

Keep Your Money Safe

You can do this very easily if you invest your money with us.

State Bond & Mortgage Co.
New Ulm, Minnesota.

LOCAL NOTES

Prof. C. F. Isbemer of Nicollet visited in New Ulm on Saturday.

Paul Thordson and family of Hanska were business callers here on Saturday.

Otto Berberich of Courtland spent Saturday in New Ulm attending to business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Marks spent Thursday and Friday visiting with friends in Nicollet.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Gieseke of Courtland were shoppers in New Ulm on Saturday afternoon.

Rev. C. J. Albrecht spent Wednesday at Sleepy Eye visiting at the Rev. William C. Albrecht home.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Bastian residing on North German street last Saturday.

Dr. George B. Weiser was in St. Paul on Tuesday where he attended a meeting of the state board of health.

Mrs. A. H. Manderfeld and daughter Miss Mary spent several days last week visiting with Lambertson friends.

Misses Bertha Ruenke and Ida Muesing were week-end visitors at the home of Editor and Mrs. B. G. Schulze at Nicollet.

Mrs. Frank Wenisch returned to her home here on Wednesday after a several days' visit with relatives and friends in St. Peter.

Miss Ella Timm has returned to her home here after spending a week at Springfield visiting at the home of relatives and friends.

Albert Mooney, manual training teacher in the high school at Chaska, spent Saturday visiting with New Ulm and Gibbon friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Crane and baby spent Monday as the guests of Mrs. Crane's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Offermann at Sleepy Eye.

A baby girl has come to brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Backer of Courtland township. Virginia Katherine made her appearance on Wednesday, October 11, at the Union Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Willbald Eibner motored to Brookings, S. D., last week to accompany home their son Alois and daughter Miss Veronica who had been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Moriarity for a week.

Mrs. Henry Flor and children returned to New Ulm on Tuesday after residing in Atlantic City, N. J. for the past several months. The Flor family will occupy a flat at the Parkview apartments on South German Street.

John Schneider and daughter Miss Aurelia, accompanied by Otto H. Schneider and Roy L. Berg motored to Minneapolis on Wednesday on business. Otto had his tonsils removed at a government hospital while there.

John Liebel of Sleepy Eye was a business visitor in New Ulm on Wednesday.

Gustav Wichstadt of Sleepy Eye was a business caller in New Ulm on Thursday afternoon.

Miss Helen Johnson left on Saturday for Minneapolis where she will attend a business college.

Mrs. Fred Blass of Winthrop was a visitor with her sister, Mrs. Lena Kachel on Monday afternoon.

Jess Becker is at the Union Hospital where he is receiving medical treatment for an attack of rheumatism.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Sondag and son of Gibbon were visitors with New Ulm friends on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Huelskamp and Rev. Fr. Lesleben were Sunday guests at the George Huelskamp home in Winthrop.

Tony Ochs of Marshall spent the week-end visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ochs, and with friends in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Crone of Brule, Wis., visited several days the past week at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. Meta Crone.

Dr. and Mrs. Theo. F. Hammermeister motored to the Twin Cities on Thursday and spent the day there attending to business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Antonsen of Buffalo Lake motored to New Ulm on Saturday to visit with local friends and to attend to business matters.

Mrs. C. H. Bradbury of Comfrey spent Friday here visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Emmerich on North Minnesota street.

Mrs. E. Kaunzner and son Lawrence and daughter Hazel of Walnut Grove were Sunday visitors in New Ulm. Miss Hazel is here receiving medical treatments.

Einar C. Hanson of the Rural News of Madelia was a pleasant caller at this office on Saturday afternoon. Mr. Hanson is linotype operator of the News.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Traurig and family of near Lafayette were callers on local friends on Saturday. Mr. Traurig attended to business matters while here.

Mrs. Russell Ebert returned to her home in Lafayette on Sunday after spending several weeks at the Union Hospital where she received medical treatments.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Graft, accompanied by Miss Margaret Esser motored to St. Paul Saturday where they attended the foot-ball game between St. Thomas college and Hamline University there that afternoon.

Emil Gebhard, who has the brick and cement contract for the new $60,000 Community Hall at Glencoe has completed the concrete part and has started the bricklayers to work. R. A. Dahms, George Reiser and Paul Grams are three New Ulm men who are now employed on the structure.

