Transactions in the Financial Circles of Wall Street -- General Quotations.

Special to the Globe. CHICAGO, March 14 .- A very large speculator, who has had his ups and downs in this market, but whose opinion is worth as much as anybody's, says: "There has been a great lator, who has had his ups and downs in this market, but whose optigion is worth as much as anybody's, says: "There has been a great ado about the buying of this wheat. There are bugbears here who have been hurt in pocket, and there are other bugbears, who, without being hurt much in poestet, have been hurt a great deal in prestige. There are big commission men who have been disappointed in the distribution of orders. They are all very querulous, and all trying to force the holders of wheat to sell out. But why should they sell? If they have all the money that they need, and if they think that 80c is bery considered to the self-bury should they sell? If they have all the money that they need, and if they think that 80c is if there was not a big short interest, and what is to prevent the holders advancing the market luc any day they please? Wouldn't the shorts have to settle? There is a good lot of nonsense in the complaints that are Commission men who are sound are. refusing to trade because they claim the traders 'won't sell.' Well, what is the board of trade for? Can't a man buy wheat here for May and demand the cash? Is busiss to stop because all the trading is not on ind?" The crowd was inclined to feel from e very start to-day that the intervention of a Sunday had been of advantage to the wheat clique. It had given them time to settle plans, which last week looked muddled to outsiders. The gossip was that it had given them an opportunity to look around and select a new set of brokers. It was the wonder of the pit last week that, when the big "boycotters" made it hard for Kershaw & Co. and Rosenfeld & Co. to trade, they did not off to a new set of houses hile. This, it is claimed, has been quietly, so that while Kershaw & Co. osenfeld & Co. are taking the brunt of the kicks from the disappointed bears, other nouses are quietly piling up more wheat. There were indications that the clique or cliques were opening negotiations with some new commission houses, which were dictating pretty stringent conditions. A good authority asserts, also, that there are two long interests in this market, one sending orders from California and the other from Cincinnati, and the California crowd, hough it has not the most wheat bought, has ecidedly the most money to buy it with. Provisions were as dull to-day as the other The failure of Pinchoff's showed that there were some shoestring operators in lard and ribs who gave out the impression, to the best of their influence, that it was an Armour deal from the top to the bottom of the list in provision pit. His failure has dissipated

CHICAGO, March 14 .- The wheat market was rather dull and generally weaker to-day. There were few outside orders and there was less doing on local account than for the few The visible supply showed a decrease of 1,515,000 bu, but the receipts were larger, aggregating at eleven points 658,000 bu. The clearings from these points were 212.000 bu. The starting price for May de-livery was $2½c, a shade higher than the closing on Saturday, but this proved to be the top figure for the day. Heavy offerings broke the market off to SIc, from which a rally to $1½c occurred during the afternoon, at which figure the market rested for the day. There was a moderate trading in corn, and at times the market ruled quiet. The market opened steady, but the offerings were large and a decline to 40% for May delivery, tol-lowed by a rally to 40% cunder fair buying. Dats ruled easier but closed firm and a shade bats rifled easier but closed rim and a shade higher than on Saturday. There was no movement whatever in pork. The offerings of lard were liberal at the opening and a de-cline of 10e per 100 lbs. followed, after which the market railied 15@17½c, ruled moderately steady and closed at about Saturday's closing so wide. FINANCIAL.

New York, March 14.—Money on call easy at 3½ to 6 per cent. Last loan at 3½ per cent. and closed at 3@4 per cent. Prime mercantile paper, 5@6 per cent. Sterling ex-change weak at $4.84 for sixty days and $4.87 for demand. The new week opened on the stock exchange with a moderately active and weak market, with a more general distri-bution of the business and interest than has been seen for some time. There was a marked disposition to buy shown by the foreign houses early in the day, but the pressure of stocks for sale and the persistent hammer-ing by the bears soon became too much tor the weak support given to prices and a general decline, which affected the entire list followed. The general feeling was considerably mixed, but the waiting policy of the advocates of higher prices gave the bears an opportunity to raid the railroads. The market displayed considerable feverishness, but soon became decidedly weak throughout, while the Baltimore & Ohio deal still continues to be the principal disturbing element. The weakness displayed, with ru-mors circulated in regard to Hocking Valley, became a greater factor in creating a bearish temper. The stories circulated were to the temper. The stories circulated were to the effect that the company is in serious financial difficulties and that a default is probable at the next interest payment of sixes. There was considerable talk of a receivership as well. Richmond & West Point was next in order of weakness, there being a very sharp pressure on that stock. The general list sympathizes closely although its movements, were not closely, although its movements were not so wide. The bears used the increasing scar-city of money very freely as a lever to de-press values. Although the closing rates The leading futures ranged as follows: Wheat—No.2, March, opened at 76%c, closing at 76%c, closing 81%c, June, 80%c, closing at 40%c, closing at 42c, Oats—No. 2, March, 24c, closing at 24c, May, 28%c, closing at 28%c, closing a last hour showed a much better feeling, and the close was quiet but firm at small fractions better than the lowest of the day. The entire list is lower this evening, though the losses list is lower this evening, though the losses are for fractional amounts only, except for Hocking Valley, 4½, and Texas Pacific 1 per cent., while Morris & Essex was an exception at in showing a gain of 1½ per cent. Railroad bonds sympathized very closely with shares, and the market was dull and heavy to weak throughout the day. Sales to-day aggregated $64,000. On the local board there was a good deal of wheat offered for sale both for spot and future delivery. Receipts for the past two days were 517 cars. For the next week large receipts are expected, although local milis will probably grind considerably more flour than last, as the water supply promises to be better. Sample tables were well covered with milling wheat and sellers were offering at half a cent below Saturday's figures to induce sales. Outside mills were buying some. Corn is weaker on heavy receipts and oats are also sales. Outside mills were buying some. Corn is weaker on heavy receipts and oats are also lower. Bran is quoted weak. Wheat—No. 1 hard was lower, being quoted at the close at 763/4c for eash or March, 77/4c May, 783/4c June. No. 1 Northern was quoted at 75/4c for eash or March, 76/4c May and 77/4c June. Being the inventor and patentee of the machines producing the Sheathing Lath of the above title. I have given the subject much careful study, and have experimented (at great cost) with the different styles and forms that the machine will produce, and I find that the only correct and reliable method is to cut a clean, strong, deep groove, never leaving more than one-fourth of an inch of timber between the bottom of the groove and the back of the beard. By so doing, the warping strength of the board is destroyed, and the clinch has a firmer hold. Nail the edges of all boards, and center of all over six inches in width, and a perfect wall is guaranteed. width, and a perfect wall is guaranteed.
