

Many people buy our Mortgage Certificates because as they put it they "can no longer afford to take chances." They had their lesson—what is more—profited by it.

STATE BOND & MORTGAGE CO.

New Ulm, Minnesota.

LOCAL NOTES

Andrew Saffert spent a couple of days in the Twin Cities on business last week.

Jacob Runk and Henry Beussman of Springfield were New Ulm visitors last week.

Heinrich Liesenfeld of Sleepy Eye was the guest of New Ulm friends last Wednesday.

Theodore Gierke has sold his farm near Gaylord and last week moved his family to New Ulm to reside.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lange and Mrs. Anna Lowinski of Sleepy Eye were New Ulm visitors Monday of this week.

Miss Cecelia Goblirsch of Lafayette was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Albert King of this city during a greater part of last week.

Nick Bill and family of Wabasso moved here last week and will make their home with their son on west Center street.

R. M. Hicks of the New Ulm Grocery company attended a meeting of the wholesale grocers of the state in St. Paul Wednesday.

Mrs. John Berg of Springfield attended the wedding of her niece, Miss Frances Berg to Otto Wilschek in Sigel township Tuesday of last week.

SPECIAL FUR SALE

at

OTTOMEYER'S

Next Saturday November 17th

On the above date we will have at our store a Representative of a Fur Manufacturer with a full line of Ladies' Furs, Coats, Scarfs, Muffs, and beautiful sets of all kinds of Furs. We will offer this entire line at Special Low Prices. Here is your chance to purchase a set of fine furs at a price.

REMEMBER NEXT SATURDAY ONLY

There is a great deal of satisfaction in knowing that the middy you wear is faultless and will stand washing after washing and still be "JUST LIKE NEW."

Paul Jones Middies
the kind thats better

are all that the best material and careful workmanship can make them. We are so sure of this that we guarantee each and every one of them.

We are now showing a complete line of them in all the latest styles and patterns. See them in our window or better still come in and see them all.

THE BEE HIVE

At NEW ULM, MINN.

Superintendent R. B. Kennedy was a visitor at Cobden one day last week.

Kenneth Mason of the Minium engineering force spent Sunday with his parents in St. Peter.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wendt were recent visitors with relatives and friends at Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Melle are entertaining a daughter at their home which arrived Wednesday, November 7.

Mrs. George Saffert and Mrs. George Bauer of Springfield have returned home after a visit of several days with relatives in this city.

Mrs. Charles Kaiser and daughter, Elsie, were at Sleepy Eye recently to attend the funeral of the late Frank Retzlaff.

W. A. Hubmer has traded the Grand Hotel in this city for a section of improved land in Cass county, N. D. Mr. Hubmer will not give possession of the hotel until next spring.

Ralph Johnson of Bancroft, Iowa, was the guest the first of the week of his brother, C. R. Johnson of the F. D. Minium engineering offices. He arrived Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoffmann and son, Bert, and Mr. and Mrs. John H. Stewart of St. James visited friends in this city one day during the past week, having motored over from that place.

George McCargar of Nicollet township last week sold ten of his Holstein cows to W. T. Blecker, a Minneapolis dairyman, for $175 each, or a total of $1,750, according to the Nicollet Leader.

Henry Hoffman and his sisters, Anna, Florence, and Matilda, motored down from Sleepy Eye one day last week to visit their sister, Mrs. Henry Schmitz. They were accompanied by their mother, Mrs. Matt Hoffman.

Mrs. John Koeck was quite seriously injured last Wednesday when the horse which she was driving became frightened at a passing motorcycle and threw her from the carriage. She is recovering from her injuries.

Leo Schueller left yesterday for St. Louis, where he has been ordered for examination for the aviation service in the United States army. He will be stationed for the present at the aviation camp at San Antonio, Texas.

At the skat tournament Monday evening, the first prize was won by Theo. Manderfeld with eighteen net games; C. Engelbert took second with 691 net points and Dr. J. P. Graff third with a spade solo against four matadores.

A New Ulm young man who has gone into the show business is bringing his company to New Ulm to show before his home people. The young man is George Crone and he will be at the Armory this week. See his announcement elsewhere in this issue.

Rev. and Mrs. R. Schierenbeck and family, who have been visiting at the home of Prof. F. W. Blauert for the past two weeks, left for their home at Montecello Friday. The Rev. Mr. Schierenbeck extended his trip to Rochester while here.

Axel Olson of St. Peter, an enlisted man in the United States army and a member of an infantry company, is now in France. He has written his brother at St. Peter a postal more than two weeks ago, from New York, that he was just leaving, but it was held up by the censor and not forwarded until Olson had landed safely in France.

