The House to Put the Tariff Bill on Its Final Passage Wednesday.

Sergeant - at - Arms Canaday Resolves to Throw Up His Job About July 1.

Segregation of Lands Under the Arid Land Law Almost Completed.

Washington, May 18 .- In the senate this week the discussion of the silver bill will be continued indefinitely. Several of the Western senators are down for long speeches, and the end of the debate is not yet in sight. An effort will be made to hold a Republican caucus during the week to come to some agreement on the silver question, and to determine upon a limit to debate, but the discussion is likely to fill out the week at least. Tnesday after 4 o'clock is to be devoted to eulogies on the late Representative Kelley, of Pennsylvania; and Saturday, as usual, will be given over to the calendar. The house will conclude the tariff discussion this week. Twice the consideration of the river and harbor bill has been postponed by action of the Republicau caucus of the house, and it was understood that it would be called up as soon as the tariff bill had been disposed of. The tariff bill will be placed on its final passage on Wednesday, and it is the intention of the elections committee, which has the right of way, to call up the contested election case of McDuffie (Republican) against Turpin (Democrat) from the Fourth district of Alabama on Thursday, so that the river and harbor bill will not come up before the following week at the earliest, unless a caucus should decide to allow it to be brought forward this week. The elections committee has reported in favor of the seating of Mr. McDuffie, the contestant, and a minority report has been filed by the Democrats favoring Mr. Turpin's retention of his seat. Friday will, as usual, be devoted to the consideration and

THE ARID LAND SURVEY.

lt Will Be Completed in a Few Days.

Washington, May 18.-In a few days he work of segregating the lands surveyed under the arid land law will be ompleted by the general land office. The list of these lands embraces porons of 1,228 townships, principally in Idaho and Montana, with smaller areas n Colorado, Wyoming and Utah. The and is equal to 900 townships, or about 11,000,000 acres. Not only are the sites or reservoirs, ditches or canals included n these surveys, but also, as the law of Oct. 22, 1889, is at present interpreted, Il the lands made susceptible of irrigation by such reservoirs, ditches or canals. The surveys are by no means completed, but the work now being done will define the areas which these surveys will bring within the operations of the arid land law. Before the lists are finally approved, however, the attorney gen possible that under this decision a smaller portion of the public domain will be withdrawn from settlement than is contemplated by the construc tion now placed on the act. The sur veys in the southern portion of the region are not yet completed, but it is expected that a very large proportion of the public domain will be brough under the operation of the law. But even in the event that the widest interpretation is given to the law, the land will not be withdrawn from settlement for all time, as the law further provides that the president may open any portion of the lands thus reserved to settlement under the homestead laws.

The last five days there have been unusually hard winds and plenty of dust, which was very discouraging. Heavy frosts cut down the grain that had started and added to the general bad outlook, but things have taken on a different aspect since the snow and rainfall, and this part of North Dakota may yet prove that it is equal to its past record of big yields of the best No. I hard wheat grown anywhere.

The Great American Crank on the Move.

Move.

New York, May 18.—George Francis
Train arrived here to-day on the Etruria. Mr. Train slid down a rope from the big steamer into a tug boat and was brought to the city from quarantine early this morning. He was soon bold-quarters in the Continental hotel, looking as bright and fresh as when he started. He said he had been sixty days on the voyage, and expected to finish it in five days more. He has plenty of time to beat the record without here. o'clock, when it turned into a fine rain, lowa VILLAGE, I. T., via Guthrie, Okla., May 18.-The Cherokee commis sion, after having wandered around the lowa reservation for twenty-four hours in futile search of Iowa village, were found yesterday morning by two Indian scouts, sent out by the chiefs to see what had become of the government's what had become of the government's representatives, whom they had been awaiting for a day. The party arrived here at noon, and after dinner the conference with the chiefs of the tribe was begun. The Indians wanted to do all the talking and for four hours explained their side of the case. When Commissioner Jerome attempted to set forth the government's offer the Indians refused to listen. Medium Horse, the second chief, and spokesman for the Indians, explained that their stomachs were empty while the white men's stomachs were full. He asked the commissioners to feast the Indians and then they would proceed with the negotiations. The commissioners were finally obliged to consent to this plan and Monday at noon the feast will be served.

Why Cherokee Indians Refused

SAN JOSE, Cal., May 18 .- Gustave Eyssen, secretary of the Fredericksburg brewery, committed suicide by hooting himself in the head, at his res idence in this city. A note addressed to President Hendecke, of the brewery, would lead to the belief that Eyssen had been a defaulter, but such is de-nied by the brewery-people, and his friends are at a loss for a motive. Eyssen was, until a year ago, a promi-nent business and society man of Milwaukee. He was a leading member of the Turners, for many years secretary of the Music society, and a grand army man of good standing.
