LOCAL MENTION.

As an indication of the improvement in the spring trade of which there is and has been so much conjecture, we know of no more encouraging prospect as to its increase than the fact that one retail firm alone in our city has been compelled to make further pur chases in order to meet the demands required upon them by their customers. We refer to the Boston One Price Clothing House, the senior member of which, Mr. Joseph McKey, left for the East last night, absolutely forced to, in order to replenish their stock, which is so rapidly diminishing.

There is, perhaps, no firm or business in St. Paul, in fact, we know so, buying more liberally for their trade than this house, and this spring's stock has been an exception as to its completeness enormous purchases. Yet, with the past few weeks which have resulted in an unusual patronage, the enormous stock has been so wonderfully broken into that duplication is absolutely necessary. We giadly record the success of so meritorious a firm as this, and mention their success only as an indication of what the spring business

Good Goods "Once a customer always a customer," is the rule at the B. O. P. C. H. We never knowingly sell an article except on its merits. Whenever guarantee leaves our store the customer can be ure that he is getting his money's worth; is sure that he is getting his money's worth; in other words, that he is getting dollar for dollar. Our reputation for selling well-made goods for a reasonable price has given us the patronage of the people. Just now we are selling first-class, well-made and serviceable spring clothing as low as the same quality of goods can be bought for in the world. Boston One-Price Clothing in the world.