The Free Press says there is not a stick of cordwood to be had in Springfield, at any price. The Free Press appeals to the farmers living along the river to cut a few cords and haul into town thus helping out their brothers in town. Editor Erickson even offers to take a few cords on subscription, as an inducement to get the word.

A. H. Massapust, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Massapust of West Newton, has accepted the position of physical director for the Duluth & Iron Railway company, at Duluth. Mr. Massapust was graduated from the New Ulm high school and also from Carleton college. In both schools he made a fine record, and also became an expert in all of the athletic sports, and was a star on the Carlton football team.

Essig people who subscribed for the Second Liberty Loan were as follows: State Bank of Essig, Jessie Spelbrink, Louis Spelbrink, Walter Franke, F. Wm. Radloff, J. O. Case, J. C. Case, Hazel Heimann, Leo Heimann, T. S. Merkel, E. E. Spelbrink, C. C. Current, Paul Current, Lynn Current, G. A. Solberg. These names were reported by the Essig State Bank thru which they took the bonds.

The buildings of the old Lafayette and Bernadotte creamery located about three miles south of Lafayette, have been sold. The creamery building is now used as a farm barn, having been purchased by Charles A. Swanson and removed to his land. The buttermakers' residence has been moved to Lafayette and is being transformed into a modern residence. The creamery location, which has presented a busy scene every morning for the past twenty years, when farmers for many miles around gathered to deliver their milk and cream, is now but an ordinary cross road, according to the Lafayette Ledger.

Emil H. Borath was a business visitor from Nicollet one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Siegel and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Johnson made an automobile trip to Faribault Saturday.

Otto Schneider and Charles Fortwengler have opened an auto repair shop on South Minnesota street.

Miss Marie Lunde of the public schools left Friday for Madelia, where she spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives.

Miss Katherine Miller of Mankato was a guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Rieke for several days last week.

County Attorney and Mrs. Adolph Frederickson were recent visitors with old-time friends and neighbors at Springfield.

Editor-Attorney Aug. G. Erickson of Springfield was a recent business visitor in the city. He was here on legal business.

Mrs. R. B. Kennedy, Mrs. O. J. Seifert and Miss Anna Kienlen were recent guests of friends at Fairfax. They made the trip by automobile.

B. Esser has returned from Ellsworth, where he went to attend the funeral of his grandmother, Mrs. Fischenich, which was held last Tuesday. Mrs. Fischenich was 84 years old.

Dr. Karl J. Holman of Mankato is now a member of the third district exemption board, having been appointed to succeed Dr. Lowe of Pipestone, who has been obliged to resign on account of ill health.

A large number attended the card party given by the ladies of St. Anne court, W. C. O. F., last Wednesday evening. The prize winners were: Miss Mary Korbel, Mrs. B. Esser, Mrs. Geo. Gastler, Mrs. Albert Gag and Miss Clara Moog.

Louis F. Entrup, formerly a drug clerk employed by the Pioneer Drug company of this city, but for the past few years residing in St. Paul, has gone to the state of Washington to reside, according to word received here recently. Poor health is said to be the reason Mr. Entrup has decided to go west.

The annual meeting of the New Ulm Commercial club was held at the club rooms last night. The Review goes to press too early to print a report of the meeting, which was to include the election of a board of directors, and to hear the reports of the president, secretary, treasurer and a number of the special committees.

Springfield is having troubles of her own these days, according to the newspapers of that village. A week or two ago the citizens were over-run with petty robberies; now it is fire. The fire fighters were called out twice in one day recently. At one of the fires considerable damage was done to St. John's Hospital. The other was a grass fire, but the flames were checked before any great damage had resulted.

The following officers have been elected by St. Elizabeth's Society of the Catholic church: Chaplain, Rev. Robert Schlinkert; president, Mrs. Peter Sprenger; vice president, Mrs. Elizabeth Stadick; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Theodore Scheiderich; financial secretary, Mrs. William Lieb; marshals, Miss Margaret Willinger and Miss Mechtel; finance committee, Mrs. Joseph Dietz, Mrs. Andrew Saffert and Mrs. Joseph Kraus; banner bearers, Mrs. George Puchner, Mrs. Andrew Amann and Mrs. Ath. Henle; examining physician, Dr. F. J. Pelant.

LATEST SONG HITS!

"Hello Wisconsin"
"Saxophone Sam"
"Mother Dixie and You"
"Giddy Giddap Go On! We're On Our Way to War"
"My Fox Trot Girl"
"Back to Mother and Home Sweet Home"
"Over There"
"Somewhere in France"
"You Can't Put The Beauty Back in The Rose After it Withers and Dies"
"When Shadows Fall"
We have a Complete Line of Popular Sheet Music also Popular Prices.
BACKERS PHARMACY.

