FORTY-FIRST YEAR. APRIL 10, 1919 PRESCOTT, NEVADA COUNTY, ARKANSAS. APRIL 10, 1919 NUMBER FIFTY-ONE

UNDER STATE SUPERVISION

EARN AS YOU LEARN

Men and women who maintain growing savings accounts are getting more out of these accounts by a big margin than they are putting into them. In learning to save they are learning to spend.

And the more they economize in order to increase their accounts the more they profit, not only in terms of money but in experience in handling money.

The only way to learn the true value of a dollar is to save some of them. Open a savings account. Earn as you learn.

TEACHERS ELECTED.

At the meeting of the school board on April 7th, 1919, the following teachers were elected for the white schools:

C. M. Hirst, Paul W. Paustian, Mrs. Vera Munn, Miss Ruth Hamilton, Miss Nell Bush, Miss Louise Scott, Miss Abbie Hale, Mrs. Minnie Griffith, Miss Annie Hatley, Miss Mary Askin, Mrs. Winnie Hamilton, Miss Julia Riley, Miss Eunice White, Miss Lay Parker.

The board found it impossible to substantially increase the salaries of the teachers because of the fact that the revenues of the district will not be sufficient to pay them.

The department of vocal music was discontinued, and also the department of expression in the grammar school.

It was thought likely that the seventh grade would be transferred to the high school building, and if the board is able to do so, a military department will be installed at the high school. In order for this to be done, it will be necessary that there be at least one hundred boys over the age of fourteen years in attendance. If this is done the government will pay the expense of an instructor in military science at the school.

ARKANSAS PEACHES TO SUPPLY DEMAND

Crops Elsewhere Killed—Big Yield and High Prices Expected Here.

Arkansas probably will be dependent upon to furnish the peach supply for the country, according to reports which have been received here by J. A. Hughes, prominent agriculturalist and orchard expert. The crops of Ohio, West Virginia, Virginia and the northern part of Georgia are reported killed, Mr. Hughes said, and this section of Georgia will ship only two-thirds of the normal crop. These conditions will necessarily cause high prices, and it is believed that the orchard run will bring from $1.75 to $2.25 a bushel. Most orchardists, it is reported, are holding for even higher prices.

Arkansas, it is believed, will have a record crop. Record prices may be obtained, Mr. Hughes said, by following the lead of the orchard men here, who are now spraying and fertilizing to secure the utmost possible yield. Arkansas is certain of fine prices, but the best results will be obtained by early spraying and close attention to the orchards until the crop is made.

WILSON DEMANDS ACTION

Prepares for Withdrawal—One Report Is That He Has Issued Ultimatum To Conference.

Paris, April 7.—President Wilson's orders that the United States transport George Washington proceed immediately to a French port have aroused much comment here and are construed by some officials as preliminary to a determination to force an agreement by the peace conference soon.

As is usual in such cases various rumors were soon in circulation and before night one report was current that the president had delivered an ultimatum to the effect that he would withdraw from the conference unless an agreement was reached within 48 hours.

It is said by those close to the president that he did not contemplate such action, but the same authorities say that the president has made his position plain on the questions at issue and they believe he will adhere to this position.

Even May Withdraw.

The summoning of the George Washington will place the president in such a position that he cannot be embarrassed by having to wait for the transport should the time come when he might wish to withdraw from the discussions.

It is believed that President Wilson will not hesitate to take definite action if a deadlock is reached.

If, however, the Council of Four succeeds in reaching an adjustment and the presence of President Wilson for a longer time is deemed advisable the George Washington would be available for the transport of troops to the United States and would then be ready to return at a later date for the presidential party.

May Attend Session Today.

At the close of today's council's session it was said that no agreement had been reached on reparations or other subjects and that the discussion on reparations would be resumed tomorrow, with President Wilson possibly present.

Extreme tension was evident as a result of today's discussions and it is believed throughout the conference that another critical stage has been reached. One of the most responsible authorities associated with President Wilson said that he would not be surprised if American participation was brought to an early close if the delays over details were carried much further.

Wilson Losing Patience.

The differences still remaining on the subjects of frontiers and reparations are comparatively light, he added, and yet these slight differences are so persistently maintained as to threaten to create prolonged delays which the president and American delegates are not willing to accept.

The president was described by one who saw him during the day as standing firm in his determination to make no further concessions. He insists that the principles which were definitely agreed upon at the time of the armistice are at stake. There is little doubt that the president's stand has been made known to the other members of the council, but since his illness he has not conferred with any of them, excepting Colonel House.

