TO WELCOME COMPANY D.

Col. Bend Hard at Work to Scenre a Fitting Reception for the Prize Militiamen.

Gov. McGill Thinks the Judges Probably Made the Award of Prizes on a Fair Basis.

Theodore Hamm and Party Are Safely Home After a Year of European Travel.

SPOKEN BY THEIR COLONEL. Col. Bend Speaks of the Militiamen at Washington. Col. William B. Bend, commanding the First Minnesota National Guard, wore his pleasantest smile when accosted by the GLOBE's representative yesterday for an opinion regarding the prize winners at Washington and what would be done to give them a fitting reception upon their return home.

"As to the reception," said Col, Bend, "that will be left entirely to a committee comprising the leading citizens of St. Paul, but a strong effort will be made to have the affair civic as well as military. Learnderworks now to personal to the content of the conten made to have the arrange revie as went as military. I am endeavoring now to perfect arrangements to bring the Stillwater and Red Wing companies here to participate, and if Company D returns Thursday after on, as expected, the indications are that I will be successful. It possible, I would like the whole First regiment, engline the regiment. regiment, embracing three companies each from St. Paul and Minneapolis, and one each from Stillwater, Red Wing, Fergus Falls and Litchfield. But the distance is too great between the two last-named places and I have aban-doned the idea. When asked by a number of gentleman what ought to be done relative to a reception, my answer was that it should be made a joint affair in honor of the two companies, A and

COMPANY A DESERVES CREDIT.

Although the former was not fortunate enough to win such honor and substantial recognition as Company D, both organization during their stay at the capital reflected the greatest credit, not only upon their respective cities, but upon the militia of the state of Minnesota.

"Their bearing was soldierly through-"Their bearing was soldierly through-out, and whenever they met an officer they promptly and at all times saluted, the same as soldiers of the regular army. This was the subject of frequent and favorable comment by army officers, and aside from winning second prize, this was a compliment not paid to any of the command at the national drill. It demonstrated the thorough discipline governing our state militia, and when the soldiers were reaming about, doing governing our state militia, and when the soldiers were roaming about, doing pretty much as they pleased, our boys were always in camp, and consequently always ready for business. My latest information is that Company D may be expected home Thursday afternoon, although there is some talk of a trip to New York. Should they carr, out the programme I have indicated, we will bring them on a special from Chicago, and the route of procession will be along Third street to Wabasha and thence to the state capitol, where short addresses will be in order from the governor, or, if the city authorities take an active part in the matter, a halt will be made at the city hall, where Mayor Smith will make a speech. In the evening there will be a banquet to the victors at the Ryan, and naturally more speech-making.

possible to arrive at a higher order of excellence. This can easily be brought about if the mercantile portion of our community will give the boys the ten days that they ask for and not permit a few hours' enthusiasm over the prize winners to suffice as their reward.

"Company D has earned its laurels by hard work, but Company A anust not be overlooked in the general jubilee, and I want to have them remain over and participate in Thursday's parade if

be overlooked in the general jubilee, and I want to have them remain over and participate in Thursday's parade if possible, instead of going through to Minneapolis. Both companies will be in the same special train, and with such a demonstration as is proposed in St. Paul the bonds of good fellowship between the Twin Cities would be greatly increased by such a fitting tribute to Capt. Amory's command as the right of the line of march. Of course,

I HAVE NO FAVORITES among the organizations in my regiment, but I want to see them all well established on the plane of military excellence and discipline, and the good record made by our representatives at Washington reflects only the highest credit upon officers and men. The money won by Company D goes into its private fund, and the men can do as they see fit with it. When it was proposed to send them to compete in the national drill a bill was passed by the legislature giving $1.000 towards buying new uniforms, and the remainder of the necessary funds was raised by private subscriptions.

President Bramhall, of the St. Paul subscriptions.

President Bramhall, of the St. Paul Boat club, has issued a call for a meeting of the club at the Ryan this afternoon to make arrangements for the reception of Company D.

HOME FROM WASHINGTON. Gov. McGill Says the Minnesota

Militia Behaved Well. Gov. McGill, who had been with the militia companies to Washington, arrived home sesterday afternoon, and left in the evening to attend the commencement exercises of the state normal school of St. Cloud. To a reporter he said:

"The deportment of the Minnesota boys throughout was excellent and gave us good reason to be proud of them. Some people think Company D should have had first prize, but the judges, I have no doubt, were honest in their decision. They marked each company as it drilled on technical points, and being all experi-enced army officers saw things in a dif-ferent light from the ordinary observer.

