

Have you Seen them.

We mean the many pretty things which are to be found at Eckstein's Drug Store.

The most complete Christmas stock ever brought to New Ulm.

Look over our lists and see if you do not strike something you want.

The prettiest Jewel and Dressing cases, the Nicest Work Boxes you ever "sot eyes on."

Fancy Mirrors, as pretty as those who look into 'em. Manicure sets of every fashion.

Photograph Cases, Autograph Albums, Writing Portfolios and Purses of all kinds.

How about the Men.

We can supply their wants as well as these sweethearts and wives.

Albums—why you never saw anything like it. All kinds at all prices.

Tasty Ink stands, and Gold Penholders and Pens.

Cigar Cases and Smoking Sets are always in order and make nice gifts for gentlemen.

Or how would a shaving set do? Or a fine and durable travelling case? We have the best.

And then there's cuff and collar boxes, pocket knives, whisk brooms holders and in fact everything.

Did you say Toys.

The Children just go wild over our Interesting Toys and Jolly Juveniles. They are the latest novelties. They are not thrown in the corner after the first day.

Merry-go-rounds, Ferris wheels, automatic engines and windmills, bicycle riders and dancing minstrels—these are all toys that cannot help but tickle the youngsters.

And don't forget that we have magic lanterns, air guns, steam ships, trains, drums, trick donkeys and all sorts of games, from Barnum's circus to chess.

For the little girls, there are kitchen sets, Dishes, Toy Stoves, furniture, trunks, cradles, scrap books, musical toys and dolls in abundance.

How about Prices.

We bought in job lots and can sell at wholesale prices. We are not to be undersold by anybody and have always had the reputation of giving satisfaction.

Call around and we will help you to make the hearts of others glad. Christmas should be full of sunshine and joy.

ANDREW J. ECKSTEIN.

BOOKS FOR THE HOLIDAY. At the Pioneer Drug Store you will find a large line of holiday and gift books—also literature of the most popular grades. Call in and look over our books. Andrew J. Eckstein.

BOOKLETS, BOOKLETS. Buy a nice Booklet and send it as a token to some distant friend. We have them in all styles and varieties. Andrew J. Eckstein.

His friends were many and his enemies few, if any.

Here and There.

When women oppose themselves to the projects and ambitions of men, they excite their lively resentment; if in their youth they meddle with political intrigues, their modesty must suffer.—Mme. de Staël.

He who would be a great soul in the future must be a great soul now.—Emerson.

There are three styles of ties now in use; quiet, loud and extra loud—otherwise, subdued, dude and overdone.—Harper's Bazar.

Give not thy tongue too great a liberty, lest it take thee prisoner. A word unspoken is, like the sword in the scabbard, thine; if vented, thy sword is in another's hand. If thou desire to be held wise, be so wise as to hold thy tongue.—Quarles.

The happiness of your life depends upon the character of your thoughts.—Marcus Antonius.

Too much idleness fills up a man's time much more completely, and leaves him less his own master than any sort of employment whatever.—Burke.

Set yourself earnestly to see what you were made to do, and then set yourself earnestly to do it, and the loftier your purpose is, the more sure you will be to make the world richer with every enrichment of yourself.—Philip Brooks.

Voltaire says that Providence has given us hope and sleep as a compensation for the many cares of life. He might have added laughter, if the wit and originality of humor, necessary to excite it among rational people, were not so rare.—Kant.

It is far easier to feign respect when we do not feel it than to express it when we actually do; for which reason frank, straightforward people always appear hypocritical to suspicious ones. The very fact of seeming deceitful makes us seem so.—New York Ledger.

Sam Jones bought a lot of whiskey and poured it out in the street in Monroe, Louisiana. The Whiskey Trust would like to have him buy a few million barrels and pour it out.

Whenever you see want or misery or degradation in this world about you, then be sure either industry has been wanting or industry has been in error.—Ruskin.
