LOCAL NOTES

H. H. Arhart of Thief River Falls, a fireman on the "Soo", is spending a week's vacation at the home of his parents.

Mrs. Jacob Klossner, Sr. celebrated her 89th birthday last Tuesday. She is in the best of health and quite active for her advanced age.

Chief Henry Engel had the fire department out for their first practice Sunday morning. It is intended to have occasional fire drills during the summer and fall.

Chas. Emmerich, the well-known plumber, tells us that we can announce the arrival of a son at his home. The young fellow put in an appearance early Saturday morning.

Alvin Friedmann of Mapleton, a New Ulm boy, was in the city the early part of the week. He has sold out his business interests at Mapleton and is looking for a new location.

Miss Martha Reinhart, who is completing the term of school at Cobden for a teacher who had to give up the work on account of illness, was home for the week-end and attended the Junior reception to the Seniors at Turner Hall Friday evening.

J. A. Adlemann, West Plains, Mo., was in bed with kidney trouble and rheumatism, but Foley Kidney Pills put him on his feet. He says: "I was no better when a friend recommended Foley Kidney Pills. They benefited me from the start and in a few days I was out of bed and in 14 days threw away my cane. I cheerfully recommend Foley Kidney Pills. O. M. Olsen.

On Monday, May 6th, application will be made to Hon. I. M. Olsen at Sleepy Eye for the appointment of a member of the Board of Public Works to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. L. A. Fritzsche. The Mayor, we understand, will recommend the appointment of C. H. Dirks. This appointment will again give the 3rd ward a representative on this Board. The other members are Ferdinand Cronz and Eugene A. Pfeifferle.

The assessors of the County gathered at the Court-house Thursday forenoon for the purpose of receiving their assessment books and supplies from the County Auditor and to discuss matters in general and agree upon a uniform rate of taxation. The meeting was held in the grand jury room. William Rosbach of the Town of Albin, the oldest assessor in the County, was chosen to act as chairman and Chas. Grusendorf of New Ulm as Secretary. It was decided to assess the personal property at the rates prevailing last year and to raise the rate for real estate from $12 10 to $13.50 per acre.

Only a small number participated in the shoot held by the New Ulm Business Men's Club at the Fair Grounds Sunday afternoon. The day for the weekly shoot has not been decided upon, but will be in a short time. The club numbers 30 members who are willing to accept new members who take kindly to this sport. Secretary A. G. Bierbaum will be pleased to give detailed information to any one who may desire it. Out of a possible 25 birds, the following scores were made: A. G. Bierbaum, 20; Arthur Janka, 16; Theo. Johnson, 15; B. Esser, 14; Math. Pederson, 14; Anton Simmet, 12; Wm. Edwards, 8; Stanis Sperl, 4.

The dry grass in the infield of the Fair Grounds was set on fire by school-boys Wednesday afternoon and for a while threatened the fence and some of the buildings. Nick Faas who first discovered the flames gave the alarm and William Engelbert Secy. of the Brown County Agricultural Society hastened to the scene. Their united efforts for more than an hour were required to get the fire under control, and to eliminate the danger to the buildings. It seems, however, that the fire got a fresh start during the night and about midnight Ferdinand Cronz, Pres. of the Society was routed out of bed and went out to the Grounds to satisfy himself that there was no immediate danger of the fire spreading to the buildings.

The members of the Hunter's Club will try to demonstrate that substantial improvements can be made at Hunters Rest without the expenditure of money. The present shooting stand is inadequate and at the last meeting of the club it was decided to erect a new one if it were possible to do so with an empty exchequer. The committee in charge secured the necessary slabs from the local saw-mills as a donation and the posts from Albert Everling. The Hauenstein Brewing Co. furnished the teams to haul the material to its destination and Sunday the members of the club and their friends furnished the brawn and muscle for the construction work. The job could not be completed, of course in one day, but will be shortly. Besides the shooting stand with log cabin effect, a third target will be installed to facilitate the practice work.

Miss Ellen Doris Kiesling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Kiesling of Kiesling, Wash. and Louis A. Dyer, were united in marriage on the 24th of April. They expect to make their home at "Pahata", Kiesling, Wash.

The annual meeting of the New Ulm Rural Telephone Company will be held at Schell's Hall, Thursday (May 2nd) in the forenoon at 10:30. The reports of the officers will be submitted at this meeting and new officers elected. Every stockholder is urgently requested to attend.

The Republican County Convention will be held at the Opera House in Springfield May 13th at 11 o'clock a. m. The primary elections will be held at the usual polling places Friday evening, May 10th at 7 o'clock p. m. New Ulm will be entitled to 27 delegates in all, eight for the 1st ward, 9 for the 2nd and 10 for the 3rd.

