FIGHT FROM THE VERY START.

BEFORE THE MEETING OPENED THERE WAS A LIVELY FREE-FOR-ALL.

FILLEY MEN-WON THE VICTORY.

The Little That Was Accomplished by the Convention Was as They Dictated.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., May 12 .- After a whole day devoted largely to rioting of one kind and another, and wrangling when there was no more serious disturbance the Missouri Republican state convention, at a late hour tonight, had succeed in doing very little be side organizing, and an all-night session was in prospect. The majority report of the credentials committee was adopted, seating the Filley delegates, and a platform accepted indorsing McKinley and protection, and declaring for sound money.

tickets to his set of delegates. The local committee on arrangements recognize Kerens as boss, and this committee also issued tickets to the convention, and having obtained possession of the keys of the opera house, refused to admit any one until Filley would consent to a compromise. At about 12 o'clock newspaper reporters were admitted to the con-vention hall, but delegates were kept on the outside while a truce was being arranged between the factions. A little after 12 o'clock a crowd of men, wearing Filley hats, congregated in the rear of the theater, and attempted to smash in the rear door. They used a battering ram. The sergeant-at-arms in the inside telephoned for the redice and in the inside telephoned for the police and a patrol wagon full of officers was sent to the scene. The sergeant-at-arms was unable to identify the individuals using violence and no arrests were made, but the officers remained on guard. While the delegates in the street raved, Filley and the local committee representing the Kerens' faction held a consultation. Finally an agreement was reached by which the doors were opened, and the delegates allowed to enter. Then after a delay of three hours, to enter. Then after a delay of three hours. Chairman Filley appeared on the stage and called the convention to order. The building was packed to the doors, but the delegates seemed to have forgotten their wrath, and aside from a few bruised heads and black eyes, there was no evidences of what had for a time threatened to result in a riot. After an address by Mayor Vorles, Mr. Filley announced the temporary officers as follows: announced the temporary officers as follows:

This report was unani-mously adopted. The indications are that the convention will be in session all night. From this time on, the convention was practically in control of the Filley party. The temporary organization was made permanent, and the only disappointment which the Filley men met was the losing of one of the state committeemen at large. The selection of chairman of the state central committee was awarded to Mr. Filley by acclamation, and to crown his victory, at 1:30 a. m. he was elected delegate at large to the national DOVER, Del., May 12.-The Republican state convention met here at noon today, and before the adjournment one of the stormiest battles in the history of state Republican politics had been waged. Charges of fraud were exchanged and fighting over contested seats indulged in, until it looked as if the convention would end in chaos. The war was between the factions respectively headed by Addicks and Anthony Higgins. In the afternoon the Higgins men bolted the convention and held a separate one in the state house. These national delegates were chosen: Anthony Higgins, John Pilling, Hiram Reedy, Dr. Paris T. Carlisle, Cornelius P. Swain and George H. Hall. They were instructed for McKinley. ### A. P. A. COUNCIL.

Only Informal Sessions Were Held Yesterday.

WSHINGTON, May 12.-The supreme cil of the A. P. A. this morning held an informal session, the first of the convention. No business was transacted except the appointment of a committ on credentials. This ommittee at once began making up the roll of the council. There are about 200 delegates on the scene. The consensus of opinion among the Eastern delegates is that at tempts to bring the financial question to the front will be checked. The action of the advisory board in blacklisting McKinley will be opposed by the Western men.

An afternoon session of several hours was held, the time being consumed mainly in the consideration of the report of the cre-dentials committee. Committees were appointed on ritual and paraphernalia, on the report of the executive committee, on political action, on the president's message and on educational work. Hereafter daily sessions will be held from 9 until 4 o'clock, and the remainder of the day will be devoted to committee work. Tomorrow morning it is expected that Supreme President J. W. ### SEVERE AT LINCOLN.

Several Persons Injured by the Cyclonic Storm.

LINCOLN, Neb., May 12.—Lincoln was struck at 4:45 by a tornado. The general direction of the wind was from the southwest, and it was accompanied by cyclonic features. Buildings were unroofed and torn down, and the residence portion of the city nearly de-nuded of trees. The greatest damage was at the state hospital for the insane, where many of the larger buildings were unroofed. The damage in the city will probably reach

The severely injured are: J. L. Workman, an act would entail an immediate demand for reparation. In any case the government will see that Englishmen are not wronged with impunity. The moral of the incident is that the other powers dispense with preliminary steps when they want anything from China and threaten force, China knows that they are in earnest and yields. Until we instill a similar conviction into the mandarins we shall always come off second best where France and Russia are our rivals."

FUNNEL-SHAPED CLOUD. It Dropped Down on Elkhorn, and

Caused Much Damage. ELKHORN, Neb., May 12.-A cyclone swep! this section this afternoon. A funnel-shaped cloud shot down from the storm center, and a general stampede of citizens for cellars and general stampeds of citizens for chil-caves ensued. At the school house the chil-dren fled, panic-stricken, to the furnace room, amid the wildest confusion, and a number of them were hurt. Carl Johnson, a prominent farmer, was caught in the twister. He had team attached to a wagon. Before he could lash his horses out of the path of the hurricane he was caught in its vortex, and man, horses and wagon were sent through space, together with fences, boards, posts, wire and other debris. His clothes were torn from his back, and he received a number of wounds. After traversing a distance of about two miles, the funnel-shaped cloud arose as sud-denly as it had shot down to the earth, and at a point five or six miles further to the north dropped again to the earth, where it is feared
