KNOWN IN ST. PAUL.

The Sad Fate of Messenger Miles

Causes Much Grief. The telegram in yesterday's GLOBE announcing the death of Express Messenger Charles S. Miles in the wreck on the Northern Pacific near Heron, Mont., was the cause of a great many sadhearted messengers and employes of the various express companies in St. Paul. "Charlie" Miles was for several years a messenger of the American Express company, running between St. Paul and Aberdeen; a young man about rautand Aberdeen; a young man about thirty years of age, a genial, whole-soured fellow, a general favorite with all of his numerous acquaintances. About a year and a half ago, on the death of his father, he went to Washington ter-ritory to look after his mother, whose principal support he was, and obtaining principal support he was, and obtaining a position with the Northern Pacific express there he resigned his position here so that he could be near her. His terrible fate, burning to death in a wrecked train, has spread a feeling of gloom over his former associates.

The Mayor Will Sign It.

Mayor Smith stated yesterday that the publication that he would not sign the ordinance for the laying of the "T" rail from Victoria street to the city limits on University avenue, was without foundation. He had not signed the orbeauty of the complexion. dinance, but had made up his mind that he would do so. He thought rapid transit between the two cities was greatly to be desired. The street car company is to keep the crosswalks in repair, according to the provisions of the ordinance. When University ave-nue is made a boulevard it is expected to be one of the most beautiful thoroughfares in the world.

What Is a Newspaper?

Judge Morrison, of the probate court, follows in the line of the recent opinion laid down by Judge Wilkin upon the point of publication of legal notices in a newspaper of general circulation, and in which he defined the term uewspaper to mean one that published telegraph, local and general news, correspondence, and covered the realm of events in general A potice published in the West eral. A notice published in the West St. Paul Times has been rejected by Judge Morrison in order to be on the safe side in regard to the requirements of that paper being a newspaper at the time of the publication of the notice in

EXPECT A BIG MEETING.

The Kentucky Association Will Have Racing This Spring. LEXINGTON, Ky., March 26.—The folowing dispatch was received to-day by Gen. James F. Robinson, president of the Kentucky association:

the Kentucky association:

Nashville, Tenn.—It is rumored here that you will have no racing this spring on account of the condition of your track, grounds, etc. Is it correct?

Secretary West Side Park Associotion.

Such rumors having frequently come to the ears of members of the Kentucky association, the following authoritative statement is sent out by President Robinson:

Robinson: The report that the Kentucky association will have no racing this spring is utterly untrue. Our track is now in good condition. In a few days both our inside and outside tracks will be equal to any in America. We have 150 horses on the grounds doing well, and have stalls engaged for sixty more horses, to arrive next week. We have completed sixty new stalls. Our club house and betting shed will be completed by the races, May 6. We expect an unprecedented meeting.
