TROOPS ON THE GROUNDS

Striking Miners Overawed By Militia.

MARTIAL LAW IN FORCE

The Presence of the Troops Has Prevented Any Further Trouble in the Rioting Coal Miners.

Shenandoah, S. p. 22.—At last blood has been shed at the big strike, which hitherto has been devoid of any serious difficulty.

Yesterday afternoon a sheriff's posse fired on a mob of strikers, who attempted to molest some men who were being escorted from the Indian Ridge collier of the Reading Company. The officers fired into the crowd killing two and wounding about ten. The mob was greatly incensed, and forced the sheriff's officers into the Ferguson House, which they barricaded. A telephone message was then sent to Major Stone, asking for troops.

The Troops Arrive.
Shenandoah, Sept. 22.—In answer to the demand for troops, Gen. Gobin and staff arrived here before daybreak and established a temporary headquarters at the Mountain House.

At 5 o'clock the Twelfth regiment arrived from Pottsville. The Fourth regiment is on the way. Battery C, of Philadelphia, will be here in a few hours.

The Governor's Troop, from Harrisburg, will be in camp by nightfall. Col. Richardson, who has charge of the movement of troops, says that by nightfall there will be 2,500 soldiers under arms in this district.

Troops Control Situation.
Shenandoah, S. p. 22.—Gen. Gobin, in command of the Third Brigade, announced today:

"Our duty here is plain. The troops will protect lives and guard property." The General says he has the situation already in hand. The streets are filled with people again. The Hungarians and Poles from the mines who took part in yesterday's rioting look sullenly on, but make no show of resistance to the soldiers.

Martial Law Prevails
Shenandoah, Sept. 22.—All is quiet here this afternoon. The man killed yesterday was Michael Yuckavage. A little girl named Annie Rogers, who at first was reported killed, was only wounded by a bullet in the back of her neck. Martial law has been declared in this district.

GREAT ACTIVITY IN NAVAL CIRCLES

Secretary Long Issues a Statement.

LAND FORCES REVIEWED

But Many Ships Will Be Added to the Asiatic Squadron.

Washington, Sept. 22.—This afternoon the following statement, emanating from the Navy department, over Secretary Long's signature, was bulletined:

"In view of the possibility that later, when circumstances will warrant it, the land forces now doing duty in China will be materially reduced. The naval forces will, therefore, from time to time be increased, to protect American interests in Chinese waters and ports, and also in the Philippines."

As a consequence of the above, great activity is manifested in naval circles. The gunboat Dirotthes is ordered to League Island. The Annapolis, now at Norfolk, is ordered to fit out for service on Asiatic station. The gunboat Wilmington is under orders to join the squadron in Chinese waters, going via Gibraltar, the Mediterranean and Suez Canal route. The remodelled cruiser Atlanta will proceed at once to the South Atlantic squadron, cruising off South America under Admiral Schley.

A LUCKY EDITOR.

Editor T. J. Shepard, of the Fort Valley Leader, formerly of this city, has been awarded $500 by the Atlanta Weekly Constitution for the third best estimate in its cotton contest just closed, his estimate being within 246 bales of the correct number. ROSH HASHONAH WILL BEGIN TODAY

Beginning of the Jewish New Year.

SERVICES AT SYNAGOGUE

Rabbi Morristein Will Officiate. Some Interesting History of the Event.

This evening at sunset will be the beginning of the Jewish new year, Rosh Hashonah, and the first day of the month Tishri, beginning the year 5661 of the Jewish era.

Rosh Hashonah lasts from sunset to sunset. The ceremonies, therefore, begin at sunset this afternoon. Monday will be set apart as a solemn season in which the members of the faith are supposed to review the actions of the past year, to repent and prepare themselves for Yom Kippur, or the day of atonement, which is ten days later.

Rosh Hashonah is also called the day of memorial, on account of a rabbinical tradition that it is the anniversary of the day creation. The Jewish calendar has two new years. The first, Rosh Hashonah, is held to be the anniversary of the day on which God created the earth. It ushers in the civil year. Abib is the first month in the religious year.

Another name by which Rosh Hashonah is known is "the day of the sounding of the shofar." These instruments, or ram's horns, are sounded to warn the people that the season of preparation has commenced and that they must prepare themselves by reviewing the deeds of the past year and rectifying of their misdeeds for the Day of Atonement.

On the 15th day of Tishri is celebrated Succoth, or the Tabernacles, which is commemorative of the dwelling of the Israelites in the wilderness. It is also called the Feast of the Harvesting of the Harvest. At this time of the year all the fruits were gathered into the storehouse, and the harvest work of the year finished. On the eighth day of the festival is held a solemn assembly, at which prayer for rain is offered.

Washington, Sept. 22.—Director of the Census Merriman said today that the announcement of the cities is practically completed, as no bulletin will be issued for a town under 25,000. The first will be Arkansas, and thereafter they will be issued in alphabetical order of the states will be given out before congress assemblies.

The returns from the several states will also show the population of cities under 25,000.

"SORROWS OF SATAN."

It Will Be the Next Attraction at the Opera House.

Marie Corelli's novel, "The Sorrows of Satan," in a dramatized form, will be presented Monday, October 1, at the Grand.

While the idea of the devil appearing on earth is not entirely new, for Goethe has pictured it before, his character is absolutely new with Marie Corelli. In making the spirit of evil follow the example of his divine master the author has not written irreverently, the story being told in an absolutely irreproachable manner and with deep religious fervor. Manager Wm. A. Brady is said to have cast the play with an appreciation of the difficulties of adequate representation. It will have all the requisite scenery, which is of a gorgeous nature, the leading scenes representing a fete de champagne, employing nearly one thousand electric lights, a moonlight conservatory, and the deck of a storm-tossed at sea.

Seats go on sale Tuesday morning at Butts' drug store.

The Sorrows of Satan is a story of the devil on earth. Faust in scene.

Clark has cancelled his date for October. He may appear later in the season.

The Peruzzi-Baldini Co. are booked for an early appearance at the Grand.

LITTLE CAUTIOUS ABOUT GERMANY

But America Will Turn Down the Proposal.

THE CHINESE SITUATION

A Dispatch From Germany Says Relations Between the United States and Germany Are Strained.

Washington, Sept. 22.—It is reported on good authority here that the German proposal that negotiations with China be deferred until the Chinese responsible for the Peking outrages have been surrendered to the allies has failed of approval by our government. The declaration has been conveyed in a manner that cannot give offense, but it is believed that that the United States government cannot recognize the principle that a country may be called upon to surrender its own citizens to a foreign power or powers for punishment. The government does not relinquish the idea of the ultimate punishment of the offenders when they are properly identified, but it does not believe that the pursuit of this object should put a stop to all negotiations.

Is There Any Tension?

Paris, Sept. 12.—A dispatch from Berlin says that it is believed that there is a tension between the United States and Germany over the settlement of the Chinese trouble and the German proposals. It states that Germany will not publish the answers to Von Buelo's note received from the various powers, for the reason that the German government does not desire the impression get abroad that pressure is being put upon other nations interested.

Allies Capture Forts.

Washington, Sept. 22.—Admiral Remy cables from Taku, under date of yesterday, that a force of Russians and Austrians advanced on the Pei Tang forts Thursday night. The Chinese opened fire and kept it up all night at intervals. The forts were evacuated next morning. The Europeans hoisted their colors over the forts at 11 o'clock. Twenty-five Russians and Germans are reported to have been blown up by a mine.

Raising an Army.

Pekin, Sept. 22.—Chang's agents are busy raising a private army of 8,000 men for the viceroys.

BUSINESS CHANGE.
