Cut and Dried

WROTE THE EDITOR

A friend of Cut and Dried sends the following copy of a letter he says he sent to the editor of a daily paper:

Dear Sir:
From what you said in your editorial yesterday this fellow Townley must be a general all-around crook all right. You deserve credit for exposing him. There are only a few things you haven't accused him of. For instance:

1. Beating his wife.
2. Sucking eggs.
3. Refusing to pay his honest debts.
4. Agreeing with your editorial policy.

Since he has not sunk as low as this yet, there is still hope of reform. I propose the following: Every day, after your paper is printed, he should be bound and gagged and forced to read your editorials. He should be prodded at intervals to prevent him falling asleep. If, at the end of three weeks of this treatment he has not laughed himself to death, he is a hopeless case. FAITHFUL READER.

"Dirt" farmers were scarce at Wallace's farm conference, but they won't be scarce at the polls this year.

SOME OF IT TRUE

Jones—"Don't you believe anything the politicians tell you?"
Smith—"Oh yes, I believe what they say about each other."

It wouldn't be fair to call the head of the farm bloc a bloc-head.

If we could make bootleggers pay their income tax the problem of raising money for the soldiers' bonus would be solved.

It may be all right to pass the soldiers' bonus, but let congress bone the profiteers, and not us, to get the money for it.

Ford himself drives a $15,000 Rolls-Royce car. He refuses to take his own medicine.

Now that St. Patrick's day has come around again, we are reminded anew that half the lies told about the Irish aren't true.

"Work and buy what you need"—especially if you are one of the 5,000,000 unemployed.

The figures after the names indicate the number of four-month subscriptions to the Leader that the persons mentioned have bought for neighbors or acquaintances who do not now get the paper.

Is your name in the list? Do you want to protest in the most effective way possible against the persecution of Mr. Townley for fighting the farmers' battles? If so, this plan offers you the chance.

The Townley trial protest fund gives full value for every cent contributed. Your donations of 50 cents buy actual value to that amount. Send 50 cents with the name of someone not now getting the Leader, and we will send him or her the Leader for four months. This carries the message of your program, the fight for the revival of the grain corporation, the facts about Mr. Townley's conviction, Mr. Townley's articles, and all the other important Leader features to new farmers.

You want more support for your cause. This is the way to get it, and at the same time make it known how you feel about the Townley trial. This is the kind of protesting that counts. Every one who can spare a half-dollar should come in.

Send 50 cents and the name of someone you want to "educate." Be sure to send 50 cents for each name you send. A dollar puts the Leader in the hands of two persons for four months. If you send $1.50 and three names you get a Townley picture for framing free. Use blank below:

THE NATIONAL LEADER, BOX 2072, MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.

I want to help carry the message of the injustice of Townley's conviction to others, because I am for free speech and believe that the future of the farmers' cause depends on as many as possible understanding the Townley case. I therefore inclose my check (or money order or currency) to send the Leader for four months to the name or names indicated.
