IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Teacher of English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.) (©, 1920, Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 17 JESUS BEGINS HIS GALILEAN MINISTRY.

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 4:12-23. GOLDEN TEXT—Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.—Matt. 4:17. ADDITIONAL MATERIAL — Mark 1:16-20; Luke 5:1-11. PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Chooses Helpers. JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Teaching and Healing. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC —The Call of the First Disciples. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC —Jesus enters upon his mission.

I. The King His Own Herald (vv. 12-17). 1. The reason for (v. 12). The news of the imprisonment of John the Baptist caused Jesus to forsake Judea and go into Galilee. The fate of John he accepted as foreshadowing his own. Because of this, he withdrew from the metropolis and went to the remote regions where his work would attract less attention.

2. To whom the proclamation is made (vv. 13-16). The people in Capernaum. This was done in fulfillment of a prophecy in Isaiah 9:1, 2. These people did not enjoy such privileges as those around Jerusalem. This was one of the darkest and most corrupt of the provinces, and now it is getting the light first. This foreshadowed the present age when the grace of God would reach out to the Gentiles. But this is just like the Lord. He did not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. It should be our business, like the Master, to go to the most benighted souls with the message of light and life.

3. His message (v. 17). "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." This is the same kingdom which John the Baptist and the Old Testament prophets proclaimed. It means the Messianic earth rule of Jesus Christ. This is not our message, for ours is the gospel of the grace of God through faith in the finished work of Christ. We should call upon men to repent and believe the gospel of Christ's death for their sins and resurrection for justification. The time is coming when heralds will again announce the coming of the kingdom, and the King himself will come forth from the heavens to establish his mediatorial kingdom. For this we pray when we intelligently say, "Thy kingdom come."

II. The King Summons Servants to His Side (vv. 8:22). 1. His command of authority (v. 19). He did not use arguments, but issued the mandate. The King's voice is autocratic. To command is the King's prerogative, not to argue or entreat.

2. The station of the servants called (vv. 18, 21). They were men of lowly birth—fishermen. God chooses the foolish things of this world to put to shame the mighty, that no flesh might boast before him (I Cor. 1:26).

3. They were called to definite service (v. 19). "I will make you fishers of men." He had previously called them to be disciples (John 1:36-42). He now called them to service. This call, then, was not the gospel call to sinners, which is always "Believe on me," but the call to service, of those who had already heeded the call to discipleship. The qualities which made them good fishermen—patience, bravery to face the storm and the night, the perseverance which rolled all night though no fish were caught, would make them good fishers of men.

4. Their prompt obedience (vv. 20, 22). They gave up their business and homes, not even inquiring where their salary was to come from. They put their trust in him who called, believing that he was able to supply their needs.

III. The King's Triumphant Progress (vv. 23-25). He went the whole rounds of Galilee teaching the Scriptures, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of diseases. He did a threefold work:

1. Teaching the Scriptures in the synagogues (v. 23). The revelation of God needed to be explained. This is what he was doing at Nazareth (Luke 4:16-22).

2. Preaching the glad tidings of the kingdom (v. 23). The King who was present and was heralding his own mission was ready to establish his kingdom if they would have been willing to receive him.

3. Healing all manner of diseases (v. 23). There was no form of disease which he could not cure.

Learn the Lesson. Therefore, let us be patient, patient; and let God our Father teach us his own lesson his own way. Let us try to learn it well and quickly; but do not let us fancy that he will ring the school bell and send us to play before our lesson is learnt.—Charles Kingsley.

BOLSHEVISM IS COLLAPSING

SIGNS OF APPROACHING FALL OF SOVIETS EVIDENCED ON EVERY SIDE.

WRANGELGAINSGROUND

ANARCHY AND CHAOS WILL REIGN UNTIL STABLE GOVERNMENT IS SET UP.

Western Newspaper Union News Service.

Washington, Oct. 13.—Signs of the approaching collapse of Bolshevism in Russia are seen by State Department officials of the crumbling of soviet authority on the Polish front and the rapidly augmenting strength of anti-Bolshevist forces in southeastern Europe under General Wrangel.

Already consideration is being given at the department, it was said, to what may follow the end of soviet rule in Russia. The prospect of anarchy and chaos in the event of soviet dissolution is very real, according to officials, but the belief was expressed that the local Zemstos have been so well organized as to maintain a semblance of order and some cohesion of economic life until a stable government capable of obtaining adherence of the majority of the Russian population shall arise.