We were all well pleased with the result, I think."

Gov. McGill called upon President Cleveland and extended an invitation to attend the centennial celebration of the organization of the Northwest territory in July. The president said he would be very glad to do so if possible.

AFTER A YEAR'S ABSENCE. Theodore Hamm and Party Return Home From Europe.

Thirteen months ago Theodore Hamm, the well known brewer, left St. Paul for an European tour, accompanied by Mr. Classen and family, his intimate friends. After a most exhaustive surfriends. After a most exhaustive survey of the continent, in which business and pleasure were mingled, the party returned home last evening, and the occasion was taken advantage of by Mr. Hamm's neighbors to give him a royal welcome home. During the absence of his father, Ald. Hamm completed the new family residence, on Greenbrier avenue, near Margaret street, Dayton's bluff, and a brilliant and enthusiastic scene was enacted when the tourist put in an appearance. There was no change perceptible in the portly form of the elder Hamm when he greeted a Globe representative, saying, as he did so, "I am glad to be home again. It is very charming abroad, but there was no place that I visited that would compare with St. Paul in my estimation. Naturally, I took a deep interest in breweries while away, and I spent a great deal of my time endeavoring to get new ideas for the business. I shall be pleased to see all my old friends and acquaintances, and will devote myself hereafter more to business and less to pleasure." There was no attempt at a formal reception last evening, but it is proposed to have a jovial house warming in the new mansion at an early day, to which the legion of Mr. Hamm's admirers will be duly invited.

Hon. Henry M. Rice has given to the Minnesota Historical society a copy of a remarkable old deed, which, as an indorsement on it shows, was recorded in the office of the register of deeds of "Crawford county, Wisconsin Territory," July 10, 1837. Crawford county, Wisconsin, at that time embraced all the district in which what is now St. Paul was situated, and the following conveyance is thought to be the first one ever placed on record regarding St.Paul real estate. How Sergeant Tuttle Got a Bullet in His Leg.

Sergt. Tuttle, of Anoka, paid his thenee to the state capitol, where short addresses will be in order from the governor, or, if the city authorities take an active part in the matter, a halt will be made at the city hall, where Mayor Smith will make a speech. "This is a good time, by the way, when there is so much enthusiasm manifested over the achievements of Company D, to put in a good word for OTE ANNUAL ENCAMPMENT, which begins at Fort Snelling the 20th of July and continues for ten days. Hitherto the young men belonging to the First have had great difficulty in obtaining leaves of absence to participate in the encampment, and some employers have gone so fair as to threaten to dismiss the men if they take the time during business hours. One week in camp will do more to familiarize a soldier with his duties than a year spent in the drill room, and I would like to have my whole command with me at Fort Snelling in July.

"The greater part of the work accomplished by the members of Company D has been during the evenings, in their own time, and now that they have shown such gratifying progress they should be encouraged by every means possible to arrive at a higher order of excellence. This can easily be brought about if the mercantile portion of our first visit yesterday to State Auditor Braden since an interesting episode in less Suffering Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

If I had known of the Cuticura Remedies are as a content of suffering. My disease (Psoriasis) commenced on my head in a spot not larger than a cent. It spread rapidly all over my body and got under my nails, the scales would drop off of me all the time, and my suffering was endless and without relief. One thousand dollars would not tempt me to have this disease over again. I am a poor man, but feel rich to be relieved of what some of the doctors said was leprosy, some ringworm, psoriasis, etc. I took—and a half, but no cure. I went to two or three doctors and no cure. I went to two or three doctors and no cure. I went to two or three doctors and no cure. I cannot praise the Cuticura Remedies too much. They have made my skin as clear and as free from scales as a baby's. All I used of them was three boxes of Cuticura, and three boxes of Cuticura, and three boxes of Cuticura Resolvent, and two cakes of Cuticura Roap. If you had been here and said you would have thad the money. I looked like the picture in your book of Psoriasis. (Picture No. 2, "How to Cure Skin Diseases,") but now I am as clear as any person ever was. Through force of habit I rub my hands over my arms and legs to scratch once in a while, but to no purpose. I am all well. I scratched twenty-eight years and it got to be a kind of second nature to me. I thank you a thousand times. Anything more that you want to know write me, or any one who reads this may write to me and I will answer it.
