Interesting News From Across the Ocean.

HAPPENINGS IN THE FATHERLAND.

Prussian Prince that Missed a Train.

The summer has been dull in Kopenhagen. The weather has been hot and rainy. Visits to the seaside are not common this year. The travel season is in full swing, however, and the hotels have been crowded. The Prussian prince who missed his train is said to be returning to his castle near Kopenhagen in a few days. He is expected to arrive in time for the royal wedding.

SCANDINAVIAN NEWS.

The trip is a success. The papers are full of accounts of the trip. The weather has been fine, and the people are enjoying themselves. The trip is expected to last for several weeks. The newspapers are full of reports of the trip, and the people are eager to hear more about it.

MINNESOTA NEWS.

The weather is fine today. The temperature is warm, and the sky is clear. The people are enjoying themselves. The newspapers are full of reports of the weather, and the people are eager to hear more about it.

LEGISLATIVE Gossip.

The session is coming to a close. The bills are being considered, and the speeches are being heard. The session is expected to end in a few weeks. The newspapers are full of reports of the session, and the people are eager to hear more about it.

NEW MINNESOTA.

The weather is fine today. The temperature is warm, and the sky is clear. The people are enjoying themselves. The newspapers are full of reports of the weather, and the people are eager to hear more about it.

MINOR NEWS ITEMS.

The weather is fine today. The temperature is warm, and the sky is clear. The people are enjoying themselves. The newspapers are full of reports of the weather, and the people are eager to hear more about it.