Pitiable Plight of a Young Girl Who Had Been Betrayed and is Without

Killed by a Street Car--The Round-Up of Local Events on a Very Busy Day.

ACCUSES A BROTHER-IN-LAW. Piriable Condition of a Young Gir Who Has Been Betrayed.

In Mrs. Durocher's modest residence on Market street, between Third and Fourth, is a pretty, blonde young woman, whose distress is pitiable. Her name is said to be Annie Rochey, but she has been going she says, she left home to pay a visit to her sister in St. Cloud. She alleges that while living at his home, in August, her brotherin-law, wronged her. When he discerned her condition he decided to send her to St. Paul, and provide her with money enough to pay the expenses of a mother and child. She came April 5, and paid for two weeks' board. He wrote to her several times, and twice since she name he sent her money, once $26, and again $25. Then he stopped writing or sending any more money. Mrs. Durocher has his letters. The miserable young woman did not know what to do, for she was in too delicate condition to work. She appealed to her sister by letter for assistance, but no answer came. No one took pity upon her, and her landlady could not afford to keep her without some compensa-tion. There was no other prospect, it seemed, than a life of shame. Eventually, very quietly. however, she concluded to go to the municipal court, and get a warrant for the arrest f her brother-in-law for bastardy. It was found that the parties were non-residents, and no warrant could be issued.

Dr. J. C. Markoe, who has attended her, and County Attorney Egan have the case in hand, and will try every possible legal method to bring the author of her unhappidered for plaintiff. A verdict of $1.555.48 ness to justice. The girl's brother-in-law denies the charge, and says that some one else must be the child's father.

THE CLOSE OF SCHOOL.

Class Day at the High School--

Graduation Exercises. Class day exercises at the high school were celebrated yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, assembly hall being literally packed with ladies and gentlemen, largely the former, and high school students. Even former, and high school students. Even grand jury, having been in session all day, standing room was occupied. It was the filed into the court room and returned some great day for the class of '86. The room was very handsomely decorated, long wreaths of evergreen being looped to the ceiling from side to side, forming arches, and the windows and front of the rostrum were covered with plants in bloom. A large urn filled with water lilies and ferns ntained a spring in the center and stood on one side of the stage, and a very large mat of water lilies, a crown of roses worked in the center, occupied the other side, while floral crowns, crosses, wreaths, harps, etc., were placed in profusion about the room. The program was a very interesting one for all students and their friends. The class is by far the largest ever graduated at the high school, orty vonng men, and when they filed in and took their seats on the stage they were greeted with applause. Leslie A. Gilbert, as president of the class, presided, and the program was opened with a selection from the "Bohemian Girl," by the school choir. The president then delivered a short and appropriate address to the class. This was lowed by the class history, read by Miss Sue Ryder, partly in prose and partly in metre, which was very entertaining. Miss Fanny Larkin rendered Dohler's nocturne flat, and was succeeded by "Our Vine," which was very nicely trained, by Miss Vinnie Lamb. Jerry Prendergast, author of the class song, then read the class poem, and Robert Shroeer rendered the violin solo, "Annie Laurie." Miss Mary Wrenshall gave "Our Motto," which is "Esto Quod Esse Videris," and Miss Grace Randal made 'An Astrological Observation' for the benefit of the class. After another selection by the choir, "The Last Will and Testament," especially the testament, was read by Everett Griggs. Miss Sophie Borup read the class propecies, and the exercises closed with the singing of the class song. Bouquets and applause were plenty for all the performers.

dresses, and most of them wearing boquets and holding large white fans, sat on the stage in high school hall in the evening. They were, Misses Mira Abbott, Maggie F. Butler, Anna Corcoran, Florence C. Drought, Kate H. Graham, Bertha T. Hough, Nellie Mann, Carrie E. Miller, Mabel E. Baldwin, Lizzie Clinch, Lotta E. Connelly, Lillie Grace, Effic E. Hargis, May Hambleton, Mary McBride, Una Smith and Florence J. Trumbull. They were the graduates of the training school; the third class that has received diplomas from that department of the school system of St. Paul. Essays were read by Miss Mabel E. Baldwin, on "Individuality;" by Miss Bertha T. Hough, on "Public School Education," and by Miss Kate H. Graham, on "Practical Education," the latter being especially deserving. Following was a song by Miss Blanche V. Smith, after which Miss Anna Corcoran read on essent on "The Normal School" and on Seventh Street At 5:10 p. m. yesterday the little daughter, 20 months old, of Henry Schade, a saloonkeeper at 877 West Seventh street, was run over by Street Car No. 112, her scalp being torn from her head. She died soon after. C. H. Seavers, driver of the car, was arrested at the Ramsey street car barns by Detectives D. J. O'Connor and Dan Ahern. At police headquarters he said he was driving along at a rapid rate, and when near Stahlman's brewery a man driving a baker's wagon yelled to him to stop. He did so, but the mules lunged forward when he started to back up. He did not know what had occurred until the passengers got off and found the child with the top of her head cut off her head cut off. M. Coroner Dekny of Red Wing Looking Up a Suspected Poisoning. Coroner W. W. Dekay of Goodhue county went to Minueapolis yesterday to confer with Prof. Dodge, state chemist, about exhuming the body of the wife of Anton Katzarski and analyzing the contents of the stomdch, to ascertain if .her Annie Rochey, but she has been going under the assumed name of Miss Pinkham.