F. R. Reiss, 1005 Forest St., Racine, Wis., had an acute attack of kidney trouble and knew at once what would cure him. He says: "My back ached and I was miserable, but I took Foley Kidney Pills and in a few days time my back was better. Now I am cured and have had no return of the trouble. Foley Kidney Pills did it." O. M. Olsen.

Knights of Columbus to the number of 75 from St. Patrick's Council went to Fairfax Sunday morning by special train at 10 o'clock returning shortly after midnight. They assisted in the organization and installation of a new council at that place. Our informant tells us that the degree work done by a team from St. Paul was simply grand, that the banquet was delicious and that everybody had a royal good time.

There are people in this town who unthinkingly neglect a "mere cold" though they would not otherwise expose their children or themselves to danger. Yet a cold neglected may develop into contagious diphtheria, bronchitis, or pneumonia. Use Foley's Honey and Tar Compound promptly for it stops coughs quickly and cures colds. It contains no opiates and is safe for children. O. M. Olsen.

PRESIDENT DONS FIGHTING TOGS

Taft Bitterly Denounces Former President Roosevelt.

REMARKS BRISTLE WITH FIRE

Asserts Colonel is a Dangerous Man and His Nomination or Election Would Be a Calamity.

Boston, April 26.—President Taft donned his fighting clothes, abandoned his policy of silence under the attacks that Colonel Theodore Roosevelt has made upon him and upon his administration and, for the first time since Mr. Roosevelt announced his candidacy, launched into a bitter denunciation of the former president.

From the time Mr. Taft entered Massachusetts and made his first speech at Springfield he hammered away at Colonel Roosevelt. The president made close to a dozen speeches, many of them extended, the rest only a few words in length.

In all he made it clear that he is unalterably opposed to Mr. Roosevelt; that he saw disaster in a third term in the White House for any man and that he did not believe Colonel Roosevelt had given him a "square deal."

He spoke to good sized crowds in all the cities where he made set speeches and at the towns and villages where his train stopped briefly the people flocked around his private car and listened with close attention.

The president spoke at Springfield and Palmer, twice in Worcester and at Natick, South Framingham and several smaller towns.

Seems Reluctant at First.

In the beginning he seemed to utter his attack on Colonel Roosevelt with reluctance.

"This wrenches my soul," he said once.

As the day wore on, however, and he made speech after speech in which he denounced Mr. Roosevelt again and again Mr. Taft grew more aggressive in manner, emphasized his words with gestures and apparently laid aside any feeling of regret he may have felt at this evidence that the long friendship with his former chief was broken.

His principal Boston address was delivered in the arena to a large crowd, but before retiring to his private car he spoke briefly to an "overflow" meeting in Symphony hall. His speech in the Arena was delivered from manuscript, prepared during the last few days in Washington, carefully gone over by members of his cabinet and containing a detailed answer to many of Mr. Roosevelt's charges.

Mr. Taft's speech bristled with counter charges against his predecessor in the White House. He declared that Mr. Roosevelt had willfully misrepresented him, had falsely distorted some of his public utterances, had failed to live up to his policy of a square deal and had violated a solemn promise to the American people not to be a candidate for a third term.

COLONEL MAKES BITTER RETORT

Roosevelt Mercilessly Denounces President Taft.

Worcester, Mass., April 27.—Merciless denunciation of President Taft was Colonel Roosevelt's reply to the president's attack upon him. Some of Colonel Roosevelt's assertions were:

That President Taft had not given the people of the country a "square deal," but that owing to a "quality of feebleness" he had "yielded to the bosses and the great privileged interests."

That one part of the president's attack upon him was "the crookedest kind of a deal" and "deliberate misrepresentation."

That the president "has not merely in thought, word and deed been disloyal to our past friendship, but has been disloyal to every canon of ordinary decency and fair dealing, such as should obtain even in dealing with a man's bitterest opponents."

That the president's statement regarding the influence of federal officeholders in the campaign was "not only an untruth, but an absurd untruth."

That Mr. Taft convicted himself of insincerity when he signed the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill.

That in speaking of Colonel Roosevelt's position in regard to the trust problem President Taft "is himself guilty of a crooked deal."

Dozen Buildings Burned.

Brunswick, Me., April 28.—More than a dozen buildings, including two churches, the water tower and shops of the Maine Central railroad, the sheds of a coal firm and several dwelling houses were destroyed by a fire which for a time threatened to wipe out the town. The losses total more than $100,000.

We received a new lot of goods recently, which we will be most pleased to show you.

Come in and look them over.

Mrs. Chas. Rolloff

Your wife knows she cannot make a good dress out of poor material. She knows that it would not be economy.

It is just as poor business to buy poor paint. You cannot get any service or value out of it. If you only stop to realize the importance of this fact, you will investigate the paint question, and when you do you will buy your paint from us, for the paints we handle are made and sold on merit. This is the way we buy them and we sell them the same way.

We carry the well-known Harrison Bros. Town & Country Paints.
