

GAZETTE CLEANINGS.

Lockhart & Co. are selling stoves to Albuquerque. Hall's Dry Washer at the Cerillos is pronounced a decided success.

S. H. Wells, of Watrous, is in town buying property and having a good time generally.

A. P. Crawford's residence on Grand Avenue has been sold. John Gasegne was the purchaser.

The Telephone Company have decided to put in telephones in private residences for $50 per year.

The telephone wires were crossed yesterday and gave some of us no little trouble to find who was wanted when the bell rang.

Don Miguel A. Otero came over to Santa Fe last night from Las Vegas. He went immediately to the Exchange for accommodations.

San Miguel county has according to the last census a population of 20,638, of which 11,013 are males and 9,590 females.

Prof. B. Silliman, the distinguished chemist and mineralogist of New Haven, is making a tour of New Mexico, investigating mines and mining locations.

Calvin Fisk sold yesterday to J. M. Hamilton, of St. Louis, the building owned and occupied by Messrs. Cohn & Bloch for the sum of five thousand dollars, cash.

Lieutenant Clark and forty-five men of Battery G, Twenty-third Infantry, passed down the road yesterday on their way from Fort Reno, Indian Territory, to Fort Craig, for assignment in New Mexico.

If the New Mexican is correct, the Las Vegas Chapter has a peculiar set of craftsmen. It says a large delegation of that order recently visited Santa Fe to "raise members for the body."

It was reported yesterday that a brother of Pedro Montano was shot at Montano's ranch, near Holbrook, Saturday night. No particulars of the affair could be learned.

When a newspaper man asks for business patronage, and the business firm declines, and the newspaper man goes off and abuses the firm on that account, the newspaper man places himself in the position of a blackmailer.

The office of the Adam's Express Company has been removed across the street to the building of R. J. McDonald. Doe West will now have room enough to do business when he gets fixed up.

Street cars will run to-night until 2 o'clock in the morning in order to accommodate those of the East Side who desire to attend the Odd Fellow's ball to-night at the Exchange Hotel.

The Las Vegas GAZETTE, one of our most valuable exchanges, comes to us regularly now. It is more generally taken in Socorro than any other paper outside the local papers.

Calvin Fisk, in addition to the numerous improvements heretofore mentioned in the GAZETTE, has bought and placed in his office a fine folding desk, one of the most convenient and elaborate desks made, and yet he don't seem to be growing any less genial and accommodating than is his wont.

Census Bulletin No. 276 has been received at this office and among the many interesting statistical facts given we notice that the population of the Territory contains 9,427 more males than females. The male population being 61,466, and the female 55,069.

Frank R. Sherwin, president of the Maxwell Land Grant company, and Mr. Edward Reilly, owner of the celebrated Copper Queen mine, in Arizona, have purchased a half interest in the Metcalf group of copper mines in Arizona, near Silver City, N. M. H. M. Porter, of Cimarron, owns the other half of these mines, and the new owners propose to rush work on them.

Alejandro Meas was killed in a drunken brawl at Canoncito on Sunday last by Juan Layton. They went to Canoncito together and drank together until both were thoroughly drunk, when they got into a row and Layton went away saying that he would get a gun and kill Meas. Shortly after he left Meas and another Mexican started down the road together and had gone but a short distance when they met Layton armed with a rifle. The quarrel was renewed, and ended by Layton shooting Meas; killing him immediately. Layton fled at once and has not been apprehended. The body of the murdered man was taken to Santa Fe for burial by the county authorities, but was subsequently turned over to his brother, who lives at that place, for burial. The man Layton is said to be a bad, brutal man, and he seems anxious to sustain this reputation.

PERSONALS.

N. M. Washer, of St. Louis, is in the city. Adolph Meyer, St. Louis, is doing Las Vegas.

S. J. Fleming, Boston, Mass., has returned from Santa Fe and is stopping at the Summer House. W. G. Ingram, the new man who fingers the lightning at the Western Union office is one of the best operators on the line.

Those of the East Side who desire to attend the Odd Fellow's ball to-night will find street cars running until two o'clock in the morning.

Henry Humeke is up from Cabra Springs. He is just recovering from injuries received in falling from a moving machine. He came near being cut up.

J. C. Bush, one of the first printers in the GAZETTE office, has returned from a month's pleasant visit to his home in Kansas and has resumed his case.

The County School Commissioners of San Miguel county have made the appointments of teachers for the ensuing term, and made the wages for English and Spanish teachers forty-five dollars per month, and for Spanish only, thirty-five dollars per month. The names of the teachers and the precincts for which they are appointed are as follows:

- Precinct 26—E. N. Ronquillo (boys). 27—Milton Rudolph. 28—Teodoro Chavez. 29—Juan E. Gonzales. 30—Quirino Aragon. 31—Jose Lobato. 32—J. M. Leiva. 52—Eugenio Rudolph. 53—Monico Tafaya. 54—Joaquin Gutierrez. 55—Prudencio Maes.

Pemberton Pulled by Peltier.

On the night of September 11th last, A. B. Pemberton, a skillful and dangerous burglar broke jail at Leavenworth, Kansas, and made good his escape. Sheriff P. G. Lowe, of Leavenworth county, at once sent out postal cards in all directions containing an accurate and detailed description of him. One of these cards found its way to the hands of Samuel Peltier, the efficient Chief of Police of Las Vegas. A few days after sending out the cards, Sheriff Lowe wrote Chief Peltier that he had reasons to believe that Pemberton would come to Las Vegas and suggesting that he might have a chance to gobble him and secure the reward of one hundred dollars. Pemberton came in yesterday and was promptly gobbled. He registered at one of the hotels under a different name, but from his exact fulfillment of the description given of Pemberton, Mr. Peltier is certain he has his man, and thinks he is also wanted in another quarter.

Life at Union.

Fort Union will soon assume its old time prestige and importance. Four companies of the 23rd Infantry are expected to arrive there on Friday to take up their quarters. The headquarters of the regiment and the band have already arrived.

Down They Go.

By special arrangements with publishers after this date we will sell all newspapers and periodicals at publisher's list prices. A large stock of fine stationery and holiday goods at eastern prices.

FURLONG & TICER.

The GAZETTE man took a quiet and leisurely survey of the new Presbyterian church yesterday. The new stained glass windows have been placed in position, and add much to the attractiveness of the building. The colors are ruby, orange, two shades of pale green and another indescribable tint so arranged as to give a very pleasing effect. The pulpit is a neat and handsome design, finished in ebony and gold, and upholstered in crimson velvet. Mr. B. B. Borden who superintended the work had a force of men busily engaged in making a frame to mount the bell, whose merry peals, ere long, will call the happy children to their Sunday lessons, and denote the hour of worship for our church-going people. The entire cost of building exclusive of the pews which are yet to be put in, will be something over four thousand dollars, and as we understand, this amount has about all been paid, leaving no debt to harass the congregation in the future.

The Socorro News comes to us enlarged and otherwise much improved in appearance. Considering the age of the News its size should not be severely criticized. It shows a vigorous state of health and if it escapes the ills incident to the infancy of newspapers; we predict that those who now sneer at its weakness may ere long fawn before its strength; when years and experience shall have done their work in adding to its stature and its wisdom.
