Crops are gorgeous.

Lots of wild pigeons.

Hurrah for the fourth!

Read the school reports.

Did you see the eclipse?

Mr. Snyder has potatoes in blossom.

Mr. Gilbert is occupying his new house.

Mr. Gailey is busy making fine boots and shoes.

Rev. Mr. Flint is recovering from his attack of sickness.

Seven trains passed here Sunday, and twelve on Monday.

J. C. McCrea is visiting friends and relatives at Perham.

Conductor Mitchell brought up a large stock train yesterday.

That railroad crossing is a good job; Huggard is entitled to the credit.

McIntyre's meat market is stocked with all kinds of meat and sausage.

Liveryman Murray is shingling his barn, and selling lots of horses besides.

Hon. J. Kivel, of Argyle, took in a "square" at the Warren house yesterday.

Mr. Hauff is hard at work, and is happy. He is doing some good blacksmithing.

The church folks are going to have a "sing" at the school house on Friday evening.

W. H. Graver and W. J. Walker both of Euclid, were in town this week, taking a look at the improvements.

Tamarac, Argyle, Angus and Euclid and everybody should attend the celebration at Warren on the fourth.

Yesterday afternoon A. P. McIntyre sold his farm of 160 acres to Andrew Johnson of Hancock Mich., for $3,000 cash.

We are going to have a boss fourth of July celebration, fireworks and dance, and all the neighbors are invited to attend.

A sort of earthquake was felt by the settlers to the north-east of town and the shocks were distinctly felt at Mr. Bullis' place.

Mr. F. Kruger of Manitowoc, is looking the ground over, in person, with a view to establishing a much needed grist and flouring mill.

Elsewhere we publish a card of Ed. Slee regarding the placing of nets, dams and other obstructions in the river, thereby impeding the fish from ascending the stream. This is against the law and we are much surprised that such a man as Mr. Palmer should maintain an obstruction of this kind, and we are still more surprised to hear from reliable sources that he refuses to allow people the privilege of fishing on his place.

Maj. Buchanan has left the railroad employ, and is now throwing hay-seed all over himself. The SHEAF hopes that Dan will do well.

Earnest Walker and wife, of Edna son-in-law and daughter of J. P. Nelson are visiting their relatives and friends in this place. The gentleman is manager of the famous Lockhardt farm near Edna.

An employe of Mr. Palmer's was seriously mangled and hurt by a harrow yesterday. It seems from the man's description that his team ran away and dragged the harrow over him. Al. Nelson found him and took him to Mr. Palmer's where he is receiving the best attention.

The various farms outlying near this place; the Pembina, Palmer, Woodward, March & Spaulding, Elmwood, and lots of others, whose names we do not know, are cordially invited to send in a delegation to attend the meeting on Saturday next at 7:30 p. m. in Judge Nelson's office, to make arrangements for the Calithumpian parade on the fourth of July.

B. Sykes of London, England is one of the latest comers. He has bought a number of sections (9 or 10 in all) and will divide his whole purchase into 160 acre farms, with a house on each quarter section. Mr. A. P. McIntyre is the superintendent and is now engaged with a large number of teams in breaking 60 acres on each 160. These farms will be more valuable to Warren and the county, than a large farm, because Mr. Sykes will have an actual settler on each quarter section.

The second meeting of the fourth of July folks was held last evening in Judge Nelson's office and was largely attended. The reports of the subscription and programme committees were received. A number of other committees were appointed and R. Mentzer was elected President of the day, Eugene Dady marshal. The full list of committees will be published next week, and also the fine programme which has been arranged. Suffice it for the present, to say that we are going to have a good time, and want everybody in the county to come here and enjoy the day with us.

The Minneapolis Fair.

This exhibition will be held in Minneapolis, Sept. 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9, a period of five days, and like its predecessors will be under the able management of W. S. King, or "Bill King" as the average Minnesotian familiarly calls him. The premium list is out, and of itself is like everything that comes from the Minneapolis Tribune office—a first class affair. The list of premium is much larger than last year and has been revised and corrected; the attractions are more varied, numerous and better than heretofore and the big show, which has been patronized by thousands in past years, is to be bigger and better than ever before. We shall from time to time publish some of the special attractions which will appear at this greatest of western fairs. Chas. H. Clarke is the secretary of the association and he will furnish all necessary information from the secretary's office in Minneapolis.

Chas. A. Davis, the Crookston "multum in parvo" man, is constantly adding to his stock of fruits, confectionery, flowers, sewing machines, organs, stationery, magazines, etc., and he means to make his place of business the most attractive in town. Besides when you get off from the cars it is but a few steps to his store and when there you can get a drink of his ice cold soda, which is warranted to "cool" in hottest weather.

People who travel between St. Paul, Minneapolis and Chicago and wish for every comfort and convenience should purchase their tickets over the St. Paul and Chicago Through line. It is a first-class line in every particular, and is the only line between St. Paul, Minneapolis and Chicago that runs these celebrated Pullman palace sleeping cars. It is the only line between St. Paul, Minneapolis, and Chicago that has a smoking compartment in sleeping cars especially for the accommodation of sleeping car passengers, thus avoiding the disagreeable changes from one car to another, that persons indulging in the habit of smoking meet with in traveling over other lines. It is also the only line to and from Chicago running in connection with the Northern Pacific, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba, and St. Paul & Duluth Railways that uses the same depot in St. Paul, and by which passengers from the Great North-West going to Chicago and the east avoid omnibus transfer at St. Paul, all of which facts are worth remembering; and if you wish to travel over the popular line, purchase only such tickets as take you over the St. Paul Chicago through line, composed of the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Omaha and Chicago & North-Western Railways. The Pioneer Press has the following regarding the new and elegant palace sleeping coaches lately put in service:

"The title of 'palaces on wheels' fitly characterizes the new sleeping coaches just finished by the Pullman Palace Car Company for the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha Railway. There are to be five of these elegant sleeping coaches on the line, and two of them are already in service between St. Paul and Chicago, having arrived in St. Paul during the past week. They will all be similar in general design, and marvels of substantial construction and elegance of finish. President Pullman, of the famous company which bears his name, told the officers of the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha Railway some months ago that he intended to furnish them the finest sleepers ever seen on any road, East or West. That his promises have been more than fulfilled was easily to be seen on examination of the first two. They are called the Dunlap and the Stanwood, and have challenged the admiration of all who have beheld them. The first noticeable novel feature about the cars is their unusual length, being seventy-two feet long, or about twelve feet longer than the sleepers now in general use, giving them, with their exterior dark finish and elaborate ornamentation in gilt, a decidedly regal appearance.

Mr. R. A. Whitney of Tamarac, is the "Macbeth" of Marshall county; that is, he seems to bear a charmed life. A short time ago his team ran away with him while returning home and mixed him up with a sulky plow and a lot of groceries in a promiscuous style. After securing the team he proceeded home and attempted to un-harness them, and while stooping to pick up one of the "tugs" was kicked, by one of the horses, in the region devoted to commissary receipts, otherwise known as the stomach. For a time the injury was considered serious, but he is now out of danger.

A Card.

It seems as if fishing was prohibited at Warren. Men build dams below the town and then order people off their land when they go down as far as fish can ascend. The laws of Minnesota forbid the erecting of dams or putting in of fish traps to prevent fish from ascending a stream, and all offending against such provisions will be dealt with to the extent of the law.

E. SLEE.
