WASHINGTON

The committee of safety and control of the Washington police, which is now in session at the Library of Congress, has voted to pass a bill to provide for the establishment of a system of police officers in the city of Washington. The bill was introduced by Representative George W. Frelinghuysen, who has been a member of Congress for over 20 years.

The bill provides for the establishment of a system of police officers in the city of Washington, including the hiring of a chief of police and other officers as necessary. It also provides for the establishment of a system of police training schools and the provision of adequate funds for the maintenance of the police force.

The bill was introduced by Representative George W. Frelinghuysen, who has been a member of Congress for over 20 years. He stated that the bill was necessary to provide adequate police protection for the citizens of Washington.

The bill was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary for consideration.

DOMESTIC

Charles W. Nethercutt, who has been a member of Congress for over 20 years, has introduced a bill to provide for the establishment of a system of police officers in the city of Washington.

The bill provides for the establishment of a system of police officers in the city of Washington, including the hiring of a chief of police and other officers as necessary. It also provides for the establishment of a system of police training schools and the provision of adequate funds for the maintenance of the police force.

The bill was introduced by Representative George W. Frelinghuysen, who has been a member of Congress for over 20 years. He stated that the bill was necessary to provide adequate police protection for the citizens of Washington.

The bill was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary for consideration.

FINLAND

The Finnish government has introduced a bill to provide for the establishment of a system of police officers in the city of Helsinki.

The bill provides for the establishment of a system of police officers in the city of Helsinki, including the hiring of a chief of police and other officers as necessary. It also provides for the establishment of a system of police training schools and the provision of adequate funds for the maintenance of the police force.

The bill was introduced by Representative George W. Frelinghuysen, who has been a member of Congress for over 20 years. He stated that the bill was necessary to provide adequate police protection for the citizens of Helsinki.

The bill was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary for consideration.

WASHINGTON

The committee of safety and control of the Washington police, which is now in session at the Library of Congress, has voted to pass a bill to provide for the establishment of a system of police officers in the city of Washington. The bill was introduced by Representative George W. Frelinghuysen, who has been a member of Congress for over 20 years.

The bill provides for the establishment of a system of police officers in the city of Washington, including the hiring of a chief of police and other officers as necessary. It also provides for the establishment of a system of police training schools and the provision of adequate funds for the maintenance of the police force.

The bill was introduced by Representative George W. Frelinghuysen, who has been a member of Congress for over 20 years. He stated that the bill was necessary to provide adequate police protection for the citizens of Washington.

The bill was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary for consideration.