Harold G. Reineke returned on Monday morning to Minneapolis after spending the week-end visiting with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. George F. Reineke.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bingham accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Backer motored to Minneapolis on Sunday to visit with friends. They returned Monday evening.

Mrs. Herman Breikreuz and Mrs. George Bandelin of Arlington accompanied by Mrs. L. Clements of Minneapolis were week-end guests of Mrs. W. G. Alwin on North Broadway.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hoffmann returned from Waseca on Monday after spending two weeks' visiting at the home of Mrs. Hoffmann's mother, Mrs. August Sunlich.

Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Goebel, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sanford and daughter Joyce of Luverne were guests at the L. A. Gaut home on North State street several days the past week.

Mrs. Julius Oran of Minneapolis was brought here from Hanska on Wednesday and underwent an operation at the Union Hospital that afternoon. She is improving nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Johnson of Minneapolis, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Rieke of Fairfax and Mr. and Mrs. H. Rustigo of Wabasso spent several days the past week visiting at the George Durban home in this city.

Richard Swartz attended the funeral of his mother at Elk Falls, Kansas, last week. Mrs. Swartz died on Tuesday after a prolonged illness. Mr. Swartz is sales manager for the New Ulm Roller Mill Co.

Mrs. H. W. Phillips and sons Werner and Roland arrived here from Sioux Falls, S. D. on Thursday to make a two weeks' visit at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Kornmann.

The Adult Bible class, Prof. Gloor's Sunday school class and the teachers and officers of the Methodist Episcopal church were entertained at the Wilbur Strate home in Seales on Sunday afternoon. Games were enjoyed until 5:30 when a delicious luncheon was served.

Charles O. Weilandt of Weilandt & Stegmann, had the misfortune to fall from a ten-foot scaffold at the home of Mrs. Mary Arbes on North State street Wednesday afternoon where the carpenters were repairing the roof. Mr. Weilandt sustained injury to his left hip-bone which will lay him up at his home for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Korein of Swan Lake, Mr. and Mrs. John Koop of this city and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hacker of Brighton spent Sunday visiting at the home of their father, Wolfgang Hacker on North Payne street. Mr. Hacker took suddenly ill last week, and has been confined to his bed for the past several days but is getting along very nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schroepfer of Sleepy Eye had as their guests last week, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Penkert of this city, who were married at the Catholic parsonage last Tuesday morning. Their friends in Sleepy Eye were unaware of their marriage, which came as a complete surprise to them.

Rev. J. H. Durbahn of Los Angeles, Cal. spent the past week visiting with New Ulm and Springfield relatives and friends. Rev. Durbahn was one of the first ministers of the German Methodist church in Springfield about thirty-five years ago. He now has charge of the German Methodist church in Los Angeles. His original home is New Ulm.

Friends will be interested to learn that Henry Clasen, formerly of this city, and now residing at Watertown, S. D., is the democratic candidate for register of deeds in Codington county, South Dakota. His ticket is endorsed by the Non-Partisan League. Mr. Clasen is a brother of Mrs. Emil W. Mueller of this city.

Mrs. John Hausler and sons John and Kenneth arrived here from Durant, Wis., on Tuesday. Mr. Hausler has been here for several weeks, having purchased the Ed. Kunze tailor shop recently. Mrs. Hausler was accompanied here by her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Spindler. They returned to their home on Thursday. The Hausler family will reside in the Nick Franta home on North Minnesota street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Frenzel and two daughters, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. George W. Haynes and children left on Saturday to visit at the home of Mrs. Frenzel's sister, Mrs. F. Werner and family south of Lambertson and spent Sunday at the home of another sister, Mrs. Emil Radke near Lucan. Mr. Haynes and Mrs. Frenzel spent the time hunting.

Leo Wagner of Springfield visited with New Ulm friends and relatives on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jacobi and son Anthony of Springfield motored here on Saturday to visit at the Arnold Cordes home.

Rev. George Rolwes of St. Paul visited over the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Mary Rolwes and other relatives here.

Mrs. I. M. Olsen and daughter, Mrs. Harold G. Reineke, of Minneapolis, are making a three months' visit with relatives and friends in Seattle, Wash., and Santa Rose, California.

"New Ulm surely has honest people," is the opinion of a banker in a near-by village. While driving thru this city the party lost a valuable fur piece, and by advertising it in the "Lost and Found" column of the Review it was returned to them in a few days.

