President Hill, of the Manitoba, and Several Friends Arrive in Washington.

Special to the Globe. MOORHEAD, Dec. 5 .- At about 1:15 this morning an attempt was made by an unknown party to assass nate Mrs. E. Goebel, of this city, a midwife, and the wife of Attorney Goebel, who left here last August and is said to have been in St. Paul since. About 11 o'clock steps were heard around the house, but soon after 1 there was a heavy tread on the porch and a gentle knock on the door, an effort to open it hav-ing failed. Mrs. Goebel went to the door ply "It's me." She took it to be a brother of a sick woman near needing her services, and told him to wait till she could dress. She then opened the door, and the man asked. "Is this Mrs. Goebel?" On receiving an affirmative reply, he raised a pistol and fired, the ball entering her body just below the heart. Before falling she closed and locked the door, and he man went away. He is supdoor, and he man went away. He is supposed to have taken the 1:30 train for St. Paul. Mrs. Goebel is in a precarious condition, and it is feared, will not recover. She came to Moorhead from Goodhue county, Minnesota about six years ago. She has been married three times. first husband is dead, the second divorced and the third is Goebel, who left here. He is alleged to have whipped her, c'aiming she had been criminally intimate with an old man of this place, and she charges that in her temporary absence at her farm he took all her silverware and some other property and left for St. Paul. this city yesterday.

Of the Great Territory. In connection with the attempt to reconvene the Huron legislature it is urged that the preservation of that state machine is the only hope of effecting division. The Camp-bell papers insist that it was a great blunder in not putting the alleged state into operation when first framed. By so doing it is claimed the issue would have been forced at Wash-ington and the state of South Dakota would now be in the Union. Whatever may have been the result the fact remains that the question of putting its machinery into operation was submitted to the vote of the South and emphatically repudiated. It is no seen now how anything can be made by at tempts to play state ou that basis any longer. It is mere play.

Nearly all the papers are taking part in the discussion of the proposition to pay county officials by salaries instead of by fees. It is objected that in some of the newer or smaller counties where fees are few, it would impose a tax upon the county. This is a mistake, as the salaries would be dependent upon the officers earning the amount in fees. The same fees would be charged, and if they did not make up the salary the incumbent would not get it. In the oder and larger counties a handsome revenue would come into the county treasury from fees in excess of the salary. The plan will be pressed and probably adopted in the legislature, as it is found to work well in the few counties that have adopted it by special acts. Among the more recent arrivals in Dakota sa Mrs. Hall and three children from Jamestown, N. Y. She relates that her husband is a traveling salesman for a Boston house, and while he was away on a month's tour she found in one of his pockets a letter from auother woman which excited her wrath. She at once sold off all the personal property of the little farm, including nineteen head of cattle, and with the money has come to Da-ko a to get a farm for herself and children. Mr. Hall says there was nothing wrong about the letter and cannot account for her strange course. He will probably come to Dakota also and make up with her, and all locate in

It is probable true that the commissioners have accomplished little more than gat e interesting statistics, but the fault is rather due to the law than the incumle its of the positions. All they can do is to agvise the railreads. Such boards are found useful in some of the states, and no doubt will be in Dakota if they are given authority to do anything. And then probably a Demo-cratic governor will appoint the next board.

The Black Hills Herald is confident that the ment, selling off $750 of instruments to pay Dawes bill, opening the Sloux reservation, can never become a law if passed by congress, as it is contingent upon the concurrence of three-fourths of the male adult Indians, which cannot be secured. As evidence of this, it refers to the fact that the commission appointed in 182, to secure modifications of treaties, after six month, effort were able to get but 384 signatures out of the 5.000 or 6.000 needed. There is a growing feeling that the interests of the white people

