TAKES OFF DANDRUFF, HAIR STOPS FALLING

Save your Hair! Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine right now—Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine, tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store. You surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine. Save your hair! Try it!

Bowling Season Over.

The local bowling season is rapidly drawing to a close. A few games are still being rolled on the alleys of the Catholic school house but the games of the bowling league are about over. A splendid team of pin splitters has been developed during the winter and the local rollers have given a very creditable account of themselves in competition with out-of-town teams.

The following have rolled 200 or over during the past season: John Forster, 267; A. J. Meyer, 255; Ed. Berg, 247; Rev. John Wagner, 238; Wm. Puchner, 235; Arthur Teynor, 224; Hy. Rannweiler, 221; Ed. Baier, 220; W. Baer, 218; Ath. Henle, 200; Jos. Puchner, 214; Hilarious Berg, 209; Geo. Vetter, 205; Leo Berg, 200; Robt. Henle, 200; Frank Tauscheck, 200; John Gerber, 200.

At the St. Pauls Lutheran Church the following 42 took the vows of the church in the morning and the holy sacrament: Wm. Boettcher, Emil Guth, Ray Fenske, Wm. Job, Paul Themnitz, Karl Steinberg, Alf. Reinke, Ernest Sperling, Ruben Schreyer, Erwin Cordes, Adolph Schapekahm, Paul Muske, Edwin Stelljes, Edgar Blauert, Elmer Tappe, Elmer Melzer, Herbert Luetjen, Emma Moeritz, Helene Gutknecht, Albertina Herta Guse, Alma Gareis, Alma Pidge, Alwine Juderjahn, Ella Nehls, Ida Giese, Viola Olson, Eleanor Falk, Herta Falk, Honora Langmack, Anna Fiemer, Susie Friedrich, Meta Schriefer, Hermine Bentdahl, Rosa Tepe, and Norma Klaus.

A special church service was held in the evening which was attended by all members of the confirmation class.

At the Evangelical Friedens Church at New Ulm, Rev. Mayer conducted the services in the morning and confirmed the following class of 10:

Anton Wies, Alfred Koester, Fred Boerger, Theo. Crone, Walter Hoffman, Waldemar Johns, Olga Boesch, Bertha Oetting, Anna Mueller, Frieda Schaefer, Julia Meyer, Leona Konakowitz and Alwine Dalweg.

Glee Club Entertains.

The program given by the Glee Club of the High School last Friday evening proved entirely successful in every way. The assembly hall was packed by the school children and their parents who all voted the evening an unqualified success. The girls deserve great commendation for the way they carried the program thru.

The Glee Club started the program with "Dry Yo' Eyes" and responded to a well deserved encore with "Shadows". Rosebud Engel recited a well prepared recitation, "Billy Brad and the Big Red Lobster" which was enthusiastically received. The club then rendered "Looks and Eyes" and "The Gypsy Song" followed by Miss Thornton's violin number which won the pronounced approval of the entire audience.

Then came a very clever little farce, "Miss Parkington". The awkward attempts of Jack Carrow to propose to the fair Miss Parkington were considerably complicated by the fact that Miss Adelaide Parkington had an aunt who was also Miss Parkington and who had reached an age where it was not safe to delay too long. Josie the maid, being in love herself, was only too willing to try to clear up the tangle but the diffidence of Mr. Jack for a time seemed too much for even her wits to overcome. The tangle is finally cleared up to the satisfaction of all unless it be the elder Miss Parkington. The part of the younger Miss Parkington was admirably filled by Stella Gag and Beata Krook was equally good as the anxious, elder Miss Parkington. Leona Mayer made an excellent maid and, as an advisor to the love lorn, was second only to Beatrice Fairfax. Hilarious Berg played the part of Jack Carrow and won great applause for his clever work as the diffident and badly confused suitor.

The program was closed by a selection from the glee club who appeared in darkey costume and gave "The Coppah Moon."

Miss Ida Heers will open her kindergarten at the Turner Hall the Tuesday after Easter and all children who will attend this spring should be entered at this time.

CHANGES IN PASSENGER RATES.

On May 1st a new series of rates will go into effect on the Railways of Minnesota which changes the cost of tickets between interstate points considerable in some cases. The change in the rates is due to an attempt to equalize the interstate rates and make them compatible with the Minnesota two-cent rate. It has been the custom heretofore to charge the full three cent rate to all interstate points but the two cent rate will now apply for the Minnesota section of the journey. Some of the changes that will apply to New Ulm travelers are as follows: To Madison old rate, $8.12; new rate, $6.63. To Chicago old rate, $9.73; new rate, $9.21. To Kansas City old rate, $10.17; new rate, $9.45. To Omaha old rate, $6.44; new rate, $6.05. To Sioux City old rate, $4.48; new rate, $3.84. To St. Louis old rate, $12.51; new rate, $11.60.

LOCALS WIN.

After a clash between the bowling teams of Sleepy Eye and New Ulm at Sherman's Alley in this place it was found that the home boys were victorious by a lead of 223 pins. As the score indicates Sherman was high man for the local boys, while Seifert led for New Ulm.—Sleepy Eye Herald Dispatch.

MARCH WEATHER

March, so often likened to the roaring lion or the gamboling lamb might this year be compared to the gubernatorial possibility who failed to survive the elimination conference. For fifteen whole days this much abused month wore the gloom of a Peterson, for eleven more it wore the "silver lining to every cloud" aspect of an Elwell and for only five days did March assume the sunny disposition of a Lee or a Hammond.

But while the chief of the weather department seemed to be suffering from chronic dyspepsia this March, he was not so erratic and irresponsible as last year. The mean temperature for the past month was almost five degrees warmer than last year. The highest point reached this year was 58 degrees and the sub-cellar point was six below. Last March rambled back and forth uncertainly from 60 degrees to a minus 20.

A comparison of the figures for the month of March for 1913 and 1914 is as follows:

	1913	1914
Mean temperature	25.09	29.835
Max. temperature	60	58
Min. temperature	-20	-6
Total precipitation	1.02 in	2.28 in
Total snow fall	7	14.25

WOODMEN COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Woodmen Camps of Brown County met in Sleepy Eye last Wednesday to choose a representative for the state convention, to be held in Stillwater about May 1st. The convention was quite well attended although the Springfield and Hanska delegates were not present. Albert Pfander of New Ulm was selected by the convention to represent Brown County at the state convention. The following resolutions were adopted in regard to the rates of the Order:

"We believe that the so-called Chicago rates are unjust and discriminatory, and we therefore declare against them. We realize that a reasonable raise in rates is necessary, but insist that such raise should be based on the age of entry into the Order. We instruct our delegate to the State Camp to use his best efforts to bring about results in accordance with the above ideas."

After the meeting, a splendid supper was served to the visiting delegates and the New Ulmites came back in the evening with terms of highest praise for the hospitality of the Sleepy Eye Woodmen. The next convention will be held in New Ulm.

The New Ulm delegates in attendance were Otto Kohn, C. A. Stolz, Wenzel Penkert, Franz Niemann, Otto Hartmann, Anton Schiller, and Albert Pfander.
