Established August 15, 1885.
JAMES LYTTLE, Editor & Publisher.
SATURDAY, MARCH 23, 1907.
Entered in the Meeker, Colo., postoffice as second-class mail matter.

DIED.

AT HER HOME, PITTSBURGH, PA.
MARCH 21, 1907.
MRS. JANE GIBSON DOAK,
MOTHER OF MRS. JAMES LYTTLE.

NOTICE.

There will be a meeting at 8 o'clock Monday evening, March 25th, at the county clerk's office, of members of the Ute Chief Oil and Gas company, the White River Oil and Gas company, and the Last Chance Oil and Gas company. Attend, all who can.

The county officers will commence moving into their new quarters Monday.

Services at St. James church tomorrow morning and evening. Also Monday afternoon at 4:30 p. m.

Al Bloomingkemper has been on trial at Grand Junction for cattle stealing and found not guilty.

It looks as though spring travel had set in. The Meeker hotel register was well filled with names all week.

Emmert VanCleave re-laid the hard wood floor in the I. O. O. F. lodge room last week, and made a fine job of it.

A Citizens convention nominated C. L. Todd for mayor, and George E. Clarkson, Charles Durant and Clint Maxfield for trustees.

Dr. French went to Axial Wednesday to see Mr. Thos. E. James, who was reported quite ill. Al Strehle accompanied the doctor.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Keller and Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Craig were among the suburbanites who attended the I. O. O. F. entertainment Monday evening.

Thursday spring began, so the almanac says. It looks as if the truth was told this time. Generally the ice in the river is breaking up about this time.

A. B. McWilliams, the popular head bookkeeper for the Hugs company, was a passenger on the incoming stage Wednesday, after a two weeks' visit to his old home at Paola, Kansas.

Forest Ranger Syd Moyle, who has been attending to duties on Grand river points for several weeks, came in Wednesday, and will assist Supervisor Blair in the Meeker office for some time.

Archdeacon Bull of Salt Lake City came in Wednesday evening. The reverend gentleman held services at St. James church last evening, and will also officiate there tomorrow morning and evening.

The days and nights are about equal just now. This indicates that the sun is exactly over the equator, and that the equinoctial disturbances were due. They arrived Wednesday night and no mistake about it, either.

C. M. Thompson and his force of carpenters are kept on the jump these days to keep up with work in the building line. And Charley Thompson can get away with work as fast as any one we know of.

Frederic Grimes, Harry G. Applegate, Grand Junction, and R. A. Givens, Denver, registered at the Meeker hotel Wednesday. These gentlemen are conducting services in accordance with the Christian church tenets, and will continue for another week.

The popular Jim Hayes returned to White river Monday after a four months' visit to the old home in Vermont and various points of interest in the East. Jim's many friends were glad to see that he was much improved in health as a result of his vacation.

J. A. McGuire, editor of Out-Door Life, the popular magazine of field and out-door life of the West, came in Monday and will take an outing under the leadership of Homer Goff. Mr. McGuire wants to add to his already large collection of bear, mountain lion and wild cat hides, and Homer will sure take him where he can get 'em.

T. C. Smith, manager of the White-Bear Land & Cattle company, was in town Monday, en route to Lily Park to take charge of the company's recently acquired extensive holdings there. Mr. Smith's company have holdings on White river and have more purchases in view. The company has unlimited capital and will spend lots of money on White and lower Bear river improvements.

Odd Fellows' Entertainment.

A very enjoyable entertainment was given by the Odd Fellows' lodge at their hall Monday evening.

The gathering was composed principally of the members and their families with a few outside invited guests. Cards was the favorite attraction, but the sweet music and a good social time generally helped to pass away the time pleasantly until the arrival of the refreshments (which were all that could be desired) at about 11:30.

At cards Mrs. George M. Lord won first ladies' prize, and Mr. S. P. Wear first gentleman's prize. Miss Ella Peterson and Mr. B. L. Nichols carried off second honors easily.

The Story of a Plow Party.

A few days ago says—Ulysses—have a party—a Plow Party. We will furnish everything but the—Coulter—and keep very quiet. We will invite a few friends to help plow the—Acheron—on the other side of the—Grove—and afterward we can play—Golf—and dance the rest of the evening.

One—the—Ball—starts rolling there will be great things doing for the—Miller—said he surely would be there and you know what fun he makes.

Well, the party came off all right. But—Oh—Lord—I thought all the boys could get partners, but it seems the girls had other engagements.

Toward midnight lunch was served in the spacious ball (?) room and some of the boys made a—Sparr—for the small bench in the lonely corner of the room.

Peter—Son—said 'twas all right. —Cassidy—or so before that, all arrangements had been made, even to the surprise of the man of the house.

Well, it is a—Cole—day when we don't surprise somebody, and it will be—Coulter—when we do not carry things to suit ourselves.

The plow party was a success, as all who attended will verify.

One party went to have his—Wolcott—early in the day, and said he he would not have missed it if he had to—Kilduff—to get there.

Estray Advertisement.

Notice is hereby given to whom it may concern that the following described estray animals were taken up near Meeker, Colorado, to-wit: One red roan cow, branded _____ on left side, with red calf, _____ about one year old, unbranded. Said animal being unknown to this board, unless claimed by owner on or before April 3, 1907, said estray will be sold by this board for the benefit of the owner when found. ## Services at St. James Church.

Rev. William L. Bull, archdeacon of the Salt Lake Episcopal district, arrived Wednesday and will hold services in St. James church tomorrow.

Rev. Bull is reputed to be a splendid preacher and it is hoped all communicants and friends of the mission will be out to hear him.

The Meeker hotel makes a specialty of Sunday dinners for families.

Revival Services.

Evangelistic meetings are now in progress at the court house hall conducted by Evangelists Frederic Grimes and A. B. Givens of the Christian church. The services will continue through several nights, and the entire community is invited to attend the revival. A large chorus choir under the direction of Prof. Givens will have charge of the music. There will be plain gospel preaching, an inspiring song service and sweet solos. No doubt the hall will be crowded each night. Don't fail to attend. You will miss it if you miss it. Meetings begin promptly at 7:30 each night.

Does Your Heart Beat

Yes, 100,000 times each day. Does it send out good blood or bad blood? You know, for good blood is good health; bad blood, bad health. And you know precisely what to take for bad blood—Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Doctors have endorsed it for 60 years.

One frequent cause of bad blood is a sluggish liver. This produces constipation. Pimples, eruptions are then absorbed into the blood. Keep the bowels open with Ayer's Pills.