Albert Fehhaber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Fehhaber residing on South Franklin street, who has been receiving medical attention and care at the Loretto Hospital for the past eight weeks, left last Friday for Walker where he will spend several months at Seldom Inn sanatorium to recuperate from his illness.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schulz, residing on North State street, spent the past week at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Schulz at Comfrey. Mrs. Schulz received severe burns about a month ago while washing when she attempted to put gasoline in an engine while running. Altho for a time her life was despaired of, she is convalescing as well as may be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Armin F. Retzlaff, accompanied by Mrs. Louis Sandau and son Oscar and Miss Lola Meyer motored to Rochester on Sunday to visit during the day with Miss Elsie Sandau who is taking a nurses' training course at the Kahler Hospital. This is Miss Sandau's third month at the hospital and she likes her work very much.

W. A. Turner, district manager for the Consumer's Wholesale Supply informs the Review that another of their chain stores was opened for business last Friday at St. Peter. The store will be managed by J. A. Wiberg of Madelia. Next Saturday, Oct. 23, another of their stores will be opened at Mankato, which will be managed by R. B. Little of Minneapolis. Their Mankato store is the eighth in Minnesota.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wolf and son Fred of Fortuna, California, visited from Friday to Monday with the Otto and Fred Oswald families. Mr. and Mrs. Wolf are uncle and aunt of Otto and Fred Oswald and lived on a farm near Windom until four years ago when they removed to California. This is their first visit to this section of the state since their removal to the West, and they are enjoying their trip very much.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Eichten were in Stillwater last week where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Eichten's father, August Gelhar, who died at his home on Monday. Mrs. Eichten received a message Sunday evening of her father's serious illness, and Mr. and Mrs. Eichten departed immediately for Stillwater and were at the bedside when the end came. Death was due to kidney trouble and the usual complications attending old age. Altho Mr. Gelhar had been ailing since last spring, he was confined to his bed but a day prior to his demise. He was born in Germany, March 24, 1845, and was therefore over seventy-seven years old. He was married in his old home, and came to America forty-two years ago, settling with his family in Stillwater. His wife preceded him in death five years ago. The children who survive the father are: Mrs. John Lustig, Paul Gelhar and Miss Mary Gelhar of Stillwater; Mrs. P. J. Eichten of this city and Frank Gelhar of Minneapolis; The funeral was held from the Catholic church at that place, and the remains were laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery.

HERE'S THE MOST IMPORTANT RULE - OF THE MODERN PLUMBING SCHOOL! PERFECT SANITATION!

THE finest regulation for the modern home is perfect sanitation. Proper plumbing will produce that desired result. A telephone call to us will produce the plumber who will give you an estimate of the cost of the work you want done. Why not let us get at the job right away?

Gulden & Vercoe
PHONE 292

Arthur Dittbenner of Morgan was a New Ulm visitor on Friday.

Mrs. Bertha Marti of Sleepy Eye was a New Ulm visitor with friends on Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Vollmer and children of Sleepy Eye were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Wieland on Monday.

Carl Aufderheide and family motored to Mankato on Monday and spent the day visiting with friends and attending to business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Kemski were business visitors in St. Paul over the week-end. They left on Friday, returning Monday morning.

Misses Emma Schultz and Anna Hacker, who spent several days visiting with friends at Waseca, returned home on Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Vivian Dorn, Misses Clara Korbel, Lena Fritz and Clara Epper and Mrs. W. O. Arndt motored to Mankato on Tuesday to attend the Fashion show which was given on Monday and Tuesday of last week.

Friends will be pleased to learn that a baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Duggan of St. Paul Saturday, Oct. 14. Mrs. Duggan will be better remembered as Miss Marion Herriges. She formerly worked at the Review office and is a sister of Mrs. John Woelke.

Rev. J. Durbahn of Los Angeles, Cal., conducted the services at the Methodist church on Sunday morning in the absence of Rev. C. G. Hohn who was called to Nebraska on account of the death of his mother on Wednesday. Rev. Durbahn has been visiting at the George Durbahn home on North Washington street during the past week, and has gone to Chicago and Cincinnati where he is now attending trustee meetings.

