Muesing and L. Sievert. Next Sunday the upper grades will be examined and the Sunday thereafter the members of the confirmation class.

Saturday evening of this week is the date set for the game of bowling which is to take place between the Consolidated Milling team of Minneapolis and the team from the Eagle mill of this city. The New Ulm boys were quite badly defeated in the game played at Minneapolis but will probably show what they are able to do on the home alleys.

Prof. Herm. Hein has been requested to start a ladies' afternoon class in gymnastics, and he is willing to do so, provided the class has a membership of at least fifteen. It is intended to have the exercises twice a week from 2 to 3 o'clock p. m. All those wishing to join are requested to register with Mr. Hein, where further particulars can also be had.

Dr. J. P. Graff of New Ulm was in town last Saturday making his usual professional call. The doctor has been recently appointed on Gen. Bobleter's staff in charge of the commissary department with the rank of captain. The doctor is a Spanish-American War soldier and an all round gentleman. His many friends throughout the county extend congratulations.—Sleepy Eye Herald.

Yesterday an officer of the government arrived in this city and took the Indian maiden, Irene Baker, who has been at the hospital for the past week or more to one of the Indian agencies west of here where she will be put in one of the schools and cared for by the government. She is the girl who came here from Virginia in the hope of finding some of the relatives of her parents, but failed to get even a clue of their past or present. She has been cared for by the county.

One of the largest of the catalogue houses of Chicago has failed, and it has carried with it sums in greater or lesser amounts of many farmers of the state. This concern was known as the Cash Buyers' Union, and paraded itself before the people representing that it "divided the profits" and actually sold to many of the farmers of the state a considerable amount of stock. The country would be better off if more of these concerns would fail and the business they do be converted to local channels where people are at least reasonably secure in getting value received for their money.

The announcement of the spring opening of millinery which is to take place at the parlors of Mrs. B. Follmann, appears in this issue of the Review. The date of the opening is fixed for the 31st and will be as elaborate as any that have preceded it. Miss Blanche Florida of Milwaukee is the name of the new trimmer who arrived last week to look after that part of the business for Mrs. Follmann.

A matter that is of more or less interest to many people is that of the sixty seven towns that voted in the elections last week on the license question more than half of them went dry. It does not appear that the fight was made so much against the saloon as against its flagrant violation of the laws of the state, and in this the saloon makes a serious mistake and brings just criticism upon itself.

L. G. Vogel returned Saturday from a trip to a number of the cities near here to which places he had been in the interest of his candidacy for the nomination of state treasurer. He says that he is greatly encouraged from the conditions as he found them and believes the situation to be even better than he had anticipated. He left again Monday for Rochester and points in that vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Grussendorf and little son residing near New Ulm, spent Sunday in Fairfax visiting at the home of the gentleman's brother, D. A. Grussendorf, superintendent of the Fairfax schools. A sister of Mr. Grussendorf also of New Ulm, accompanied them. The visitors returned to their homes on Monday accompanied by their aged mother who has spent most of the winter with her son in Fairfax.—Fairfax Standard.

A. Hoidale, father of Einar Hoidale of this place was in the city Saturday from his home in Dawson. He says at the election held there last week, the question of license or no license was up and there was a majority of forty-two votes for no license. This is two less votes than the proposition had a year ago and he says they have figured it out that at the rate it is going it will be twenty-one years before they will be able to get a saloon in there.

Conway McMillan, professor of botany at the State University will be in the city Saturday and in the evening will deliver a lecture on the subject of botany at the auditorium of the high school building to which the public is invited. This is the third in a series of very interesting lectures that have been brought about through the influence of Dr. Strickler and his public spiritedness in this matter should be appreciated to the extent that a good crowd may be present on Saturday evening.

Senator Somerville has another county seat fight on his hands. His last effort was at Ivenhoe, in which case he came out victorious and his next one will be Lakefield. The county seat of Jackson county is at present at Jackson, a very pretty place but hard to get to, and an attempt is to be made at the coming election to have the location changed to Lakefield, about the center of the county. If legal ability will win the contest the Lakefield people have struck the right man.