GRAND BALL

— AT AHE —

ARMORY

SATURDAY, NOV. 17th.

The net proceeds of this dance will be donated to the New Ulm Chapter of the Red Cross.

You are Cordially Invited

TICKETS $1.00

GLOVES—Capeskin, mocha and white.

UNDERWEAR—Easy, comfortable union suits. Seasonable weight merino, cotton and pure wool.

SHIRTS—New silk-fiber in new stripings, satin broche, stripes on white. Fine silk tailor-made. Fancy woven madras, beautiful blending of colors in cluster stripes.

SOCKS—Black mercerized lisle, reinforced heels and toes; Everything from cotton to silk.

HANDKERCHIEFS—Khaki colored plain or bordered, silk, silk and linen.

NECKWEAR—Popular Persian patterns, add Japanese designs, rich repps, embroidered borders; every new novelty.

HUMMEL BROTHERS

14 No. Minn. St.

New Ulm, Minn.

Gus Guhlke of Cobden was a business visitor here recently.

Mrs. Gay Rawson visited at the home of her parents at Winthrop for several days last week.

Young women, your services are needed, but first take a course in the Mankato Commercial College, Mankato, Minn. Adv. 46

The Woman's Guild of St. Peter's church will serve a chicken supper at the Guild Hall, corner of Broadway and 2nd Street South, Wednesday, November 21st, from 5 to 7 o'clock. Everyone is cordially invited. Adv. 46

Thursday, Friday and Saturday we will sell suits for men and young men at reduced prices. $15.00 specials. Columbia Clothing Store. F. P. Zschunke. Adv. 46

FOR SALE: High Grade Holstein Bull Calves. Three weeks to six months old. G. E. LAMBRECHT, Adv. 5 R. 4. New Ulm. Tel. 1708

$15.00 Suit Sale this week at Columbia Clothing Store. F. P. Zschunke, prop. Adv. 46

"THE BARRIER"

The wonderfully vivid and picturesque Alaskan romances of Rex Beach have been read by so many millions of our people that Mr. Beach is today the most popular of American authors. His most widely read story is "The Barrier", showing in film form at the Ruby Theatre Friday and Saturday, Nov. 16-17. The picture closely follows the swift action and striking situations of the book and is a faithful portrayal of adventure and romance of life in Alaska in the days when that land was the haven of hunted men and the last frontier of civilization. Adv. 46

Suit Sale $15.00 every day this week only. Columbia Clothing Store. F. P. Zschunke. Adv. 46

HOUSE AND LOT FOR SALE: One block from the Catholic church. Inquire of Otto Wiedenmann. 414 No. Franklin. Adv. 46-8

$15.00 Special Suit Sale this week only at Columbia Clothing Store. F. P. Zschunke, Prop. Adv. 46

Be sure and read Berg's Grocery Add in this issue. Adv. 46

Get posted on Grocery prices by reading Berg's Cash and Carry plan in another column. Adv. 46

"Called to the Colors," a patriotic play, spectacular, produced and presented by Geo. A. Crone, at the Armory, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. This is Geo. A. Crone's own company of five people. He is playing on the Western Circuit, and having an open date decided to bring them to New Ulm. Change of picture program daily. Remember Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the Armory. Adv. 46

If in need of an auctioneer and looking for the high dollar, list your sales with me. Tel. 283. A. S. DORN.

Get a Suit at $15.00 this week at our special offer. Columbia Clothing Store. Adv. 46

NOTICE!

Beginning this month (November), bills for residence telephone service must be paid at the office of the Secretary in our new building, German and Second North Street, as we have discontinued sending out a collector.

Special Sale on Suits, this week only. You can buy a good $18.00, $16.50 and $20.00 Suit for $15.00 this week at the Columbia Clothing Store. F. P. Zschunke. Adv. 46

WE BUY AND SELL LOTS AND CITY PROPERTY. N. HENNINGSEN AGENCY. Adv. 294f

DR. F. J. PELANT

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON
OFFICE OVER FARMERS & MERCHANTS BANK

Tel.—Office 360 Residence 197.

H. O. SCHLEUDER

OPTOMETRIST
AND OPTICIAN

WE GRIND OUR OWN LENSES

102 No. Minn. St. Tel. 87

Your Business

is nobody's business, but yours. This Bank respects this fact and every transaction here is strictly confidential.

No information is given relative to your business with us.

BROWN COUNTY BANK

New Ulm,

Minn.