Mrs. Mary Frank died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Guth at Sleepy Eye on Wednesday, October 18. Deceased was ninety years old, and died on the day of her birthday. She had come from Princeton several days prior to her demise to visit with relatives at Sleepy Eye. The following from New Ulm attended the funeral at Sleepy Eye on Saturday afternoon: Mr. and Mrs. John Dietz, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Schweppe, Prof. and Mrs. Carl Schweppe, William Huevelmann, William Koch and sister Miss Ida, Mrs. Bertha Fenske, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Somsen, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schreyer, Mr. and Mrs. John Zimmermann, Henry Berg, Mr. and Mrs. William James, Mrs. William Bentzin, and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Fritsche of Cottonwood and Mr. and Mrs. John Kuehn of Sigel township.

George Langmack, who is attending Commercial College at Mankato, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Langmack in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Durbahn of Sleepy Eye were Mankato visitors on Friday. On their return Saturday they visited at the O. H. Wieland home in this city.

Misses Alma and Clara Foerster drove down from St. Paul on Saturday to spend Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Krook on South Washington street.

Mrs. F. A. Gilbert, who has been spending the past several weeks visiting with her mother, Mrs. F. A. Schnobrich returned to her home in Boone, Iowa, on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Johnson accompanied by Misses Erna Bentzin and Elsie Radtke motored to the Twin Cities on Sunday to spend the day at the home of relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Laufenberger of Faribault and Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Bluhm of Morristown were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Kosek on South German street.

Albert Bartsch and daughter Dolores of Bird Island motored here on Friday to spend the week-end with relatives and friends. They were guests at the John Langmack and Otto Meyer homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Lshman of Blue Earth motored here on Saturday morning to visit over Sunday with relatives. They were accompanied here by Miss Louise Fritsche, who visited here with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Fritsche.

Hallowe'en Sale and Bazaar

GIVEN BY—
ST. ANNE COURT, W. C. O. F.

MONDAY AFTERNOON, OCT. 30.
BEGINNING AT 2 O'CLOCK

AT THE Catholic School House

Food Sale, All Kinds of Fancy Work, Aprons, Children's and Infants' Wear and Crab Bag.

Lunch Served During Afternoon.

Card Party in the Evening
8 O'CLOCK

Everybody is Cordially Invited.

Get Out In The Open

Autumn Days are calling—the finest days of all the year to spend long hours out of doors. Dress warm and comfortable, and enjoy the freedom and comfort that a good Sweater gives

$2.48 $5.00 $7.00

Just to remind you that we have received a new lot of Flannel Outer Shirts for dress and work.

Specially good values at
$1.29 $2.50 $3.48

Strong Values in Men's and Young Men's Clothing

Hummel Bros.

The White House Clothing Store
NEW ULM, MINN.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Frank of Rice Lake, Wis. spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Dietz on South Franklin street. They had attended the funeral of the former's mother at Sleepy Eye on Saturday afternoon, and were on their way home.

BLANKETS

THE scarcity and high price of Coal this Winter has made it more desirable than ever to have an extra couple pair of blankets in the house for the cold weather which is bound to come sooner or later. Our stock is now complete with Blankets of all kinds and for the week ending

Saturday, October 28th,
We offer the following Specials

Every Blanket Positively Guaranteed To Be First Quality

66x80 Heavy Weight plaid or plain colors wool nap blanket, positively first quality. Special this week, a pair $2.98

Extra Heavy quality plaid or plain colors wool nap blankets in 66x80 and 70x80 sizes. Special this week, a pair $3.69

Wool blankets made of about approximately one-third cotton and two-thirds wool in plaid and plain colors 66x80 and 70x80. Special this week, a pair $4.95 and $5.95

Wool blankets in size 70x80, quality one hundred per cent pure wool in all colors of plaid. Special this week, a pair $6.95 and $7.95

Crib Blankets in white and in colors in plaid and with Bunnies and Teddy Bears and other figures in single and double blankets. Prices from 59c to $3.69

THE BEE HIVE

J. A. OCHS & SON, Props.

New Ulm, Minnesota

The Busiest Store in Town. There Must Be a Good Reason Why.

The Road to Success

at last lies clear and firm for you. It is a road you can travel without fear or embarrassment to glorious success when you prepare the way by depositing your MONEY with us.

This bank is a public benefactor and you may walk with perfect confidence when we have charge of your financial affairs.

BROWN COUNTY BANK
NEW ULM, MINN.
A STRONG BANK & GROWING STRONGER

H. O. SCHLEUDER
Optometrist AND OPTICIAN
WE GRIND OUR OWN LENSES
102 Minn. St. Tel. 47