She is the mother of a diminutive babe, with the paternity of which she charges her brother-in-law. He lives at St. Cloud.

The girl's parents live about seven miles from Alexandria, Minn., and last summer, the lives at the last summer, and other witnesses, and taken to the state in the last summer. university for analysis.

Anton Katzerski is now in confinement at Red Wing, bound over to the grand jury which meets in October, on suspicion of having poisoned his wife, who died in agony on the morning of February 23. He is 45 years old, and with his wife lived in section 6, Goodhue county. An adopted daughter aroused suspicion by telling the neighbors that her mother died in agony. Katzerski was arrested, and upon examination it was found that he purchased strychnine at F. M. Parker's drug store, and the symptoms of strychnine poisoning were very strong. His wife, it is said, was in the habit of drinking whisky, and took her customary dram that morning. It is stated that Katzerski, became infatuated with a young girl in the neighborhood, and it was suspected that he poisoned his wife that he might marry her. Coroner Dekay is conducting the matter

Guests of a Day--Their Views and Opinious. Register of the Land Office McDonald of St. Cloud was in the city yesterday. He said that he thought there was no question but that Knute Nelson, the present congressman from the Fifth district, would be renominated by sections it was not united, and would not, therefore, make much of a show in the convention. The Duluth Republicans, he said. were apposed to Nelson's renomination, but they were unable to unite on any man, and hence could not expect any material assist-

Mr. Nelson, but was not prepared to say whether Mr. Frazee would consent to make the run or not. If such a decision was arrived at and Frazee got in the fight Mr. Mc-Donald was of the opinion that he would make as good a contest for the place as any Demo-crat in the whole district. Mr. Frazee's popularity throughout the district was well established by the complimentary votes received at the time he was running on the Democratic state ticket as a candidate for lieutenant gov-ernor. Referring to the state campaign, Mr. McDonald said that he had heard many names mentioned as candidates for the head of the Democratic ticket, but had understood that Dr. Ames of Minneapolis, the Democratic mayor of that city, would make a strong run for the place. With the proper ticket in the field, he thought that the Democrats had every reason to think that with proper effort the nominees might be successful

Capt. Alex. Griggs, Grand Forks, was an hotel arrival. He is chairman of the Dakota Seventeen young ladies, all in white railway and warehouse commission, and was on his way to the southern part of the terri-tory for the purpose of investigating certain complaints that had been filed during the past few weeks by the residents of that portion of the territory. ART AND FANCY WORK. Annual Exhibition by Pupils at St. Joseph's Academy.

The annual exhibition of fancy work and painting by the pupils of St. Joseph's academy was open yesterday all day, and visitors will be welcomed to-day from 10 a. mead an essay on "The Normal School" and Miss Carrie Miller one on "The Importance of Moral Training." The class was formally introduced by Supt. Wright by Mrs. Jenness, the principal of the training carbool. All the articles are the work of students, and many are elaborate and beauparlor. All the articles are the work of students, and many are elaborate and beauscehool, and their diplomas were then tiful. It has all been done by the students, girls ranging from 9 years to unmentionable ages. In the large reception rooms, the walls are covered with pupils' work in painting in oil, crayon, India ink and sepia pictures, flowers on panels and easels and various kinds of artistic bric-a-brac, making an exceedingly creditable showing. In one of the rear rooms are exhibited specimens from the hands of the students in the cookiug school.

Sometimes Absent Minded. School Inspector Gilbert is sometimes absent minded. He rode down to the special day evening and hitched his borse in front of the high school building. He got so interested in the executive session of the board that he forget all about the horse, walked home and went to bed. About 3 o'clock in the morning a policeman took care of the rig and had some little difficulty in finding the owner.

TRANSPORTATION TOPICS.

The Freight War.

