Reclining Chair Cars

Are in service on all our through passenger trains. They are the most roomy and comfortable that can be built.

The aisles are carpeted. The chairs are luxuriously upholstered. Toilet rooms are provided at each end of the car. Are lighted by gas (on the limited by electricity), and heated by steam in cold weather.

A porter is in attendance to care for the comfort of passengers. It would seem that you could travel very comfortably in one of these cars, would it not?

Brief Mention

The News, Personal and Otherwise, of the City and Immediate Vicinity

W. W. Knight transacted business in New London Monday.

Read the "ad" of the International Correspondence Schools in this issue. Mrs. Hugh Sanderson left yesterday for a visit with Diamond Lake relatives.

A baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Vik Monday night.

P. L. Peterson has been doing the tin work on the new school building at Raymond.

Hon. Marcus Johnson was up from St. Paul last week looking after his business interests here.

Peter Peterson went to Kandiyohi last Friday to spend several days on the farm of Chris Parson.

Miss Agnes Spicer arrived here last Monday from a visit with her aunt, Mrs. Maynard, at Atwater.

Rev. C. C. Adams of Albert Lea, will occupy the pulpit at the Presbyterian church next Sunday.

Arthur and Emanuel Anderson, drove up from Atwater Sunday and called on Willmar friends.

W. F. Burke, of Doone, Iowa, is temporarily filling a position as assistant cashier at the depot.

Editor Smith was over from Raymond to spend Sunday with friends and incidentally get posted on the political situation.

Miss Ingeborg Larson, saleslady at the Leading Store, plans to go to Green Lake on Friday for a week's vacation.

Do you want a good education? Consult F. A. Poncin, local agent for International Correspondence schools of Scranton, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Olson of Stillwater arrived here last Saturday for a visit with Mr. Olson's brother, J. H. Olson, and family.

William Frick, clerk in Supt. Allen's office, was called to St. Paul last Friday by the sad intelligence of the death of his mother.

Miss Marie and Josephine Quandt of Thief River Falls are guests at the home of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Glarum.

W. L. Beaton and family will leave soon for Crookston, where Mr. Beaton will make his headquarters as superintendent for the Peavey Elevator Co.

Mr. L. Lindquist, who had been spending a couple of weeks here with his daughter, Mrs. Solomon Porter, returned last Friday to Minneapolis.

The young missionary workers of the Lutheran Free church held a picnic at Point Lake last Saturday afternoon, on the lake property of Rev. Gynild.

A. C. Crawford has taken possession of his new home, the former Martin Forsberg property, on Fourth street. He removed his family into it last week.

The attention of our readers is called to the "ad" of the International Correspondence Schools. This is a thoroughly reliable educational institution.

Joseph Wolpert and Miss Kate Perelson are recent arrivals from Olivia, and have been spending the past week at Green Lake as the guests of J. D. Wolpert and family.

Rounds out the hollow places: smooths out lines that creep about one's face; waxes roses back to faded cheeks. That's what Rocky Mountain Tea does. 35 cts. A. E. Mossberg.

Last Thursday's Breckenridge Telegram reports that Conductor Thos. Cowden is very ill with bronchial pneumonia. We learned later that he had recovered sufficiently to return to work.

Miss Gertrude Booth has decided to remain in the city, and will organize classes in music here and at New London. Mr. Booth expects to return to San Jacinto, Cal., in about a couple of weeks.

Miss Alferetta Stinson has as her guest last week Miss Ella Gould of Willmar. They left Tuesday morning for Glenwood, where they will visit at the camp of Miss Stinson's sister, Mrs. Nolan.—Morris Sun.

Dr. J. R. Petersen has removed his offices from the Ackerman building and will occupy the rooms vacated by Dr. J. P. Hawkinson, in the Bank of Willmar building. Dr. Hawkinson has disposed of his business interests and left this city.

Attorney Castberg returned last Thursday from his trip to the Canadian country, where he attended the Winnipeg fair and also invested in some land in the vicinity of Regina, Assiniboia. He bought a half section five miles from that city and considers it a good investment.

Mrs. L. N. McWhorter arrived here last Friday from Minneapolis to join her husband, Prof. McWhorter, who is one of the instructors at the summer school. They are guests at the Central Hotel during their stay in this city. Prof. McWhorter is a son of Engineer McWhorter, well known as a former resident of Willmar.

The watch fakir was an attraction on our streets last Friday night, and a number of "suckers" was very much in evidence. "Gold" chains were disposed of at a rate that would do credit to a large bargain counter for the low sum of $1.09—just think of it—and the "gold" watches—well, there was a good supply of cuff buttons for substitutes. It was the same old game and it was surprising how people would bite.

Miss Amy Olson of St. Paul, has been visiting Willmar relatives this week.

Deputy Co. Auditor Nelson goes to Kenmare, N. D., about the 16th inst., where he will spend some time visiting with relatives.

F. E. Falkingham, representing the Eclectic Business College of Minneapolis, was in the city this week in the interest of that institution.

EYEGLASSES ARE NOT WORN AS AN ORNAMENT.

But they need not be reverse. Ill fitting glasses are nearly always disfiguring; perfect fitting ones never.

The skilled optician takes into consideration the size and shape of the wearer's face, and reduces the objectionable features to a minimum.

Perfect fitting glasses cost no more than ill fitting ones. WE ALLOW NO MISFITS TO LEAVE OUR HANDS.

WENNERLUND & NELSON, Jewelers and Opticians.

At Raymond.

Lars Halvorson, of the Willmar Gasoline Engine Works, was in town last Wednesday on business. Mr. Halvorson came down on his bicycle motor, which he manufactured himself, and was exhibiting the same on the streets. Rev. F. W. Hill disposed of his household effects at public auction on Wednesday afternoon. A. C. Crawford of Willmar officiating as auctioneer. Mr. Hill will preach his farewell sermon on Sunday, August 10th, and will, in company with Mrs. Hill, leave the same week for the east.—Raymond News.

Growth of Minnesota Towns.

The constant growth of towns in Minnesota have made it necessary for the Great Northern to place a daily passenger train between Benson and the Twin Cities. The new train is proving a great convenience to business men and others, who wish to reach St. Paul and Minneapolis with the least expenditure of time.

New Teacher for Lafayette School.

Miss Mabel Williams of Albert Lea has been elected by the school board to fill the position made vacant by the resignation of Miss Gertrude Lloyd, in the sixth and seventh grades of the Lafayette school. Miss Williams has accepted and will be a member of the corps of teachers the coming year.

P. RASMUSON, Proprietor.

Interested in Canada Soil. O. E. Ruble returned last Wednesday from a trip to Estevan, Canada. While there he invested in a quarter section of land about 18 miles from that place, the purchase being made through the Willmar Realty Co. The land in the Assiniboia country is being rapidly taken up. Others who were in the party from here were John Rasmussen and Andrew Hildahl, who are also interested in the development of that country, and Nels Mikkelsen, who has large interests there. The gentlemen attended the Winnipeg exposition before returning home.

Again Residents of Willmar.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Paulson are again residents of Willmar and will occupy their old home about Sept. 1st. The late change in the running of the Milaca-Willmar train makes it possible for Mr. Paulson to make this city his headquarters again and the many friends of the genial mail agent and his wife are pleased to have them with us permanently.

Engines in Demand.

The Willmar Gasoline Engine Works is gaining quite a reputation for the excellent engines it is sending out, and Manufacturer Halvorson has been kept quite busy of late attending to the wants of buyers. On Thursday of last week he went to Sandstone to set up a 14-horse power engine in the wood works establishment of T. L. McCormick.
