Special to the Globe. DULUTH, Minn, June 4 .- A large audience witnessed the second defeat of Duluth by the St. Paul team this after-hit Sowders successfully, while Brynan was pretty well pounded. The superiority in the field of Duluth was noticeable, and Brynan's unassisted double play, consisting of the catch of a hot liner from the bat and running a man down between second and third, was very brilliant, the St. Paul team joining in the general applause. Sowders was wild in delivery and was called down by the umpire several times, narrowly escaping a fine. The home runs of Kellogg and Earle were made on empty logg and Earle were made on empty bases and the rest of the Duluth hits were scattering. The home runs of St. Paul were made on partially filled bases and brought in five men. Stockwell played a great game all through. His catching was fine, and he is credited with thirteen put outs and three assists. In batting he had a home run, a two-bagger and two long hits to outfield, which were caught by fielders. Sowders weakened perceptibly after the sixth inning, and Duluth took advantage but were unable to catch up. The weather were unable to catch up. The weather

HOME RUNS PLENTIFUL

Minneapolis Wins Another Game From the Eau Claire Aggrega-

lis club won an yesterday by timely hitting and good base running. The game was rather a good one, though the er-ror column is well filled, and heavy batting. Willis had a lame arm and lost control of the ball at times, being hit very hard, but his judgment was good and the hits were scattered. When the bases were filled he pitched his best, and in the third inning, when three hits filled the bases and none were his best, and in the third inning, when three hits filled the bases and none were out, he retired the side with but one run. Roussey, for Eau Claire, was very erratle, giving Minneapolis eight spectral hits. Beyond these three singles, three doubles and three home runs comprised their hitting. Lang was very effective behind the bat and base steeling was very rare, but two being very effective behind the bat and base stealing was very rare, but two being credited up, while three men were caught stealing second. Elmer Foster's eight files in center field show the strength of the Lumber City boys with the willow, while all of Winkleman's errors were on hits against left-field fence. The home runs of Patton, Meister and Murphy, were made with empty basses, but when Willis lifted the sphere over the fence, he sent two men over the plate ahead of him. Flynn made his appearance on third for Minneapolis, but had no special opportunity to show his mettle. Throughout the game luck was with the home team and it played easily and steadily. The

DETROIT DEFEATED.

DETROIT, June 4.—Detroit played a good game to-day, but Chicago played better and won the game on its merits. Mark Baldwin pitched a strong game and his support was excellent throughout. Hits were even, but the visitors grouped theirs. Fine plays were frequent. Sunday's triple, followed by White's fumble, gave Chicago one in the first, and in the fourth Anson hit sure, stole second and scored on a hit. Detroit had the bases full in the seventh, but managed to get only one run, the double play by Pfeffer and Anson cutting them out. Score:

Second race, for maidens three-years-old and upwards, six furlongs, seventeen starters. It required a long time to get a start with so large a field. Beulah led out with Spinnet second and Belletaw third. This order was kept to the three-quarters, except that Mishap and Carrie A took third place; the rest were strung out. Down the stretch Spinnette led easily, though whipped in the last 100 feet and won by a length; Carrie second and Glenfisher third; time, 1:18%.

Third race, purse for two-year-olds, non-winners at this meeting, five furlongs, ten starter. After a most vexatious delay a start was made with Osborne first, The Crow second and Balance third. Helen Brooks came into the lead before the half-mile was reached, with The Crow still second. The latter took the lead at the third quarter and after a spritted finish won by half a length, with Helen Brooks second and Hallie B a good third; time, 1:05½.

Fourth race, purse, a free handicap for three-year-olds and upwards, none-winners at this meeting, one mile, eleven starters; Hindoo Rose led at the start, with Redstone second and Dad third. Redstone won by a neck, with Mineral a close third; time, 1:46.

Fifth race, Cincinnati stakes, whandicap for all ages, one mile and a quarter, eight starters. Wandoo first: Clarion second, Voltigeur third; time, 2:13½.

Third race. This was the St. Louis fair Derby for $3,000, and it was considerable of a disappointment in not having more notables in it. The track was greatly against fast time, but it is said to have been a sharp contest, and a better race than either the Derby at Louisville or Laonia. Pools: Terra Cotta, $50; Jim Gore, $33; field $20. Terra Cotta led at the start, Mahony second and Jim Gore third. Procrastinator at once took the lead and came round to the stand first, lapped by Mahoney, Jim Gore third and Terra Cotta and Insolence last. At the quarter Procrastinator led by a length-and-a-half, but in the back Mahoney closed the gap and was at his throat latch, the pacer two lengths ahead of the bunch, and on the turn they came back to the bunch, and on the turn they came back to the bunch by Procrastinator, and Jim Gore Lacina time all. Down the stretch Gore came through with Terra Cotta and made the race to the finish, but near the sixteenth post Jim Gore failed and Terra Cotta ded under the wire a winner by two lengths, Jim Gore second, a head in front of Mahoney, third, Insolence fourth, and Procrastinator fifth. Time, 2:5042.

