THE MARKETS

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS DAILY REPORTS

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

New York, Dec. 31.—Foreign markets had a good tone, and this influence together with the unexpectedly favorable condition in the money market at the close of the year, accounted in a large measure for the improvement which the local market showed at the outset. Bulls operated more confidently, and while they restricted their buying at first the leaders the demand gradually widened so as eventually to embrace a large variety of stocks. Manipulation was evident in the rapid rise of some minor specialties, but the list as a whole showed an undercurrent of strength. Call money renewals were made at six per cent as compared with 7 per cent yesterday.

Bonds were firm. Holiday dullness prevailed but the market retained its early strength.

Obscure stocks figured rather prominently in limited deals with frequent variations of a point or more. Leading issues made further upward progress, touching 78.

The market closed strong after a final demonstration against the shorts. Liberal buying orders were placed in all the favorite stocks and the market moved up 1 to 2 points with Copper, Coals and western railroad shares in exceptional demand. Many other stocks also rose handsomely, and the year ended on the stock exchange with a strength which was in decided contrast with conditions at the beginning of the month.

THE MONEY MARKET

New York, Dec. 31.—Money on call firm. Highest 6 per cent; low 5; ruling rate 6; last loan 3; closing bid 3; offered at 3.

Time loans weaker. 60 days 6 per cent and 90 days 5. Six months 5 1/2 per cent.

Prime mercantile paper 6 per cent.

Settling exchange firm with actual business in bankers' bill at 4.81 1/2 for 60 day bills and 4.85 1/2 for demand.

Commercial bills 4.81.

Bar silver 62 1/2.

St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 3.—Wool steady. Territory and western mediums 21@25c.

Fine mediums 18@20c.

Fine 13@17c.

Boston, Dec. 31.—Trading in domestic wool continues very small with the bulk of the buying in scoured territory and fall Texas.

While the year closes with a quiet demand, holders declare that 1912 has been profitable and limited stocks are carried over to 1913. It is estimated that the stock of wool on hand in the country is 65 million pounds, compared with 118 million pounds a year ago.

Scoured Montana sells at 62 while fine medium territory brings 60 cents clean. Scoured fall Texas wool sells from 50 to 52 cents.

California wools show a slight increase in activity but sales of fleece wools are scattered. Fine washed Delaines bring 34 cents.

New York, Dec. 31.—Cotton spot closed steady. Middling uplands 12.20; middling Gulf 13.15; sales 1700 bales.

CHICAGO BOARD OF TRADE

Chicago, Dec. 31.—Wheat rallied today on account of a big decrease in the European visible supply. At first, however, the market was weak, the result of favorable weather in Argentina and of large receipts northwest. Moisture southwest helped the bulls. Opening prices varied from 1 lower to a shade advance. May started at 91 1/4 to 91 1/2, a loss of 1 1/4, and then rose to 91 1/2.

Closing prices were steady with May 1/2 net higher at 91 1/2.

May corn opened unchanged to a sixteenth up at 48 1/4, and climbed to 48 1/2.

The close was easy with May 1/2 net higher at 48 1/2.

May oats which started the same as last night to a shade up at 32 1/2, hardened to 32 1/2 @ 33.

PROVISIONS

Chicago, Dec. 31.—Support from packers gave provisions a show of strength. First sales ranged from 2 1/2 lower to a like advance, with May 18 for pork, 9.77 1/2@9.80 for lard and 9.70 for ribs.

DYNAMITERS ON WAY TO PRISON

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 31.—A special train carrying 33 labor union officials to Leavenworth, Kansas, left here at 12:10 p. m. today over the Pennsylvania railroad.

At 11:20 fifty guards were sworn to accompany the train. It was expected the train would leave within a few hours, going over the Pennsylvania railroad by way of Terre Haute, Ind., and St. Louis.

Marshal Schmidt gave his special guards their final instructions just before noon.

The train will be composed of two coaches and a baggage car. Sixteen of the prisoners, with their guards, will occupy the first coach and seventeen will be placed in the second.

Seats in the coaches were arranged so that two prisoners would occupy each seat and directly facing them would sit their two guards. The prisoners were to ride backwards. As soon as all were adapted to the strain the train doors locked, not to be opened again until Fort Leavenworth was reached and during the night the prisoners were to be handcuffed.

The baggage car was intended to carry light lunches for the guards and their prisoners and the baggage of the newspaper correspondents.

Judge Anderson took under advisement today a petition for a writ of error, filed by the attorneys for the 33 men under sentence to Leavenworth prison, and set Thursday morning at 10 o'clock for a further hearing when a prayer for a writ of supersedeas also will be filed.

The petition contained more than 100 typewritten pages and several times as Judge Anderson read it he would remark to Judge Chester H. Krum of St. Louis, spokesman for the defense counsel:

"Judge, you'll have to get a better objection than that."

"That is for the higher court to say," replied Mr. Krum.

"But that is my judgment," responded Judge Anderson.

MISS BESSIE STEIGER. As "Ricky Ann", in "The Old Homestead" at the West New Years—Matinee and Night.

United States District Attorney Charles W. Miller is asking that the court delay action, declaring much of the petition was "junk" and that he wished to have time to go over it carefully and eliminate parts as he said did not correspond to the records. He asked that the matter go over until after New Years. The hearing was in the judge's chamber.

The prisoners left the county jail at 12 o'clock sharp. Just before they emerged they joined in loud cheering for Ed Lewis, San Francisco, member of the executive board of the Iron Workers' union, and J. E. McClory, acting secretary of the union, who are the only officials of the International union out of jail, were present to see the train off.

As the prisoners left the county jail, McClory and Lewis tried to shake hands with Frank M. Ryan, president of the union, but were prevented by the guards.

Strung along the sidewalk were wives and friends of the convicted men. The prisoners lifted their hats to their wives and told them to be of good cheer, and to wait patiently the expiration of their terms. The women were heart broken and cried unintermittently.

As the line of prisoners passed along the wall of the county jail, the prisoners broke out in shouts of farewell that could be heard on the sidewalk.

The crowds that watched the melancholy procession were quiet. Those who had friends among the convicted men greeted them and exchanged words of comfort.

As soon as the party entered the train, the signal for departure was given. There was no cheering as the train pulled out.

Joseph Schwartz, Chicago, who was arrested during the dynamite conspiracy trial on a charge of attempting to obstruct justice by talking to a witness, was released from jail today on his own recognizance, after Judge Anderson had fixed his bail at $1,000.

District Attorney Miller said he would recommend the release of Fred Zeiss also of Chicago, who was arrested on the charge of committing perjury while a witness in the trial.

James Coughlin and James Cooney, two of the defendants released under suspended sentences, were about the federal building today saying goodbye to the bailiff and other court attachés. They hoped to spend new year's at home.

Chicago, Dec. 31.—Formal application for writs to prevent the removal of the 33 convicted labor leaders in the dynamite cases from Indianapolis to the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kansas, was made today to Judge Seaman in the United States circuit court of appeals who refused to take any action, saying that he would be in Indianapolis Thursday and would consider the matter there at that time.

St. Louis, Dec. 31.—Officials at Union Station were notified today that the special train with the 33 "dynamite conspiracy" prisoners and their guards, who are being taken to the federal prison at Leavenworth, Kansas, will pass through here at 10 o'clock tonight. They will be transferred from the Pennsylvania lines to the Missouri Pacific.
