

COUNTY NEWS

Blackduck Times:

J. R. Green went to Grand Rapids Monday to prove up his claim.

Matt Nolan is laid up with a sore hand. While cutting some timber for corduroying the Blackduck and Rosy road last week, the tips of two of his fingers were cut off.

John Regen, a chimney sweep from McIntosh, while dreaming in an Ada hotel, thought the building was on fire, and jumped through a window and landed on a woodpile, causing a rude awakening.

John S. Smith was taken sick at Foy's camp Saturday morning last while eating breakfast.

Mrs. Hellen B. Kenealey, has taken up residence on her claim, three miles north of Bagley and is making several new improvements.

Turtle River Pine Tree:

The pay roll at this station last Monday was divided up among 150 men. What is the matter with Turtle?

Lem Hofer, the architect, came up from Bemidji Tuesday to extend Coleman & Co.'s store 40 feet to the rear.

E. R. Farley was over from Farley a couple times this week and the purchase of a few lots by him here inside a couple months wouldn't surprise us a bit.

The first service in the new church was held last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaw and son Perrin were to Bemidji Monday last. Mr. Shaw had business with the county board of review on the taxation of the Kelso Lumber Co.'s logs here, which had been assessed twice.

Tenstrike Tribune:

Mr. Harry Knappen, noted writer for the Minneapolis Journal, and a nephew of the late P. L. Knappen, was a visitor here last Tuesday.

Contractor Boyd, of Bemidji, was up last week inspecting the work on the new school house, which is progressing very satisfactorily under the supervision of Albert Brennan.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Gilmore, of Bemidji, arrived here Monday for a week's outing on the shores of beautiful Gull lake.

Some of our local sports are growing enthusiastic over football, and are practicing every evening. Some of them are quite "handy" with their feet in sending the ball through (if they don't happen to fall down in the rush.)

Atty. W. F. Street, of Bemidji, has bought an undivided one-half interest in all the unsold lots and land at Tenstrike, formerly the property of A. A. White of St. Paul, and the White & Street Townsite Co. has been organized.

A Lengby party have been breaking land for Ole A. Nerhus the last week.

Hon. Judge Wiltse and son are making hay this week on the White Earth.

Mrs. T. Rierson and family left Tuesday for Fosston where they will make their future home.

The Hemdrum Review says that Carrie Nation left her teeth in Halstad and had to telegraph back for them.

Stephen shipped 11,000 pounds of butter in one day last week, and nothing is heard there of a crop failure.

Gilbert Olson has bought out T. Rierson's interest in the meat market and hereafter Gilbert will go it alone.

Fosston people have to dodge bullets that slip past the targets when the riflemen are busy, and they're getting tired of it.

B. F. Brown is enjoying a visit from his father R. G. Brown of Washburn, Wis. Mr. Brown will probably remain here permanently.

Mrs. Hellen B. Kenealey, has taken up residence on her claim, three miles north of Bagley and is making several new improvements.

Hans Melbye left this week for a visit with friends and relatives at Lake Park, Minn., after which he will take in the harvest in the Dakotas.

County Commissioner McDougald who lives near Blackduck, recently sold the pine of nine forty-acre tracts owned by him for $10,000.

There will be a special term of District Court held at Shevlin, August 4th for the purpose of issuing Second Papers. No term will be held at Bagley.

O. T. Davids who has been spending the past two weeks in Idaho, looking up timber land, returned home Monday. Mr. Davids is highly impressed with the west.

Groven & Hight are putting on a thirty foot addition to their new building which they will use for a hardware store, their present building being entirely too small for the amount of business they handle.

One Gust Anderson who has made Bagley his home for some time past was taken to Bemidji Tuesday by Constable Torkelson and will be examined to his sanity. For many days past he has been acting strangely and quarrelsome.

Another deal in dirt was made this week whereby Dr. Mayland becomes the owner of the Martin Emerson farm. This is a very desirable piece of land being located only one mile from Bagley. Doc knows a good thing when he sees it.

Jack Torkelson met with a very serious accident while driving to town Tuesday afternoon. He was setting on the bolster of the wagon when in some way the reach broke letting his legs drop beneath the wagon trucks. The team started to run and threw Mr. Torkelson to the ground inflicting an ugly wound on the head about three inches long and an inch deep, and otherwise injuring his back and shoulders. Dr.'s Mayland and Borneby were at once sent for who dressed the injured mans wounds. He is now in town under the doctors care and is doing as well as can be expected. That he was not instantly killed is a miracle.

Obituary Journal: A Lengby party have been breaking land for Ole A. Nerhus the last week.

Philip Olberg the "Potato Farmer" of Leon is busy these days haying.

Elmer Olberg returned from a week's visit with his brother Henry in Eddy, Sunday.
