ST. PAUL SOCIAL.

Mrs. Fayerweather.

When the news of the death of the late Mrs. John Fayerweather was spread abroad, the whole world was deeply impressed, for no one ever enjoyed a higher repute than she. She was a pillar in the community, and her loss is felt by all who knew her. She was a woman of rare grace and beauty, and her death is a great loss to the community.

The funeral took place on Wednesday, and the remains were interred in the family vault. The service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Smith, and was attended by many of the leading citizens of the city.

Looking Forward.

The spring season is fast approaching, and with it comes the promise of new life and growth. The flowers bloom, the birds sing, and the world is once again filled with beauty. It is a time of hope and promise, and we look forward to the coming months with eagerness.

Looking Backward.

As we look back over the past year, we cannot help but feel a sense of gratitude for all that has been accomplished. The year has been one of growth and progress, and we are proud of the achievements that have been made.

Goods at Low Prices.

Capes by the hundreds at $2.50, $3.50, $5.00, and Caps and Jackets at $5.90, $7.25, $8.00, $7.50 to $8.00, and $7.50 to $8.00, said to be the best selection of styles and best fitting caps in town. We have too many Silk Wraps. For this week we will cut them in two. You can get a selection of the finest wares ever shown in this city, and we will deduct 25 per cent from our already low prices. Our Separate Skirts at $6.75, $5.00 to $6.00 are wonderful and the best cut clothes in the market. If you want a skirt you do yourself an injustice not to see ours. When it comes to Wash Waists, it is already the talk of the town that our stock surpasses any ever shown here for tasteful selection and high-class novelty patterns at low prices; besides having wares that no customer has not yet found fault with, but all praised the fit. Come and see us this week.