Two years ago the deceased had an attack of influenza from which he never fully recovered. The last months he suffered much, patiently awaiting the end.

Mr. Nelson was 79 years of age, lacking 20 days. He was born on May 27, 1842, at Jydstrup, Sjeland, Denmark. Here he grew to manhood, and learned the trade of stone mason and plasterer. In the year 1875 he immigrated to America coming directly to this county, locating on a farm 3 miles north of Willmar. Here he lived for three years. In 1878 he moved on a farm in Whitefield township which was his home for twenty-five years. The next sixteen years were spent on a farm 1 mile southeast of Willmar, till he retired to the city two years ago.

In 1870 the deceased was married to Kerstin Johnson who for more than 50 years has been his faithful companion. Nine children blessed this home. All are living and were in attendance at the funeral. Their names and places of residence are: Nels P. Nelson, Bucyrus, N. D.; Christian G. Nelson, Yankton, S. D.; (Anna) Mrs. N. P. Jorgenson; (Mary) Mrs. Albert Peterson; Charles Nelson; (Emma) Mrs. Wm. Gabbert and (Hanna) Mrs. J. L. Johnson, all of Willmar. Emil P. Nelson lives on the old home farm and Sigfred W. Nelson on a farm southwest of Willmar. There are also two step-sons, Andrew Johnson of Whitefield and Hans Johnson of Willmar. There are 30 grand children and 6 great-grandchildren. The only other surviving near relative is a brother, Nels Nelson of Puyallup, Washington.

The funeral was held last Wednesday afternoon at the home, and the Vinje Lutheran church. Rev. Arnt Vaaler officiated. The floral tributes were many. The pallbearers were 6 sons of the departed one, the seventh supporting the mother.

Interment was made in Fairview cemetery. Those from a distance who attended the funeral were: N. P. Jydstrup of Minneapolis, C. W. Nelson of Paynesville and Wm.
