COLLISION ON THE NORTHWESTERN.

Four Cars Wrecked. No One Injured.

A rear-end collision occurred on the tracks of the Northwestern road at the crossing of Third North street, last Saturday night about nine o'clock between two freight trains, both going east. A special freight train, just before leaving the station for Mankato, backed up to get water at the water tank. At the same time the regular freight, No. 578, was attempting to slow up at the crossing on Third North street, having just come down the hill, northwest of the city. The regular did not stop soon enough, and the special being of extraordinary length, backed into the engine of No. 578 with considerable speed. The engineer and fireman on the incoming train, seeing that a collision was unavoidable, jumped, as also did a brakeman on the other freight. The two trains came together with terrible force, derailing and entirely demolishing four cars, the caboose, a car loaded with oats, an empty car and one of merchandise. Workmen were immediately put to work to clearing the track and the midnight passenger train was delayed just an hour and a half. The entire debris of the wreck was cleared away by Tuesday. No one of the train crew was injured.

Staggers Skeptics.

That a clean, nice, fragrant compound like Bucklen's Arnica Salve will instantly relieve a bad burn, cut, scald, wound or piles, staggers skeptics. But great cures prove it's a wonderful healer of the worst sores, ulcers, boils, felons, eczema, skin eruptions, as also chapped hands, sprains and corns. Try it. 25c at O. M. Olsen.

Obituary.

Wm. G. Behnke died early last Monday morning after a severe illness of about three months.

Deceased was born Sept. 1, 1863 in New Ulm where he attended the public schools up to the age of fifteen, when he entered the hardware business of J. B. Arnold with which firm he remained for over 11 years. In 1889 he left New Ulm for St. James where he started a business of his own with Wm. Oetting as partner. In this venture he was very successful carrying on an extensive hardware & tinware business for over 20 years. Early this spring Mr. Behnke failed in health and in June he moved to New Ulm. Here, at the home of his mother, Mrs. Esther C. Behnke he received the best of care and splendid medical assistance. About two weeks ago he seemed to rally and hopes were entertained at that time for a final recovery. A few days ago, however, he experienced a relapse and neither care nor science were able to ward off death. Mr. Behnke is survived by his aged mother, five brothers and one sister. These are: Frank H. Behnke, New Ulm; Mrs. Eda Heidemann, New Ulm; Albert T. Behnke, Newburg, Ore.; Oscar Behnke, Sioux City, Iowa; Henry W. Behnke, New York City and Jay Behnke, Minneapolis.

The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon from the residence of Mrs. Esther C. Behnke on South Washington St. Interment will be made in the city cemetery. Henry W. of New York and Jay Behnke of Minneapolis will be here to attend the funeral. Rev. Wheeler will officiate.

THE EDISON PHONOGRAPH

The Perfect Sound Reproduction which established the supremacy of lies in the point of contact between the Phonograph and Record—the sapphire reproducing point.

This is the point that conveys the sound from the Record to the audience—And right here is the secret, the perfect life-like tone of the Edison instead of a metallic, nasal tone.

But this is not the only feature of the sapphire reproducing point. The sapphire reproducing point is not a "point" but a "button", and it travels in the groove or thread of the Record with a minimum of friction. There is no scratching, no harshness and practically no wear on either the reproducing point or the Record.

That is why Edison Records retain their sweet, musical tones for years—That is why your Edison Phonograph is an investment that brings a lifetime of enjoyment.

There is an Edison Phonograph at whatever price you wish to pay, from the Gem at $12.50 to the Amberola at $200 00

Remember we sell on the Easy Installment Plan—Only $1.00 a Week.

Eug. A. Pfefferle The Reliable Druggist.
