A Generous Deed.
At last night's council meeting the proposition of Mayor Ames to loan the state $10,000 for the purpose of furnishing relief to the 135 families whose crops were destroyed by the devastating storm in Marshall county, was referred to the committee on ways and means, which, after a long session, submitted a favorable report, which was adopted, and a warrant for $3,000 was ordered drawn in favor of Gov. Hubbard on the $10,000, the balance to be paid as needed. Health Officer Quimby communicated the request that all health inspectors be continued in the employment of the city during the entire year. Ald. Swenson urged that this be carried out, but John Johnson wanted the matter referred to the committee on health and hospital.

I recall the fact that every health inspector is a Republican. Last spring the Democrats could not get a single man appointed, yet I am not going to oppose them because they are Republicans. I am opposed to referring. How do we know this committee will act fairly and unprejudiced?

President Clough.—The chairman of the committee is a Democrat.

All Dwyer—That changes matters materially. Still I prefer to grant the request made by the health officer before referring it to any committee.

The motion to refer prevailed. The proposition of Mr. Mulveyhill for aid was brought up by Ald. Dwyer and referred to the committee on the part of the city. The committee on fire department was authorized to purchase lot 12, block 2, in Willard & Cassidy's addition to Minneapolis, for a new house, at a cost not to exceed $3,000. The second ward was authorized to accept $400 payment in full for damages accruing from quarrying stone in the ward.

BY THE DAY.
Ald. Cloutier moved that a committee of three be appointed to wait upon the board of water works and use its personal endeavors to secure the passage of a measure whereby all water mains may be laid by the city, the laborers to work by the day. The motion prevailed, and Ald. Cloutier, Barrows and Pratt were named as such committee.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR PARADE.
Nicollet Avenue Crowded by the Elite of the City.

Despite the cool weather last evening Nicollet avenue, the Broadway of the West, was crowded with ladies and gentlemen, bent on seeing the parade of Zion Commandery, Knights Templar. Long before the hour set for their appearance on Nicollet the crowds became impatient and manifested it in a very audible manner. When it did come all disappointments were forgotten in the sensation of the present. The commandery met at the asylum on Hennepin avenue in full uniform and there received Grand Commander H. Birkitt and escorted him to St. Mark's church on Sixth street, where Sir Prelate T. B. Wells conducted a short service, which was attended by about seventy-five Knights. After receiving the grand commander at the church, the procession passed over to Nicollet avenue, and there, under the brilliant lamps, marched up the broad avenue behind a band. Returning from church, the knights drew up in line between Fourth and Fifth streets, and there, under the gaze of thousands of spectators, were reviewed by Grand Commander H. Birkitt and Grand Captain Gen. John A. Shuey. This review was a fascinating sight, and was so perfectly carried out that all the movements were made as if by clock work. At the conclusion of the review the drill corps, under the command of Sir A. M. Shuey, gave a display drill, which was remarkably well executed, the various evolutions being performed in a highly creditable manner. The drill lasted until 9:30, and all who witnessed it felt that the parade for standing out in the big crowd for three and a half hours.

A SACRILEGIOUS FLY
Which Caused Complaint Against a Minister—The Norwegian Conference.

At the business session of the Norwegian Methodist conference yesterday morning, the accounts of the Chicago book concern were placed in the hands of C. O. Man for collection. C. P. Peterson, Jr., E. O. Peterson, and J. E. Peterson were appointed to estimate the amount required for salaries for presiding elders. Severin E. Simonson was elected an elder. P. J. C. Telford, M. L. Kjelstad, E. Hansen, N. E. Simonson and P. F. Hognes were members of the second class. August Peterson and John Hansen were admitted to full connection in the deacons' order and M. Helrud was dropped from the roll of the ministry on account of ill health. Revs. Stafford, Chaffee and Van Ande, of the Minnesota conference, and Revs. Pillsbury and Chamberlin, of the Wisconsin conference, were introduced to the conference. Bishop Merrill, Elmer J. F. Chaffee made a brief address, in which he urged the ministers to use their influence to bring the Scandinavians to the adoption of American ideas, and he advised the ministers to seek American wives. Rev. O. P. Peterson, of Racine, Wis., stated that the charges preferred against Presiding Elder P. E. Jensen, of the Red River district, by a conference voted to have the document submitted by Mr. Peterson at Thursday's meeting stricken from the minutes. The charges proved to be of a very trivial character, and it was the desire of all concerned that the matter should be dismissed. It seems that the presiding elder, when administering the sacrament at Atwater, removed a fly from the wine with a piece of the communion bread which was afterwards replaced on the plate and offered to Mr. Peterson. This, it was claimed, was sacrilegious.

After adding Ole Jacobson and C. P. Hansen to the committee on conference relations and making appointments for committee meetings and gospel services, adjourned with benediction by Rev. O. F. Peterson.

WHOSE WAS IT?
A Lawyer is Surprised to Receive a Human Leg.

J. H. Long, the lawyer, was the victim of a ghastly mistake yesterday, and the memory of it will dwell in his mind a long time. Soon after dinner, as he sat in his office at 129 Nicollet avenue an expressman came in bringing a long, heavy package, addressed to Mr. Long. The charges, 65 cents, were paid, and Mr. Long proceeded to examine the package. As the outer wrappings were moved the article began to assume proportions strangely like a leg. Friends were called in and the wrapping proceeded with. When the last bit of cloth was removed, there on his floor lay a woman's leg, all complete. It had been unjoined from the body at the hip, and was in a remarkably good condition. The small, white foot was as perfect as could be desired, and the object was a fine specimen for some dissecting table. As soon as Mr. Long recovered from his surprise he re-packed the leg and returned it to the express office, telling the man that there must have been some mistake. The package was shipped from Todd Prairie, this state, and may have been intended for Dr. Long, in North Minneapolis.
