Special to the Gazette.

SAN MIGUEL, Dec. 10.—Yesterday evening about 4:30 o'clock, a Mexican named Pascual Sena, was on his way home to the Pueblo where he resides, when near the Monte de Las Lajas about three miles from San Miguel, on the main road to Las Vegas, a young man, apparently an American, seized the bride of the mare that Sena was riding, and without saying a word or giving any warning fired at Sena. The ball struck Sena just above the knee. Sena fell from the horse and fainted. The robber then took possession of the horse and the unlucky Mexican was riding, and after taking the Mexican's pistols and blankets made off. Fortunately for Sena, Mr. Francisco Robledo happened to pass along in his carriage on his way to Chaperito. He discovered the wounded man and kindly placed him in his carriage and drove him to the Pueblo. Had not Mr. Robledo taken care of the wounded man he would not doubt have frozen to death, as the ball shattered his thigh and rendered him perfectly helpless. There is no clue to the robber and would-be murderer. Yours, respectfully,
F. DE TRUBILLE.

A Mysterious Bank Robbery.

KINSEY, Kas., Dec. 11.—The Edwards county bank was entered Saturday evening at 6 o'clock, while the cashier was at supper, and the vault was opened by working the combination, and robbed of $12,000. The parties are suspected and it is thought the money will be recovered. Great excitement prevails.

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 11.—The Times-Topics special says: The following account of the bank robbery at Kinsey, Kansas, is obtained from Mr. J. C. Ellis, who came up from that city to-day. The matter has been kept quiet and has not yet appeared in print, although the robbery occurred for eight hours ago. On Saturday night L. G. Boise, cashier of the bank, locked the safe vault and went to his supper. G. W. Crawford, county treasurer, has his office in the rear of the room occupied by the bank. He left the building with the cashier, and they returned together about an hour later. It was then discovered that some one had been in the room in the meantime, a number of coins being scattered about the floor. The cashier unlocked the vault and safe, and then discovered that $12,000 had been stolen. The burglars evidently had entered the building from the rear, and passed through the treasurer's office into the bank, the panel of the doors between the rooms having been broken. The treasurer, Crawford, was acquainted with the combination to the vault, being in the habit of keeping his books there, but no one else knew it except the cashier. There were no indications that powder had been used, hence the doors must have been unlocked and the entire affair has a mysterious appearance. It is likely that developments of interest will be made in a day or two. Detectives were set at work and it is reported that the money has been recovered.

LATER.

LARNED, Kas., Dec. 11.—Information comes to this place that the robbery of the bank in Kinsey, which occurred last Saturday night, has been tracked to the county treasurer, J. W. Crawford, of Edwards county, by means of false keys. It is said that Crawford has acknowledged his guilt and promised to surrender the stolen booty, which it seems that he has had some where outside of Kinsey. The rumor is supplemented by many others, and it is hard to tell what may not be said. It is accepted as conclusive, however, that Crawford is in some way connected with the robbery, if, indeed, he is not himself the robber, and that the facts will be fully developed and the funds probably recovered. At present Crawford is kept under guard at his house in Kinsey.

Detectives Conspiring With Thieves.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—The citizens' committee had an interview in jail today with O'Leary and Murphy, convicted of Edward county by means of bunko men. Each detailed the circumstances of many robberies, including the government printing office of money, and gave the names of thieves as well as the percentage of robberies paid detectives, which was twenty per cent. Detectives, it was even said, planned some jobs and selected the men to execute them. Murphy and O'Leary gave a circumstantial account of the Christian-church diamond robbery and alleged that the diamonds, valued at from $15,000 to $20,000, were disposed of at a great sacrifice in New York, and gave the percentage of two detectives who are named. The wife of one of these bums, O'Leary said, now wears a dress from silk taken in the Burdett robbery and given to the detective as his part of the plunder. It is alleged the detective force of the district received dividends levied weekly upon the bunks and monte men. The detectives involved, save one who was dismissed for betraying the government's interests in the Star route cases, are yet on the force. Magruder, a member of the committee, thought he recognized O'Leary as well educated, and asked him if he had ever been at college. O'Leary answered "at Gonzaga college." O'Leary said Magruder, "we were college mates; I now remember you well." O'Leary seemed greatly moved at this incident.