The situation in the freight war which has been referred to in these columns, is becoming more serious day by day. Though no open cut has yet been made by any of the roads, it is well known to railroad men that all the lines between Chicogo and Council · Bluffs are making rates far below the agreed tariff rates. This secret cutting is becoming so serious that not only is the business beyond Omaha, and the Colorado freight being thoroughly demoralized, but freights this side are also upset. It is reported that parties are shipping west to Omaha and that the goods are rebilled from that point, and it is feared this will have the effect of breaking up the Southwestern association. To prevent this Commissioner Midgley is to send an agent to Omaha and if it is found that the goods are being shipped to Omaha and rebilled local rates will be charged upon such freight and accounted for in settling up the Colorado pool balances. This is a part of the trouble mentioned a few days ago as having caused meeting of freight agents to be held here. They could not accomplish anything and so adjourned without touching the live stock rates between Iowa, Minnesota and Da-

Buluth Marine.

New York Mail and Express. Once Tom Corwin, who was pitted against Shannon, was in a stage riding to some point where he was to prosecute his canvass. On the way, a lady, who by the way, was none other than Mrs. Shannon, entered the stage. She did not know Corwin when she saw him. Mrs. Shannon carried a baby in her arms and Corwin took the child from her as she was about to step into the stage. He placed the little one on his lap and retained it there, amusing it in a gentle, kindly manner until the lady reached her home. Corwin got out, and, entering the house, carried the little fellow to a bed and laid him down on the flat of his back. As he turned to the lady to bow his farewell she asked him to whom she was indebted for so much kindness and courtesy. "Thomas Corwin, at your service, madam," was the reply, "and I intend to lay your husband out at the next election as flat as I have just laid your son on his back."

A Rabbi Deposed.

Sr. Louis, June 24.—The trustees of the Shaareemeth temple, a leading Jewish synagogue, at their meeting last night deposed their rabbi, S. N. Senneschein, by a vote of 8 to 4, on account of his having abandoned, as the charges state, Judaism for Unitarianism.

A HOLIDAY OF THE FRENCH.

St. John's Day Fitly Celebrated by an Excursion to White Bear.

Nearly Three Thousand People Attend it from Three Cities.

Yesterday, St. John's day, the great national holiday of the French-Canadians, was celebrated at White Bear by a large portion leave St. Paul by steamer for McGregor, Ia., where they will go by special train to Mason City and be banquetted by citizens. The proceed thence to Clear Lake, where there is a camp meeting, and thence home. Following is a complete list of mambers. there is a camp meeting, and thence home. were taken possession of and until evening presented a lively scene. Many picnicked on the grounds, but hundreds waited long and wearily for the slowly-vacated seats in

The afternoon was passed in open air dancing, boat riding and a general friendly reunion. Bands were present from both cities and added an important share to the entertainment, while the large and lively crowd, with the accompanying host of hawkers and fakirs, gave to Cottage Park the first vigorous thrill of life it has felt this season. During the afternoon a part of the crowd listened to short open air addresses in the French language by a number of gentlemen present, among whom were J. B. Paradis, F. A. Carrier, Rev. Father Nongeret of Minneapolis, and T. O. Dufresne and Rev. Father Genis of St. Paul. Dr. P. Marchand officiated as officer of the day, with P. J. Bigue and Zotique Quesnel as assistants. The crowd was quite prepossessing in appearance and noticeable a Mocking Bird.

Special to the Globe. NEW YORK. June 24.-Residents of West Tenth street, near Fourth avenue are going gunning for a mocking bird that is making the nights miserable thereabouts. The bird is considerately set out doors by his owner at nightfall, and then the trouble begins. The cats in the neighborhood are bad enough, but the bird reproduces all that the cats say with variations. The passing cars are noisy enough, but the bird imitates the grinding of the wheels, the clink of the bells and the rattle of the harness. So watchful a bird was never known. He is alert all the night, he welcomes late comers and goers. He replies to the po-liceman's whistle, the milkman's call, the messenger boy's song, the innumerable noises of the street, and never tires of re-peating them. Tenth street is aroused and threatens to evoke the protection of the city ordinance. But the bird sings, chir-rups, whistles, catcalls, huzzas, screams, rasps, mews and cries all sorts of things all through the night with merry vociferous-

Quick Sales and Small Profits. Drug Record. A man afflicted with deafness took a prescription to a Topeka druggist, who filled it with care and in the latest style. The deaf man asked the price, when the following talk occurred: Druggist (leaning on the counter and smiling in a won't-you-pay-up manner)-The price is 75 cents.

Deaf Customer—Five cents? Here it is. Druggist (in a louder voice)—Seventyfive cents.

Deaf Customer—Well, there's your 5

Druggist (in a very loud voice and very firm manner)—I said 75 cents.

Deaf Customer (getting angry)—Well, what more do you want? I just gave you Druggist (sotto voce)—Well, go to thunder with your medicine. 1 made 3 cents,
