COLD ENDANGERS ORANGE CROP

FIRES ARE LIGHTED TO TRY TO SAVE FRUIT.

Francisco Experiences Lowest Temperature in Twentyfive Years.

Los Angeles, Jan. 7.-Thousands of men are working against the cold weather to save from further damage southern California's orange and lemon crop, which was valued at nearly $50,000,000. What the loss entailed by Sunday night's freeze was cannot be estimated, but growers and exporters eay that it will have an appreciable effect on the price of fruits.

Within a radius of 125 mil KNUTSON & HOLSON, Angeles, an area which embraces practically the important orange and Angeles, an area which embraces lemon growing sections, smudge pots by the thousands smouldered, emit-CITY DRAY LINE ting dense clouds of smoke, which it was hoped would raise the temperatuer within the orange orchards and groves sufficiently to prevent freezing of the fruit on the trees.

According to the sales managers Standard Oil Co. of various growers' associations, hardly more than a tenth of the orange crop has been shipped. The remainder, they assert, will show seripus losses.

The bonds will not, as was first anpounced, be submitted to Judge Anderson, who presided in the case at Indianapolis. District Attorney Miller, who prosecuted the case, will be asked to aid in passing on the sureties.

Sureties will be tendered in various sections of the United States, it being necessary for each defendant to obtain bondsmen from his own state.

COLD WAVE GENERAL.

From Texas to Washington the Weather Has Been Very Extreme.

Denver, Jan. 7.-With southwestern Texas in the grip of one of the worst snowstorms in years, and the temperacury for that state registering from 9 above to 35 below, the sweep of icy weather along the eastern slope of union, the Rocky mountains from Wyoming to Mexico shows no signs of abating.

Colorado temperatures fell as low as 39 below Monday, while Denver warmd last night to 9 below. Trains in all directions are stalled from New Mexico to Wyoming. Cuts and arroyos are filled with storm-driven cattle and sheep, and the loss of livestock will be heavy, especially in the Southwest.

Some of the weather reports indicate slightly rising temperatures though all were zero or below.

Seattle, Wash.-Four inches of snow fell in Seattle Monday and the storm continues. In the Cascade mountains, where the Northern transcontinental railroads have been fighting blizzards for a week, snow fell all day and developed into a blizzard at nightfall, and the snow lay 14 feet deep.

Commission Rule for Ottumwa. Ottumwa, Iowa, Jan. 7.—This city adopted the commission form of government by a vote of 1,351 to 1,275. Only about half the normal vote turnably will be three weeks after they ad out, owing to a heavy snow storm.

Jury Foreman Goes South. New Castle, Ind., Jan. 7.-Frank Dare, foreman of the jury which returned a verdict of guilty against the alleged dynamite conspirators, who has received two letters threatening Each man wore a broad smile as he his life, has departed for Florida to to the paper which he hoped would been impaired by the worry over the letters and by the long confinement during the trial. Both of the communications received by Mr. Dare leaders convicted in the dynamite were from Chicago and declared that the jury foreman would be "planted under the sod within three wonths."

Promise of Warmer Weather. Minneapolis, Jan. 7. - When the weather man closed his temperature factory in the federal building Monday night, the 19-mile wind was getting sleepy and the temperature was snoozin' at 5 below zero. The weather man felt of its pulse. "Rising temperature," he said. The cold snar is to be of short duration, and there will be no bleak, cold and heavy snows to add to the suffering of the poor in the city.