There has been something of a rush at Devil's Lake into matrimony of late, and there is some difference of opinion as to whether it is the result of present prosperty and confiden e in the future or simply due to the predictions of an unusually cold winter. The vote of 1884 compared with the census of the following land, education, the mechanic arts, railroad enterprises and many other of the elements which promise to make them great and prosperous states in the future. The population of the territory of Dakota for the year ended June 30, 1886, is estimated at 500,000, an increase during the year of 85,000. The present population of Montana is given at 110,000, and that of Idaha at 85,000, an increase of nearly 10,000 in each of these territories during the year. Washington territory now claims a population of 210,000. The past year was not a favorable one for agriculture in the territories. In Dakota and Montana scarcely more than half a crop was realized, and from those portions of the southern territories where irrigation has not been resorted to similar reports have been received. The farmers in many of the territories have, however, done fairly well, because of the introduction of the greater variety of crops, and especially because of the large attention given to stock-raising. Cattle in the hands of numerous holders of small herds have been found very profitable, notably in Dakota. The immense herds of Montana have, however, almost exhausted the patures of that territory. Owners of large numbers of cattle have been compelled in son stances to seek pasturage in the British possessions, and it is thought that the ter ritory has reached the limit of safe produc tion under the system of large herds. The governor estimates that there are now pas tured in Montana 1.500,000 head of cattle year. Montana reports the gross value of the products of her mines for the year at $3.450,000 gold, $9.600,000 silver, $8,000, 000 copper and $1,250,000 lead. The product of the mines of Idaho is given by the United States assayer as follows: Gold, $1,338 686; silver, $3.027,316; lead. $639,069. The discovery of iron ore assay ing 65 per cent. is reported in Washington territory. Coal mining has become a very important industry on Puget sound. Over 1,000,000 tons have been taken from a single mine near Seattle within the past

POPULAR EDUCATION has already received great attention in the territories. In number of schools, aggregate annual expenditure for school purposes and value of permanent school property, Dakota, for instance, is in advonce of many of the states of the Union; and Arizona claims to have expended a greater sum per capita on children enrolled in the public schools than any other state or territory. The status of school lands in the territories should be fixed by legislation. Thousands of acres of these lands have been farmed for years by settlers who can obtain no title to them. The territories are not authorized either to sell or to re-ceive rents for these lands, as the title remains in the United States.

The development of the territories during the year has been impeded by the Apache raids in Arizona and New Mexico, by Chinese labor troubles in the Northwest. and by Mormon troubles in Utah and Idaho. CHINESE LABORERS who do not seek to make permanent homes or to identify themselves with the interests of the people, has been a source of disturbance. Your attention is particularly invited to that portion of the report of the governor of Washington territory relating to this subject, and the official correspondence pr nted as an appendix thereto, which set forth in full the extraordinary measures to which the executive was compelled to resort in order to protect the lives and property of Chinese residents. There is a general appeal from the terri-tories for national aid in developing their material resources. In the forests of Western Washington the pastures and grain farms of the central plains, the diversified and semi-tropical products of irrigated lands in Arizona and New Mexico, and the rich mines of all the territories, the nation possesses a noble heritage. The care and management of this. our sole remaining well of the most thoughtful attention. The present condition of the territories presents many questions of wide interest and of general concern. The intelligent care of the forest growth of the territories in such a way as to permit its necessary use by the people, and, at the same time, prevent its WANTON DESTRUCTION, is therefore a question of much more than local importance. The est blishment, under suitable regulations, of a great timber reservation in Montana and Idaho has al-ready been brought to the attention of congress, and perhaps would be of pract cal value in connection with the work now being carried on at Lake Winnebagoshish. It is urged that the system of irrigation necessary to render immense arreas of fertile land in the territories inhabitable is impossible to small holders; that the sinking of artesian wells, the construction of extensive reservoirs and irrigating ditches many miles in length, must be done by ac cumulated capital, and that, therefore, in the development of large masses of land must territories be brought under a single management. Your earnest attention is invited to this subject, and it is suggested that rather than abandon the policy of numerous small holdings, which has received the general sanction of the American people, the national government should itself undertake preliminary scientific investigations, and, perhaps, the conduct of a system of public works having for their object the establishment in the territories of a numerous wealth-producing population. The Ameri-can policy of placing the lands in the hands of the people in small parcels will develop