General mobilization of troops has been ordered by the Lithuanian government to repel the Polish insurgent forces now in possession of Vilna, the Lithuanian capital, according to advices received by the Lithuanian mission. The dispatches also said the Poles have demanded temporary possession of Vilna pending a plebescite.

The mission also announced it had been directed by its government to call upon the United States to bring pressure on the Polish government so as to compel the evacuation of Vilna.

Sebastopol.—General Wrangel, the anti-Bolshevist leader, has launched his expected offensive against the new Sixth army of the Soviet forces, sheltered behind the Dnieper. General Wrangel is carrying out a pinching movement converging on the town of Kakhovka, northeast of Kherson.

General Wrangel's permanent north front extends from Mariupol to the Ekaterinoslav railway. His control of the Sea of Azov has been assured by the capture of 6,000 sailors at Mariupol. He has cleaned out the soviet forces which have been operating along the net work of railways in the Donetz basin.

Warsaw.—Ukrainian insurgents have occupied Kiev, the Bolshevist forces that were holding the city abandoning it, according to advices received here.

Kills Antagonist on Roof. New York.—Patrolman Martin Gill struggled for twenty minutes on the roof of a five-story building with a San Domingo negro he was trying to arrest and then shot his antagonist to save himself from being hurled into the street. The negro, with a bullet in his stomach, slid off the roof, falling into a basket of wash left on the sidewalk. There he died a few minutes later.

Negroes Will Hang for Riot. Washington.—Conviction of Frank Moore and five other negroes who have been sentenced to death for participation in a race riot in Phillips county, Arkansas, last October, will stand as a result of the refusal of the Supreme Court to review their cases.

Turn Ball Players Down. Greenville, S. C.—Officers of the Greenville baseball club have refused to lease their ball park for an exhibition ball game in which Joe Jackson and Claude Williams, former Chicago White Sox team members would be allowed to play. Jackson and Williams have been visiting here at the home of the former ever since the exposure at Chicago. Friends of the two men proposed to organize two teams from among Jackson's boyhood associates and let the professionals be seen in action.

Aviator Burns to Death. San Antonio, Tex.—Sergt. Charles D. Allen of Mason, Mich., was burned to death and Staff Sergt. Walter French, Battle Creek, Mich., was seriously injured when an airplane piloted by French struck a building at New Braunfels, near here, and burst into flames. The men belonged to the 147th aero squadron, Kelly field, San Antonio, and were engaged in a training flight.

Five Hundred Negroes Homeless. Pine Bluff, Ark.—Nearly five hundred negroes were homeless as a result of a fire which swept over eight blocks of a negro residence district and for a time threatened the business district less than a mile away. Only the dying out of a brisk southeast wind and entrenchment tactics employed by firemen checked the flames. Nearly 100 homes were destroyed and the total loss was estimated at from $200,000 to $300,000. So far as could be learned there were no casualties.

POINTED OUT BRIGHT SIDE GIVING NATURE FAIR CHANCE

Optimist's Brave Effort to Convince Afflicted Man That the Cloud Had Silver Lining.

Mr. Juergins had been suddenly afflicted with a stiff neck. Not only was it a painful stiffness, but it caused him to twist his head around until he seemed to be trying to look behind him over his left shoulder, and his head was rigid in that pose.

"Of all the confounded trials a man was ever subjected to," he said, "this is the limit. They say to look on the bright side of our afflictions, but I'd like to know how I could make use of this stiff neck."

"My dear friend," said the optimist, "think what a golden opportunity this is to sit for your picture without having to allow the photographer to twist your head around that way and jab those ice-cold tongues into the back of your neck!"

Sluggard Satisfied He Had an Admirable Excuse for Refusing to Be Up and About.

"Arise!" we said in a tone admirably adapted for declamatory purposes, addressing the sluggard, who was still slugging at an unconscionably late hour. "The lark is up to meet the sun. The bee is on the wing. Remember the manner in which the experienced school boy read aloud the admonition to Lucy. He had been taught that when he encountered two letters of the same kind he should pronounce them 'double-o' or whatever they might be, instead of 'o, o.' So he sternly recited, but 'Double up, Lucy! The sun is in the sky,' and so forth. Why do you not double up, and to your tasks away?"

"That is a very good story," replied the sluggard, "but it does not move me. We are told that nature does most of her repair work on us while we are in bed. It is my intention to lie here until she fixes me up so that I feel like going to work."—Kansas City Star.