Wm. Werring of Golden Gate was in the city Monday. He says that it is doubtful whether or not there will be any further developments in the Just robbery case, and there is some question as to the reliability of the statements as made by the old people, some persons in that neighborhood even incline to believe that the whole thing was more of a scare than anything else and as the time passed was magnified in the minds of the couple which led them to finally call for an investigation.

Dr. J. L. Schoch sold his interest in the Schoch-Reinhart block last week to B. Reinhart, after owning it less than one year. The building was erected last summer and is about as well equipped for office purposes as any building in the city and with the exception of two rooms is all occupied. These rooms for a time were used by a commission house and at present are for rent. This is the second business building Dr. Schoch has been the chief factor in erecting in this city and has succeeded in disposing of his interest in them almost as soon as they were erected.

A Lively Tussle with that old enemy of the race, Constipation, often ends in Appendicitis. To avoid all serious trouble with Stomach, Liver and Bowels, take Dr. King's New Life Pills. They perfectly regulate these organs, without pain or discomfort. 25c at O. M. Olsen Druggist.

The sad case of the burning to death of the wife of J. F. O'Brien at Wabasso last Wednesday carries with it a shudder and the deepest feelings of regret and sympathy for her bereaved family. She was one of the young ladies of this county, the daughter of Doc Lee of the town of Eden. According to the story told by her husband she was working about the kitchen stove and attempted to use her apron to lift something when it caught fire and she was soon enveloped in flames. He did his best to smother them but was unable to do so and she died shortly after the fire had burned itself out.

Rev. Schultz, pastor of the local Evangelical church is preparing to entertain the next conference of ministers of his denomination for this state, says the Sleepy Eye Herald. The conference will be held from April 29th to May 6th and there will be about seventy-five ministers present. Bishop Bowman will preside. Rev. Schultz states that two or three of the services in the evening will be in English so that the public can attend. Bishop Bowman will no doubt deliver one sermon in English. On Sunday morning May 6th the different churches can be supplied with visiting clergymen. The meetings will be looked upon by the Evangelical church people and our citizens in general as being of much importance.

G. Lowes Dickinson, author of "A Modern Symposium," while never himself passing judgement on the American people, quite frequently permits his characters to do so, and one of his types, "A Modern Symposium" a journalist, makes a remark quite apt in these days of hot discussion over American football, says this speaker in the April McClure's: "They have converted games into battles, and battles in which every weapon is legitimate as long as it is victorious. An American football match exhibits in a type the American spirit, short, sharp, scientific, intense, no loitering by her road, no enjoyment of the process, no favor, no quarter, but a fight to the death, with victory at the end and everything as the means."

A bill recently introduced by Senator Nelson for the purpose of getting a tract of land for the use of a sanitarium for consumptives in the northern part of the state, was made necessary because there were forty acres of the piece bought by the commission last year that was homestead land and had to be acquired by government title. The bill provides that this small tract so deeded shall revert to the government in case the sanitarium should fail and the property be used for other purposes. Dr. Weiser, who is a member of the commission states that a house has been erected on the property bought last year and a man lives there awaiting orders to go ahead with the foundation work of the building.

A matter of interest to merchants and others who have advertising to do was brought out in a conversation with a representative of one of the largest manufacturing concerns in the United States, in a recent visit to this city. He said that for years his house had been placing its advertising with magazines and had spent many thousands of dollars a year with them, but he had talked the house into using the country weeklies, and after the first year the results were so surprisingly better than obtained from the magazines that the house discontinued the use of them and now has several men on the road whose business it is to place contracts with newspapers. He says that it is the paper in the home towns that is read and brings the results.

News was received in this city yesterday of the death of Mrs. Carolina Kirschstein, who was making her home with her daughter in Minneapolis. She will be buried in the cemetery at this place tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. Kirschstein will be remembered particularly by the older residents of this city as one of the first settlers to come to this city. She and her husband arrived here in 1857 and located on Minnesota street on the property now owned by Cap. Nenno. During the siege by the Indians her husband attempted to reach to his house which was then in the outskirts of the city proper. He did not return and later
