss Minnie J. Nielson, our county superintendent, and Miss Elsie Sten-shiel, Litchville teacher-to-be, were in the city last Thursday afternoon.

Miss Della Kohn, who is taking a course in nursing at the Northwestern hospital at Moorhead, came up for a visit at the parental home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Nupen, of Bismarck, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jongeward from Monday until Thursday morning, making the trip by auto.

Mr. Nupen is a brother to Mrs. Jongeward.

Inez, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lubbenhusen and son, Raymond, and Edwin Reinhardt motored to Spiritwood lake, 50 miles northwest, Sunday, where they spent the day in the bosom of nature.

They claim that they caught 120 fish. Mr. and Mrs. Bennett, Dr. Platou, Dr. and Mrs. Hammerud and Mr. and Mrs. Reinhardt spent Sunday at Fort Ransom. While at Fort Ransom, Mr. Bennett drove down to Lisbon and got Mrs. Fieldstad, mother of Mrs. Bennett, who will visit here for about a week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Hanson and children returned home last Thursday from Hettinger, after an 18-day absence. They came across by auto, and

H. O. is feeling first rate for a man who has seen death face to face. He is getting around with the aid of a cane, but has a touch of pleurisy from the bruised lung.

Mrs. and Mrs. Fred Hemmer, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Nelson and Miss Rose Kelley motored to Jamestown Sunday, going via the Red Trail from Eckelson. Although it was Sunday, every threshing machine between here and the Jim river was going full tilt, and the Trail was swarming with autos of every description. Going via Eckelson the distance is 48 miles.

E. W. Williams left last Saturday for Sanborn, where he has charge of the produce station. Walter Bergeron, of Sanborn, is the new manager of the Litchville station.

J. N. Green, who owns a fine farm south of town, arrived here last Friday evening from Seattle, Wash., where he is making his home, and will look after threshing operations.

Dr. T. M. Stixrud left last week for a short trip to Seattle, Wash., and is expected back next Sunday. He went there for a visit with a brother whom he hadn't seen since he was five years old. This is the doctor's first trip to the coast.

Mrs. Elias Haarsager went to Fargo on a short visit Wednesday.

H. J. Olson, of Valley City, was in town yesterday.

The Elim Quindorening will meet with Mrs. P. G. Sarsten next Thursday, Sept. 7.

Editor Wells came up from Battle Lake, Minn., Tuesday, to supervise threshing operations on his 800-acre farm in Greenland township.

Fred Bickel, of Mandan, owner of the Gust Miller homestead quarter, arrived here last Thursday evening to supervise threshing operations.

Carl Lindstrom has just completed a 24x26 barn on the Brady farm in Svea township, leased by Walter Tallkowski.

B. A. Pottebaum arrived here Saturday from his home at Alton, Iowa, to look after farming interests in the famous Litchville country.

Ole O. Grindahl returned to Lake Park, Minn., on Monday, after spending a week's vacation at the parental home here. Mr. Grindahl is teller at the State Bank at Lake Park.

According to the Yeomen Shield, James Hanson, of this city, received ten per cent of the face value of his policy in the Yeomen lodge, for breaking the ulna and radius of his right arm this summer.

John Munch, of Oakes, father of Mrs. Hammerud, arrived in the city yesterday from southern Illinois, where he has spent the past six months, and is a guest at the Hammerud home.

Henry Glaser has bought lots 4 and 5, Block 4, Bordely & Olson's third addition, from Embertson & Olson, and will move the old meat market building on these lots when he starts to build the new shop.

There was a light frost early Saturday morning, but it did not freeze hard enough to hurt the vegetation any.

Henry Brugger says there was a layer of ice on the water before sunrise, but the writer was not up early enough to see for himself.

NOME

Tribune, Sept. 1.—School will commence Monday Sept. 11.

W. H. Huile returned Friday noon from a business visit at the Twin Cities.

Martin Johnson has had his house repainted this week, Koloen & Stoutland doing the work.

C. K. Myhre left this morning for Valley City and from there will go to Fargo for a few days.

Miss Carrie Iverson, of Eastedge, visited with friends in town for a few hours Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Conner, of Fargo, is spending the week visiting with her mother, Mrs. Selvig, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Trembley and son, Ernest, spent Sunday at the W. W. Cooke home.—Ernest remained until Wednesday afternoon visiting friends.