Crooked Officials.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 11.—Ten days the mayor and other city authorities have been investigating the conduct of the financial affairs of the city. The result is that a discovery has been made of the alleged robbery of an amount not less than $50,000 in the year 1879. The deficiency it is said, occurred in the office of the tax collector in connection with some one in the city assessor's office. As the investigation is being conducted privately the press has no opportunity to learn all the results. It is alleged that thousands of dollars have been collected and returned made to the book-keeper of only hundreds. It is still further alleged that bills amounting to $13,000 were duplicated by forgery and turned into the collector's office as a part of the assets. The officers implicated deny all and claim to be able to set matters right. The committee will continue the work tomorrow and will inspect the books from 1874 to date. It is rumored that the defalcation will reach $300,000, but members of the committee say they do not think it will go beyond $100,000. The officers implicated are David Ferguson, a former tax collector, now a collector of back taxes, and Captain George W. Lewis, a former deputy assessor but now assistant chief of the fire department. The entries of the assessor's books, out of which the wrong came, are in Lewis' handwriting, but he claims to have made no entries except by order of his superior. Dr. Kracker, the city assessor, will employ an expert to examine the books in his office and find out who is in fault. The affair caused much excitement, in view of the good standing of the parties concerned, also because of the meagre details that leaked out to-day.

A Daring Deed.

DETROIT, Dec. 11.—One of the most daring robberies ever perpetrated here occurred at the Michigan Central stock yards between one and two o'clock Sunday morning. At that time the watchman in charge of the stock yards and several employees to look after the yards were all sitting in the waiting room warming themselves, when four masked men entered, presented pistols at the heads of the men, locked them into a closet, and then proceeded to search the safe in the office in the rear of the waiting room. Shortly the night watchman appeared on his customary tour of inspection, whistling a lively tune, which gave warning of his approach. As he entered the door he was seized and thrust into the closet with the others. The burglars proceeded with their work, and in about an hour succeeded in blowing open the safe. Only fifty dollars rewarded their diligence and daring, several envelopes containing $500 in cash and $500 in checks, being no good to them. It was some time after their departure before the imprisoned men could release themselves, so that the thieves made good their escape, coming into the city. The work is believed to be that of professionals.

The Kingman Affair.

HUTCHINSON, Kas., Dec. 11.—Detective Geo. W. Williams, of Pinkerton's force, came in this evening from Kingman and will go to Wichita tomorrow. He is very reticent about the Kingman sensation, but the press reporter learned some facts. Sprohls had $4,000 in his pocket when last seen alive. The night he was missed, a Wichita loan agent was stopping all night at Carr's residence and he stated that he heard people running in and out all night and at one time became so alarmed, that an unnatural conduct of the inmates of the house that he got out his revolver and got ready for an attack. Carr preserved a dogged silence, and when confronted by Williams with the charge of murdering Sprohls, showed every sign of guilt. Carr is a church-going man and says if convicted of the murder, he will go to his cell praying.

Wrongfully Confined.

BUFFALO, Dec. 11.—Mrs. Collins, the wife of a prominent Buffalo man, who has been for some months confined in the state insane asylum, has been taken out on a writ of habeas corpus, and it was stated by her counsel and friends that she has never been insane. There is a serious connection with the case. A short time before her arrest she was told that her husband was unfaithful and she openly accused two Bradford ladies of undue intimacy with him. She then came to Buffalo with a view of obtaining a divorce and was soon afterwards committed to the asylum. It is alleged that there was trickery in the manner of her commitment.

A Miraculous Escape.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Dec. 11.—By the caving in of the walls of a well in which Edward English and his son James, of Danbury, were digging, both were buried. After eleven hours' work the men were rescued, and after fifty hours work the father was found alive, but another cave just them killed him.

Stealing Election Bets.