Fourth race, purse $500, one mile—There were seven starters. Jacobin won, Darruna second, Glenhall third. No time given.

Fifth race, the Missouri steeplechase, $1,000 added, full course, seven starters. As they came on the track Asceoli led, but he had to give way to Tennessee, who won as he pleased by ten lengths, Asceoli second, Aurelian third.

A Swedish Carpenter Prefers Minnesota to the Old Country, Because, He Says, He Must Not Work so Hard to Earn a Living.

New York city and Chicago are not the only cities in which unlooked-for difficulties arise with the street car drivers. St. Paul must have its turn among the rest. A reporter, with his ever watchful eye and keen ear for news, a day or two ago heard a whisper that there had been some serious trou-ble among the drivers, so mounting the first car that came along, being No. 124 of the University avenue and Missis-sippi line, being driven by driver No. 40, the scribe pushed his way through the crowded car to the front platform, where he found a pleasant young man who holds the lines and whip while he watches that every passenger deposits his fare in the box provided for that purpose. In answer to the inquiry as to the trouble, the driver said: "Yes, there is always more or less trouble among the employes of any corporation, but in this case the trouble as far as I know was confined to my individual know was confined to my individual self. I will tell you about it. About two years ago I noticed that something was wrong. I had such a weak back and my kidneys were affected. I had severe pains all through my body, and was compelled to stop work. My stomach was always out of order, and I had a very poor appetite. The.

SKIN WOULD PEEL OFF MY FAC like as if I was sunburnt, I could not sleep at nights, and became very nervous, and had night sweats frequently, and upon arising in the morning usually would have an ugly, bitter taste in my mouth. My tongue was heavily coated and there seemed to be a slimy substance there which was hard to remove. I had a tickling sensation in my throat as though something was dropping from my head. My nose was stopped up, at times so bad I could not breathe through it. My head ached me nearly all the time and I had such severe pains in my eyes I thought they would burst. I imagined I had a ringing and buzzing noise in my ears which annoyed me very much. I was considerably worried about it and went to see a doctor who

Description of Corried to Description of giving it to doctors who did me it did not amount to anything, and that I would be all right in a few days after taking the medicine he prescribed for me. I took his medicine regularly, but got no better; in fact, I believe I grew worse. I tried other physicians with no better results, and became completely discouraged and made up my mind I would "grin and bear," as othe saying is, and save my money instead of giving it to doctors who did me no ing is, and save my money instead of giving it to doctors who did me no good, However, about six weeks ago, after repeatedly reading of the marvelous cures by Dr. McCoy's treatment, I made up my mind to make one more trial; so I braced up and visited his offices at 489 Broadway and stated my trouble. He examined me and told me I was suffering from catarrh and lumbago and that he could cure me. I was so taken with the frankness of his manner and the way he received me that I had unbounded confidence in his skill and ability and began his treatment at once, and I do not regret that I did so, for today I am as strong and hearty as any day I am as strong and hearty as any driver on the line and as well as I ever was."

The car having reached Seventh and Jackson streets the reporter bade the driver adieu and left the car, not, however, before learning that his name was J. D. La Prairie and that he resides at 560 University avenue, where he will fully and freely corroborate the above.

Likes America Better Than His Native Country.

"I was born in Sweden and came to America about seven years ago, locating at Stillwater, from whence I moved to Minneapolis some time in 1883. I am a carpenter by occupation, and have followed that vocation for a number of years," said John Stolberg, "and like that business and this country very much better than I do the old country, because a person does not have to work so hard here to obtain a living as they do in Sweden. I always enjoyed excellent health, and never lost a day's work because of sickness until a few years ago. About three years ago I took a slight cold from a little undue exposure one day while at work. Well, I paid no particular attention to it, thinking it would leave me in a day or two; same as on a previous occasion, but it did not. I felt bad for several days, then my head began to ache me, that I thought it would burst. My nose began to run and I had frequent spells of sneezing. Began to have almost constant pains in my chest and limbs and through my head, Minneapolis some time in 1883. I am a head,

John Stolberg, whose testimony as above given, is a carpenter by trade, and he he says a Swede by birth. He is well and favorably known, and will fully corroborate the above. He now resides at 622 Third street north.
