DUTIFUL DUCHESS.

COMMENDABLE QUALITIES OF YOUNG YORK'S ROYAL-BLOODED WIFE.

THE QUEEN IS HER MODEL.

DUNRAVEN THE HOST OF THE ROYAL SQUADRONS VICE COMMODORE.

VANDERBILT KICKS ON TAXES.

He Writes a Letter of Protest That Amuses the Inverness County Council.

LONDON, Nov. 30.—A society paper says that the Duchess of York is a very dutiful wife, who always consults her husband in matters of dress. It was at his request, it appears, that she abandoned wearing puffed sleeves, although by so doing she placed herself to some degree out of the swirl of fashion. In other ways she is also shown to be adapting herself to the model of what constitutes a good wife as exemplified by the queen and the Princess of Wales. This is winning much popularity for the young duchess, as the British, above all things, like to point to their queen and Princess of Wales as being good mothers, good wives and shining examples to be followed by the womanhood of the world.

Lord Dunraven has been entertaining a shooting party at his estate in Ireland, Adare Manor, County Limerick. Among his guests was the Marquis of Ormonde, vice commodore of the Royal Yacht squadron of which the Prince of Wales is commodore, and through which Dunraven challenged for the America's cup. This fact has led to the statement that it was contemplated to back Lord Dunraven's protest against the alleged mistreatment in the United States with the signatures of all the members of the Royal Yacht squadron; but the Prince of Wales, as commodore, could not possibly sign, and the idea has been abandoned.

A howl of indignation has risen from certain sections of the aristocracy because the Order of St. Patrick, made vacant by the death of the Marquis of Waterford, has been bestowed on Baron Iveagh, son of Sir Benjamin Le Guinness, of Guinness' stout fame, and the most "commercial person" to be admitted to membership in that order, which is to Ireland what the Order of the Garter is to England. Tradition requires that only the best kind of pure blood is worthy of the honor of being a Knight of St. Patrick.

VANDERBILT'S TAXES.
W. K. Vanderbilt, as lessee of one of Lord Lovat's deer forests, refuses to pay the county taxes. At the last meeting of the Inverness county council a letter from Mr. Vanderbilt was read, in which he complains that he is continually annoyed by claims for occupancy taxes and that he has resolved to pay no attention to them in the future. The latter created much amusement in the council, and after the matter had been discussed it was resolved to take the usual steps to bring about the recovery of the amount of taxes claimed to be due. Truth, discussing the matter, says it presumes all delinquent rate-payers are "constantly annoyed" until they pay.

There was a large assemblage at Exter hall on Tuesday last, when a purse of $3,000 was presented to Dr. Barnardo, the founder of many homes for friendless children, and who has settled many boys and girls in Canada. The purse was presented to the doctor in recognition of his good work in founding these homes.

There is more prospect today than there was yesterday of a settlement of the great shipping strike on the Clyde, and that is welcome news for many thousands of families. Both sides recognize the fact that a number of important contracts for the building of warships will be lost unless work is resumed in the yards very soon. Consequently a settlement of the dispute is expected to be arranged at the conference which it has been decided to hold between the employers and employees.

Dr. Donaldson Smith, of Philadelphia, the explorer of Somaliland, has reached London in the best of health. Dr. Smith had a narrow escape from being killed by a rhinoceros while on his way to the lakes. He succeeded in exploring the country beyond, discovering many new tribes, the members of one of them being under five feet high. The expedition, Dr. Smith said, had been successful from a natural history point of view. They had discovered a number of fertile districts and new tribes, and had located several doubtful rivers. They lost only six people killed during the whole journey. Dr. Smith will return to the United States in January.

Blondin, the veteran tight rope walker, was married yesterday.

SWEAT BOX MUST GO.

Cook County Grand Jury Down on the Private Detectives.

CHICAGO, Nov. 30.—The methods of private detective agencies received a blow from the grand jury today just before it adjourned. The blow was struck at the "sweat box" methods and illegal confinement of prisoners in the private offices of these detectives. No actual indictments were returned but the failure to indict was due to a mere technicality which State Attorney Kern refused to waive. Every member of the grand jury voted to indict the following persons: Matthew W. Pinkerton, principal of the Pinkerton agency; H. O. Devaux, general superintendent, and Thomas or Charles Mitchell, of the same agency. The charge is conspiracy and kidnapping.

Missionary His Wife and Child
Met Death in Madagascar.

LONDON, Nov. 30.—The Foreign Missionary association today received a cablegram from Antananarivo, capital of Madagascar, saying that two missionaries, Mr. and Mrs. Johnstone, have been murdered during a riot.

ANTANANARIVO, Madagascar, Nov. 30.—A serious anti-European riot has broken out at Antananarivo. A mob of 2,000 natives has attacked the "Friends' mission" at that place and murdered Rev. Mr. Johnstone and his wife and child. The bodies of the murdered persons were mutilated. Further attacks on foreigners and additional massacres are feared.