DENVER, Dec. 11.—Several excited men were roaming through the corridors of the Markham house this morning. They were looking for Solomon Dungee, a real estate and mining broker. They swore they would hang him if they found him, and they had the ropes to do it with. Their wrath against Mr. Dungee arose from their belief that the old man was going to cheat them out of election pools which they had bought from him in Mulhall's billiard saloon just before the recent election. The bet on the city and county election have been paid, but there is still $3,000, it is believed, remaining to be paid on the state ticket. When the pools were made up money was deposited in the Colorado national bank, but it has since been removed from there, all but $22, and the suspicious pool holders have been unable to find a trace of it. An injunction has been issued, and this afternoon Mr. E. W. Waybright was appointed receiver, and looks as though the real estate transactions of Mr. Dungee would be laid bare. There has always been something mysterious about the way the old man has done business, and yet he has succeeded well during his short business career in this city. One of the partners said that Dungee had been drummed out of Salt Lake city for his peculiar transactions there; that he has a bad record in Chicago and that he was once imprisoned in the Tombs in New York for complicity in the steals which Boss Tweed made.

The Internal Revenue Bill.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—The finance committee of the senate to-day began considering the internal revenue bill. The committee will hold daily sessions with a view of protecting the bill and reporting it to the senate at an early day. It is learned from undoubted authority that no objection has been raised by any member of the committee to the plan proposed by Sherman of appending an amendment to the internal revenue bill a proposition to reverse the tariff, and so far as disclosed by the discussion this morning the difference of opinion as to the character of the revision, and measures of tariff reduction are such as arose from personal and individual views rather than party prejudice.

The Railway War.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—The sub-committee of the northwestern railroads met again this afternoon. The president of the Omaha railroad said, before he joined the others, that he had not changed his mind on territorial rights. As far as he knew the solution of the war was no nearer than yesterday. Manager Hughitt, president of the Northwestern road, said the committee would talk over all the subjects in dispute this afternoon, and would try, if possible, to come to an agreement. It was certainly time that something be done. Concessions would be made, he thought, which would leave room for a settlement.

Educational Appropriation.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—The house committee on education and labor today authorized Chairman Sherwin, of Illinois, to report to the house with favorable recommendation his bill appropriating $10,000,000 annually for the next five years to aid in public education. It is proposed that this sum shall be annually distributed among the various states and territories by the secretary of the treasury in the ratio of illiteracy; it is also provided that a sum not exceeding five per cent of the appropriation may be expended annually for the education of teachers.

A Defaulter.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Dec. 11.—Considerable sensation was created this evening by the discovery that Robert Cranston, for five years cashier and paymaster of the Little Rock and Fort Smith railway, is a defaulter to an amount to exceed $10,000. Cranston Tuesday tendered his resignation, with his wife, but when reaching Walnut Ridge, on the Iron Mountain railroad, told her the facts and returned to Little Rock. Cranston is an old resident of the state and has been regarded as a man of integrity.

Alabama Lawlessness.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Dec. 11.—Owing to municipal troubles in Opelika, the legislature has passed an act vacating its charter and authorizing the governor to appoint a local government till a new one can be elected. This is the first of a series of measures of severity and aldermen. Two elections were held last spring, and bloodshed resulted. The supreme court decided in favor of the Dunbar faction. Worse things are apprehended.

A Miner's Fatal Quarrel.

DENVER, Dec. 11.—A Robinson special of the 10th says: Two miners, William McDonald and Joseph McKay, got into an altercation at the Olympic saloon about 4 o'clock on Friday, when McDonald struck McKay in the face with a pistol and then fired, shooting McKay through the side. McKay then drew his pistol and fired, shooting McDonald through the head and once through the neck. McDonald will die; McKay will recover.

School Discipline.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 11.—Wm. Frazer, a school teacher at Cumberland, during an attempt to discipline his pupils today, became involved in a general fight, in the course of which he stabbed and killed John Hayes, aged twenty, and severely cut Chas. Lacy. Frazer gave himself up and is in jail.

Allen Fails to Appear.

CHICAGO, Dec. 11.—Tom Allen and James Elliott were to meet this evening at Parson Davis' place to put up the preliminary forfeit for a prize fight for the championship. Elliott and his backer were on hand, but Allen failed to appear.
