THE long session of congress which practically began yesterday will see provision made for a great extension of the rural delivery service. No improvement of the postal service has been more popular or more profitable than rural delivery and it will be but a few years when free rural delivery will be practically universal in this country.

THE prompt action of the administration promises a speeding ending of the difficulties which have beset this country in attempting to build an isthmian canal. Panama becomes a republic, but for the purpose of a waterway between the eastern and western oceans it practically becomes a state of the United States and the greatest commercial question of the century is near the end of solution.

YOUR OPPORTUNITY

Schneider Bros. today announce the beginning of a great overcoat sale, and quote prices which will be very welcome to Pioneer readers in view of the near approach of cold weather.

Mrs. Berman, the fashionable milliner and dealer in ladies' ready-to-wear garments, has received a new shipment of goods which will make the Berman Emporium a place of interest to the ladies of Bemidji this season. Additional particulars may be found elsewhere in this issue.

POLICE COURT

A. H. Monson who says he owns a quarter section of land near Ada sang and made merry yesterday afternoon and finally lay down in the street to sleep until Officer Bailey took him up and laid him away in the village dungeon. This morning when he faced Judge Reynolds it was all explained. He was going deer hunting but on the train were a number of men with bottles and Monson could not resist the temptation to drink. When overtaken by the spirit of gladness he persists in singing the "Holy City" and he was thrown out of the first place he started a stunt in yesterday before the first verse was finished. This morning he had lost his Winchester and several other things. Ephriam Howe was also up. Ephriam had not been arrested for ten years before and was not in the habit of getting drunk. Both were dismissed upon payment of costs.

NORTHERN.

Frederick Worthington went to Duluth on business the first part of the week.

Hanson Brothers & Saxrud are threshing in our township.

They are gentlemen of sterling merit and understand their business perfectly. They have an excellent machine and are giving perfect satisfaction. They live seven miles west of Buenavista and take their mail at Lynx.

The case of Anton Gordon vs. Frank Anderson was tried in the schoolhouse before the board of education last Monday. Frank Anderson was a scholar in the North school of district No. 48 and carried his home habits with him to school. These habits were of such a kind that they could not be tolerated either by the pupils or the teacher. Frank Anderson appeared to be unconscious of doing anything wrong and at one time seemed to have "a large following." In the trial it was proved that he had been using indecent language, swearing, calling names and had willfully and maliciously and intentionally disobeyed nearly every rule in school. It was an easy victory for the teacher, whose work, plans and government were endorsed by unanimous resolution of the whole board. Frank, however, has quit school since the board of education sustains the teacher's rules.
