TIMBER LAND, ACT JUNE 3, 1878.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

UNITED STATES LAND OFFICE,

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, COLO., Sept. 1, 1894.

NOTICE is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1882, Thomas King, of Glenwood Springs, county of Garfield, State of Colorado, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 3, Ute, for the purchase of the SW 1/4 NE 1/4 of Section No. 18, in Township No. 3 S., Range No. 65 W., 4th P. M., and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before the Register and Receiver of this office at Glenwood Springs, Colo., on Monday, the 12th day of November, 1894.

He names as witnesses, Sherman Turner, of Rifle, Colo., and L. Burnaugh, Paris Meadows and F. D. Smith, all of Glenwood Springs, Colo.

Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 12th day of November, 1894.

WAITE DOWNED

And Colorado Rescued From the Clutches of a Rotten Gang of Political Mountebanks.

McIntire and the Entire Republican Ticket Elected by Majorities Ranging from 1,000 to 20,000.

All the Northern States Go Republican by Unprecedented Majorities, and a Break Made in the Solid South.

The Pops Wiped Out in Kansas and Other States, but They Save the Judicial Ticket in This District.

"You can fool part of the people all the time and all the people part of the time, but you can't fool all the people all of the time."

The above truism holds as good today as when uttered by the immortal Lincoln on the blood-stained field of Gettysburg. During a period of discontent and political upheaval the Waite administration accidentally slipped into power and Colorado has been the laughing stock of the world for the past two years, but the people rose in their might on Tuesday and wiped out the disgrace.

Waite's personal honesty has not been questioned. It was his insane vagaries that were hurting the state. It was the unprincipled gang of political mountebanks that he appointed to office that the people objected. They also objected to the unscrupulous methods adopted by the governor and his following to hold on to the power they so shamelessly abused. McIntire is elected by the largest plurality ever given a candidate in this state; Colorado is redeemed, and the honor of redeeming it belongs to the women and the Democrats who laid party aside for the time being.

Hon. John W. Lowell is returned to the legislature by an increased majority, but we are sorry to announce the defeat of Judge Noonan and District Attorney Johnstone. Aspen proved to be the banner stronghold of Populism in the state and pulled Judge Rucker through with a good majority.

All the northern states went Republican by unparalleled majorities. Cleveland and threatened free trade did the business. Below is a summary of the vote in the various states up to date:

New York—Morton, Republican, has a plurality over Hill, Democrat, of 128,000. Hill did not even carry New York City.

Illinois—Republican by 70,000. Legislature Republican.

Nebraska—Republican by a narrow margin. Legislature close.

California—Republican by 10,000. Michigan—Republican by 30,000. Texas—Democratic by reduced majority.

Minnesota—Republican by 52,000. Indiana—Republican by 30,000. Wyoming—Safely Republican.

West Virginia—Wilson defeated for congress. Legislature Republican.

Kentucky—Republicans elect five or six congressmen. Owens probably defeated.

Ohio—Republican by over 150,000 and a solid delegation to congress.

New Jersey—Legislature Republican by a joint majority of 31. Congressional delegation, 7 Republicans, 1 Democrat.

Kansas—Republican by 30,000 majority. Jerry Simpson badly beaten.

Missouri—Republican congressmen in nearly every district. Dick Bland defeated with the rest.

Pennsylvania—Republican by the unprecedented plurality of 235,000. Delaware—State ticket Republican. Legislature Democratic.

Louisiana—Democratic by a reduced majority.

South Dakota—Republicans elect entire state ticket and congressmen.

Idaho—Republican by 1,000. Wisconsin—Republican by 50,000. Connecticut—Republican landslide. Utah—Republican by 3,000. New Hampshire—Everything Republican by about 6,000.

Tennessee—Doubtful. Montana—Republican by 2,000.

Massachusetts—Republican by an immense gain.

North Dakota—Republican by 5,000. Iowa—Republican by 90,000. Weaver, now a Democrat, defeated.

Alabama—Democrats carry everything.

South Carolina—Democratic by 8,000. Oklahoma—Republican by 2,500.

North Carolina—Democratic by small majority. Fusionists elect several congressmen.

Georgia—Democrats elect 10 out of 11 congressmen.

Florida—Democratic by 7,000.

Politics have been taking up so much of our time during the past few weeks that we have neglected some passing events of interest, among which was the advent of the Daily Evening Post, the new Democratic paper lately started in Denver. It is a simon pure Democratic journal; is bright and newsy, and is typographically very handsome. It fills a want in Colorado journalism and should receive the hearty support of Democrats throughout the state, but there is only one way to support it, and that is by sending in your name and subscribing for it. It only costs $2.75 for one year, by mail, which is remarkably low for a good daily paper.

Viewed from both a financial and news standpoint THE HERALD has very little "kick coming" on the Waite administration. It furnished us with a fruitful subject of discussion during the past few months; also, an amount of official patronage far in excess of anything ever before had at the hands of a previous administration. But, like the Rocky Mountain News, THE HERALD believed that Waiteism was a "blot on Colorado's fame and a cancer eating out its vitality;" hence, we opposed Waite and his administration, first, last and all the time, notwithstanding the liberal patronage referred to.

Now that the election is over what a mortality there will be among ninety-day amendment-Waite organs! This amendment business was one of the most glaring frauds connected with the Waite administration. On the strength of the amendments and increased election patronage Pop-Waite sheets were started at every "crossroads town" in the state and Colorado was burdened with about thirty-five thousand dollars additional debt, and the expense to the counties has been about doubled. Such is Waiteism.

John W. Lowell carried this county by the largest majority ever accorded to a man who had an opposing candidate to buck. This was a deserved compliment to a man who has been intensely loyal to his constituents.

Let the belt held so long by the late Mr. Ananias be turned over to the editor of the Rocky Mountain News. Mr. Patterson's devious ways in the late campaign earned him the trophy beyond the shadow of dispute.

The despicable A. P. A. cry raised by the Rocky Mountain News, in the late campaign, re-acted on its authors. Such bugaboos don't frighten intelligent people of any creed.

The South and West Trade congress, the purpose of which is to bring the South and West into closer commercial union, will meet at New Orleans, Nov. 21 and 23, 1894.

Let us see! What was that the Inter Mountain said about Lowell having somebody to run against this time?

The Fifty-fourth congress will have a good Republican majority.

Got His Candidate In.

The past campaign brought out a romantic incident in North Dakota which carried off the palm. Miss Emma F. Bates, of Valley City, was a candidate for state superintendent of schools at the Republican state convention held in August last, but found formidable opposition in John Devine and Professor J. H. Holland. She easily sidetracked the latter by making herself solid with the Young Men's League, and then entered into negotiations with Mr. Devine, first demanding unconditional surrender. This he refused. After further arbitration he agreed to pull off the track provided if Miss Bates was elected state superintendent she would make Devine her deputy and marry him in the bargain. After some deliberation she agreed to do this, providing he would stump the state for her. As she is a powerful speaker, with a fund of wit and repartee, he made a brilliant canvass of that state. The matter was looked upon as being the shrewdest political deal ever made anywhere.

Last Tuesday Miss Bates came out victorious, and a wedding will soon cap the climax.
