Exchange Hotel

The little parks enclosed by the Exchange hotel are the coolest, shadiest and pleasantest places in Las Vegas to pass a few hours these hot, dusty days. Our rooms and verandas are so cool and shady that guests are sometimes obliged to have fires lighted or go out in the sun to get warmed. This is not a hoax. Travelers should remember this when coming to Las Vegas and this when coming to Las Vegas, and stop only at the Exchange hotel. The house has been thoroughly renovated. and when speaking of our tables we do not take a back seat when compared with any hotel in Las Vegas, and all this for only $2 per day, or $6 per week. We never yet went back on our friends and patrons, and are now too old to trifle with our reputation, but will surely make this old Exchange hetel ring with praises from all who favor us with their patronage, in spite of all opposition, and don't you forget it. We passed twenty years of our life in trying to make smooth and safe traveling for the public on the railroads, and row we propose to spend twenty years more in another business—in making the lives of all our guests smooth, pleasant and comfortable. Try us and see.

Very respectfully.

Las Vegas, once the most quiet and peaceable town in our territory, was again thrown into great excitement over the hanging of Navajo Frank. If I am summoned before the grand jury and required under oath to testify to the truth in certain matters, do you think that I would swear falsely simply to accommodate your worshipful reputable persons? If you thought so you were never more mistaken in your lives. I have more regard for my oath than I have for all the threats that may emanate these threats, I despise them; I hold them in absolute contempt.

You talk about "innocent persons," if such is the case why do you concern yourselves so much about it? It seems to me that right here the saying comes very true, that a guilty conscience needs 10 accuser.

The "notice" says "300 reputable cit izens of this city, thus implying that it comes from citizens of the whole city of Las Vegas, and I want it to be understood by the people in general that this threat comes, not from the whole city but only and solely from East Las V gas. It is the east side alone that furnishes the "innocents," and it is but fair to give them the credit they de-serve for their enterprising spirit in their (?) efforts to aid the authorities in the discharge of their duty.

I will say in conclusion, that considering the treacherous and unmanly behavior of the parties who presume to call themselves "reputable citizens," will be on my guard, and if they should come I will certainly do my best to give them a warm and hearty reception. I would have made it lively for them at the time of the lynching of Navajo turned from an extended visit to his Frank, if I had not been deserted at the very crisis by the guards, with the exception of one or two faithful men.