The existing tension led to many reports of decisive action which the American delegation was said to be about to take. These reports were more or less exaggerated, yet all seemed plausible in view of the president's determined attitude.

HESTERLY—ALLEN.

Last Saturday at 3:30 o'clock at the home of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Allen, of this city, Miss Thorne Allen and Mr. John F. Hesterly were married. Rev. J. A. Parker of the Methodist church performed the ceremony.

The happy couple left on No. 6 that evening for St. Louis, where they will make their home. Mr. Hesterly has a position there with the American Car and Foundry Co.

These two young people have many friends here who wish for them happiness and prosperity through this life.

MAKE $26,700 HAUL AT BLEVINS

Robbers Work Combination on Safe and Escape With Loot.

Blevins, April 8.—Robbers who entered the general store of H. M. Stevens here last night escaped with a total of $26,700 in cash, Liberty bonds, war savings stamps and notes. Tonight officers still are at work on the case, but have found no clue. The robber or robbers made their entry through the back window and worked the combination on the safe. They secured $6,300 worth of Liberty bonds, $300 worth of war savings stamps, $20,000 worth of notes and $100 in cash. Only $30 of the cash taken by the thieves belonged to Mr. Stevens. The remaining $70 belonged to the postoffice, Miss Anna L. Bostik, postmistress, had placed the money in the safe, before leaving for home yesterday afternoon.

Efforts were made soon after the discovery to obtain bloodhounds from the state farm at Cummins, but after several unsuccessful attempts the plan was given up and officers of Hempstead, Nevada, Miller, Clark, Pike and Little River counties were notified and asked to watch for suspects. Evidently, the mere were experts at "safe cracking," as the combination was worked successfully and without damage to the safe. All the notes, bonds, War Savings stamps and money, with the exception of the $70 belonging to the postoffice, was the property of Mr. Stevens, who was unable to give any light on the robbery.

So successful and careful were the robbers in their work that the loss was not discovered until early this morning when the store was opened for the day. No persons living in the vicinity of the store have reported to officers that they saw strangers about the building and it is not known what time of night the theft was committed.

LAW IS HELD INVALID.

County Judges Cannot Appoint Constables to Fill Vacancies.

That county judges in Arkansas have not the power to appoint constables to fill vacancies, despite a statute which gives them the privilege, was an opinion rendered yesterday by Tom W. Campbell, assistant attorney general, in reply to several queries. Mr. Campbell held that the statute giving county judges the power to fill such vacancies is contrary to a provision of the state constitution which gives the governor that power.

Mr. Campbell also held that before a school board can elect a relative of any member to a position on the faculty of the school, a petition signed by two-thirds of the patrons must be obtained. The question was raised by residents of Malvern, Hot Springs county, who said that the teacher, in question, is a niece by marriage of one of the directors.

BETTER PAY YOUR LICENSE.

Little Rock, April 9.—Records in the office of the Collector of Internal Revenue show that 21 dealers in tobacco, cigars, cigarettes and snuff in Nevada county neglected to file floor tax returns and pay federal tax on their stocks of these articles on hand as of February 25, 1919. The due date for filing returns was March 26.

Dealers who have not filed returns and who have not the necessary forms should make immediate application for same to Jack Walker, Collector, at Little Rock.

It was announced that a vigorous campaign will be inaugurated within a week for ferreting out these delinquents and a large force of officers is available for this canvass. Heavy penalties will be enforced against persistent delinquents.

NEW LAW AFFECTS SCHOOL TEACHERS

They Must Be Examined For Tuberculosis Before Assuming Duties.

Before a school board in Arkansas can complete a contract with a teacher for his services, the instructor will be required to furnish the secretary of the board with a certificate of health from a licensed physician or a regular constituted health officer, showing that the teacher is free from tuberculosis.

This law became effective yesterday afternoon, when Governor Brough signed House Bill No. 384, introduced by Representative F. F. Carter of Pike county. The measure became Act No. 608.

The bill provides that whenever a teacher appears before a city or a county health officer, the officer shall make a free examination to determine whether the instructor is free from tuberculosis. Specimens of sputum will be examined gratis by the hygienic laboratory of the State Board of Health, in accordance with provisions of the measure.

Teachers who sign contracts to teach in Arkansas without having submitted a health certificate to the secretary of Board of Directors of the school will be liable to arrest and, if convicted, may be fined up to $100. The emergency clause having been attached, the provisions of the law became effective when the governor signed the enrolled copy.
