It Was So Decided at a Meeting Held Last Night. ALL SORTS.

A saloonkeeper, indicted for selling on Sunday, was asked in court yesterday: "Guilty or not guilty?" He responded: "I don't know until I see my attorney."

W. D. Washburn, who has negotiated the $3,000,000 of Soo bonds, will finish running from this city to Rhineland by July 1. It is now definitely settled about the bridge or bridges over the Sault yet, but the Canadian Pacific, the 'Soo' and the Atlantic & South Shore will probably build a joint structure.

The city of Boston had its fill of police commission recalcitancy. At first it worked satisfactorily, but the temptations of the office proved irresistible, and previously upright men were lured into commanding felonies. In consequence, the commission became so odious that its abolition was unavoidable.

Said an indignant citizen yesterday: "The grand jury is doing its utmost to pave the way for the proposed instituting of the police commission system. Two years ago the very parties who are now highly engaged in the laudable effort to induce people by the wholesale would have been highly incensed had the scheme then been proposed."

This picturesque gem, lately platted by J. D. Ramalay, of St. Paul, is now offered for sale on the same novel plan as the three previous sales made by him at White Bear lake. No lots in this sale, however, to be reserved, and no cash to be paid until all are sold. This sale presents more liberal inducements than have ever before been offered, both in variety and cash value.

FIRST OF which is a BEAUTIFUL MODERN HOME With six acres of land, valued at $5,000, which will virtually be given away for $100—one-half cash—that being the price at which all the lots in "Riverside" are to be sold.

SECOND Is lot 15, block 13, containing three acres of best limestone, with large new lime kiln, stone lime house, and every convenience for doing a profitable business, including side track from railroad. This property is worth $3,000, and $100 takes it.

THIRD Will be known as block 14, fronting river and railroad, containing two acres, with stone building, suitable for store or creamery. This property is cheap at $1,000, and will also go for $100.

FOURTH Will be known as block 15, containing two acres, with a frontage of 100 feet on the Cannon river. A splendid location for any kind of manufacturing, valued at $500.

FIFTH The balance of the lots vary in size from one-quarter to one acre.

This property fronts the Cannon river and lies beautifully and is within fifteen minutes' walk of depot.

CHOICE OF LOTS To be determined by a committee of the lot-holders, which is explained in our printed circular, and to take place not later than Jan. 31, 1887.

This opportunity to see a beautiful home or business for so small a sum should not be overlooked.

Do not delay this grand chance, but send in your name at once. One-half of the lots have already been taken by business men of St. Paul.

For further particulars address J. D. RAMALAY, Fifth and Jackson, St. Paul, Where plats, circulars and photographs can be had.
