STILL HALE AND HEARY

Admiral Dewey Celebrates His Seventy-fifth Birthday.
Washington, Dec. 27.—Admiral George Dewey, the most famous living American naval officer, is seventy-five years old. His birthday party and his reception to a host of friends here find him as strong and hearty as he has been the last decade.

In the afternoon, following the custom since Admiral Dewey has been stationed in Washington, his friends and many official associates called at his home to extend their congratulations to Admiral Dewey and Mrs. Dewey.

chairman of the investigating committee, soon after congress reconvenes. The investigation has been

ABOUT THE STATE

News of Especial Interest to Minnesota Readers.

COUNTY TREASURER OUSTED

Court Holds He Violated Corrupt Practices Act by Treating to Liquor and Cigars.

Judge Andrew Grindeland, sitting at Mahanomen, has officially declared James McIntosh, elected county treasurer at the last election, ineligible to hold office. He says he violated the corrupt practices act by giving away cigars and treating voters to liquor, at the same time asking for support at the polls. This was the first case ever tried in Minnesota under the act.

Judge Grindeland intimated that inasmuch as the office had been declared vacant the board of commissioners would appoint a treasurer, the position not going to the person who received second place in the election.
G. H. Tibbets was the contestant.
He received 286 votes to 375 for Mc-Intosh.

NETS DRAG MAN TO DEATH

Lake Superior Fisherman Meets Same Fate as His Partner.

One fisherman lost his life by drowning and two other men narrowly escaped death when they fell from fishing tugs on the north shore of Lake Superior. Lawrence Wicklund was pulled to death by his nets only forty feet from the shore at Beaver bay, where he lived. John Lorenzen, Wicklund's partner, was drowned in a similar manner a year ago.

Mike Myers, a watchman from Split Rock, was pulled from the lake by Gust Mattson, when Myers went over the side of the fishing tug. He was rushed to Two Harbors in a sleigh to receive medical attention.

Another man, named not learned, went overboard from the tug Crescent and was rescued after he had lost consciousness in the cold water.

EQUIPMENT FOR ORE ROADS

Iron Range Lines Want 2,000 Steel Cars and a Dozen Engines.

The Duluth, Missabe and Northern and the Duluth and Iron-Range Railroad companies are about to order considerable equipment for delivery next spring. The former road plans to buy 1,000 steel ore cars and three passenger locomotives, and the latter 1,000 steel cars, six freight locomotives and three passenger locomotives.

The ore cars will be of the standard drop bottom type and of 100,000 pounds, or fifty net tons, capacity each. Early placing of orders is necessary, as the car and locomotive works of the country both have orders for months ahead, it is said.

WORLD'S BIGGEST ORE DOCK

Will Be Built at Duluth at a Cost of $2,750,000.

The world's biggest ore dock will be built at Duluth and probably will be ready for traffic by next fall. The Duluth, Missabe and Northern railroad announced that construction will be started next month on a steel and concrete dock that will cost $2,750,- 000.

It will have 384 pockets, with a capacity of 100 tons each; length, 2,300 feet. It will discharge ore from either side and ten of the largest lake freighters will be able to take cargoes at the same time.

GUERNSEY COW HAS RECORD

Duluth Animal Produces 595 Pounds of Butter Fat in Year.

Starlight Fern, a Guernsey cow the property of a Duluth concern, has broken all records for Guernseys in Minnesota. In the year just completed Starlight Fern produced 595 pounds of butter fat, which is equivalent to 695 pounds of butter. The record is the official Minnesota granger record.

TREE FIRE KILLS A CHILD

House Burned and Seven of Family Have Close Call.

Edith, the five-year-old daughter of John Frabelle, was burned to death at Holyoke in a fire originating from a lighted Christmas tree.

The home was destroyed and the seven other members of the family barely made their escape, losing all their clothing except what they had on.

CHOKED BY CORN SHELTER

Farmer's Neck Scarf Catches in Tumbling Rod.

Lars Pederson, aged seventy, living twelve miles southeast of Luverne, was strangled to death by a corn shelter. His neck scarf was caught by the tumbling rod, which drew him to the ground. He was found dead by his wife. Mr. Pederson was a pioneer resident of Rock county.

the premier buttermaker of the state of Minnesota for 1912, having scored an average of 95.541-6 in the by the state dairy and food department. He will receive a gold watch trophy for leading the state.

The village of Fountain, south of Winona, had a narrow escape from total destruction by fire. The fire, however, caused a loss estimated at $10,- 000. Three business houses were destroyed and the Fountain State bank was threatened. No insurance was carried on the property destroyed.

BOOMING HILL FOR CABINET POSITION

Friends Want Rail Magnate in Agriculture Department.

Out of the great Northwest there has come a boom for James J. Hill of St. Paul for secretary of agriculture in President Wilson's cabinet.
The master builder of railroads and the "empire builder" of the Northwest is presented also as a master of ideas of agricultural development. It has been learned that preparations are under way to bring the boom directly to the door of President Elect Wilson at the earliest possible opportunity.

In the meantime, it is understood, the great railroad man, retired and advancing toward his seventy-fifth birthday, is being urged by his admirers to view the headship of the agricultural department as a crowning triumph of his career.

Bankers in St. Paul and Minneapolis, following the popular enthusiasm with which Mr. Hill was greeted, organized a working committee, having in view the presentation of Mr. Hill's name to President Elect Wilson.

Aged Man Burned to Death.

Michael Reuck of St. Paul, seventy-four years of age, an employee of Swift & Co., was burned to death in his bed when his cottage was destroyed by fire. It is believed the blaze originated in the bed clothing.
The old man was in the habit of smoking his pipe while in bed.

Machinery Plant Burns.

Fire which started in the basement of the C. I. Johnson Manufacturing company building at St. Paul caused an estimated loss of $60,000 to the Johnson firm, manufacturers of printing machinery, and $30,000 to Maendler Bros., brush manufacturers.

Sleeping Baby Smothered.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. G.
N. Helland, recently of North Dakota, was smothered to death at Ada when an older child lay on him while both were asleep.

HILL SURVEYORS IN CANADA

Crew Said to Be Mapping Out Route for Proposed Line.

Winnipeg, Dec. 30.—Considerable interest has been aroused by the presence in the vicinity of Weyburn, Sask., of a party of surveyors who claim to be connected with the Hill systems, and who have been looking over the ground between there and the international boundary line, in view of the projected invasion of Western Canada by the Great Northern railway.

It is the intention of the Hill company to run a line from Crosby, N. D., to Weyburn, thus establishing a competitive line with the Canadian Pacific company's Soo road.

THIEVES MAKE RICH HAUL

Steal Furs Valued at $10,000 in La Crosse, Wis.

La Crosse, Wis., Dec. 30.—As a result of a daring robbery thieves made away with furs valued at $10,000 from the warerooms of the La Crosse Fur and Hide company, of which M. Rosenstein is president.

The fact that only the most expensive and rare furs were taken indicates the thieves were experienced.
The police report having seen two strangers leaving on a train, northbound, carrying three heavy suitcases.