Mrs. Chas. Furgeson, of Valley City, spent a few days visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Suby and at the home of her two sons, Ervin and Freddie.

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Rye, who have been visiting with relatives and friends at Hanlontown, Iowa, the past two weeks, returned home Monday evening.

Bernard Johnson, who has been visiting with his parents and other relatives at Rushford, Minn., for the past two weeks, returned home Monday noon.

Druggist and Mrs. L. C. Miller and Mrs. Anderson autoed to different points near by Sunday. They enjoyed a picnic dinner on the bank of the Sheyenne river at Fort Ransom, where Druggist and Mrs. Olson and family joined them, the party going on to Lisbon and Idlewild, where they spent the remainder of the day.

In talking to S. T. Phillips of the Mechanics Construction Co., last Tuesday evening, we learned that the company had already secured the contract to build a large farm house near Valley City and that they had secured the contract at a larger figure than the lowest bidder. They have been called upon already to give figures and estimates upon a good many buildings, and the success of the company is practically assured.

Martin Thoreson and August Nielson autoed up from Fenton, Iowa, the latter part of last week and visited with friends here for a few days.

Mr. Thoreson visiting at the home of Rev. and Mrs. N. I. Berg over Sunday and Monday.

Mr. Nielson visiting at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Christianson, Messers. Nielson and Thoreson left Monday for Alfred, where they will visit with Mr. Nielson's brother, Albin, for a few days before returning here for a longer visit.

They were accompanied on their trip to Alfred by Miss Julia Christianson, who will visit with her sister, Mrs. Albin Nielson, for a few days.

Dr. Ostrander was a business visitor at Enderlin Wednesday afternoon.

Wm. Herzog, Miss Alma Reishus and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Peterson and family spent Sunday fishing at the Sheyenne river.

Mrs. Bert Johnson, of Minneapolis, arrived here last Friday noon and spent several days the latter part of last week and the first of this at the guest of her sisters, Mrs. John Koloen, Mrs. Henry Johnson and Misses Inga and Caroline Knutson. She accompanied her sister, Mrs. Walter Hanson, to her home at White Rock, S. D., yesterday afternoon and will visit there for a few days before going to Canby, Minn., where she will visit with her parents for some time.

Mrs. Swen Lilletun and children arrived Saturday noon and is guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Gjesvold.

Mr. and Mrs. Knute Lilletun and Knute Lilletun, Sr., spent a few hours visiting with friends and relatives at Fingal Sunday.

The Misses Nora Nelson, Anna and Alice Ramssett, of Valley City, were Sunday guests at the home of Cashier and Mrs. L. B. Hogstad.

S. W. Robertson was a business visitor at Fargo for a few days the latter part of last week, going down Friday and returning Monday noon.

Miss Vile Vaupel, who has been employed at the L. C. Miller home for the past month, returned to her home at Valley City Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. C. Hansen and children and their guest, Mrs. Johnson, autoed to Fargo Saturday afternoon and spent Sunday visiting with friends.

Albert Holland, of Fargo, was a business visitor here for a few days the first of the week. Albert made the trip up from Fargo in his old Studebaker car, Betsy.

Rev. N. I. Berg received a letter from Prof. Gisle Bothne, of the university of Minnesota, who at present is taking his vacation and visiting with friends and relatives in this state, stating that he expects to come to Nome and spend several days visiting with them.

Rev. Berg, when talking with the Tribune reporter, said that Urof. Bothne was a very entertaining and interesting speaker and thought it would be possible to get him to speak some evening during his visit here, that he is proficient in both Norwegian and English, and that he would be willing to speak in either or both languages. In all probability, if he is secured to speak some evening there will be bills posted far enough in advance for all to know, and by keeping in close touch with Rev. Berg you will be able to find the exact date that he will be here.

L. E. Green has purchased the Ford touring car of C. K. Myhre.

E. Liljenberg spent Sunday visiting with his family at Valley City.

Cashier Olen, of Lucca, was a caller in town for a few hours Tuesday evening.

Prof. J. F. Taylor returned home Sunday morning and spent several days with his family here.

C. K. Myhre returned home Saturday evening from a short trip in the northwestern part of the state.