TAMPA THEIR RENDEZVOUS

MINNESOTA VOLUNTEERS ORDERED TO THE GULF COAST

Chickamauga Encampment Will Not Be Their Objective Point—They Will Leave for the Far South as Soon as Their Equipments Are Ready for Them—Company D Will Defend Its Flags.

The officers and men at Camp Ramsey were thrown into another state of uncertainty yesterday by the receipt of a telegram from Washington, stating that the Minnesota troops would be sent to Tampa. The message was indefinite as to whether all the troops at the camp or only the two regiments...

Col. Ebbelster declared yesterday, that he had not the slightest idea when the order to start for the front would be given, but he did not think it would arrive until the men were all completely equipped with clothing, tents and rifles. These are expected to arrive at the camp at any hour and no time will be wasted distributing them. The men were measured for shoes and uniforms yesterday.

The officers were disappointed at the non-arrival of equipments yesterday.

Lieut. Leunhauer, the United States quartermaster, waited patiently all day at his headquarters for them, but there was no sign of them. Col. Ebbelster was as anxious for them to come, and as soon as they arrive he will communicate with Gen. Clough.

The officers are pleased with the prospect of the men taking the Springfield rifles to Cuba. The Springfield rifles are no match for the Mausers which the Spanish have, and they fear that the Spaniards will be able to do terrific execution in an engagement before the Americans get within range.

An order was received from Washington requiring the state to render to the government an account of everything furnished by the state to the government in order that the government may reimburse the state.

A complete set of books was received yesterday for every department of the brigade. They were sent from the war department and will be busy all day entering the records according to the new arrangement.

The men received their money yesterday. They were paid by the state for the time they were at the camp under state control. They were paid at regular army rates and those who expected state rates were disappointed. There was much murmuring and threats of suits were made by some. Many of the higher officers agreed that the state treated the men unjustly in the matter.

The recruits who were rejected were included in the pay rolls, as they were entitled to pay while they were in camp by order of the state, and there was a difference of opinion as to whether or not those who went home after being rejected should receive anything. It was argued by some captains that the men were not national guards, but that they were national guards on the other hand it was said that had they remained they would have been rations to which they were not entitled.

LOYAL TO LUTHER'S IDEAS

CENTRAL LUTHER LEAGUE MET IN ST. PAUL LAST NIGHT

Addresses Were Made by Secretary of State Albert Berg and Rev. J. C. Peterson, of the Danish Church of Minneapolis—The Organization Will Meet Here Again in October Next.

The first convention of the Central Luther League of the Twin Cities opened at German Evangelical Lutheran church, Dale street and Sherburne avenue, last night. The convention was attended by some 125 delegates, forty-five of whom were from Minneapolis.

The object of the league is to organize for work the young members of the Lutheran church. The program opened at a mass meeting of young Lutherans, held in Minneapolis last night, which was followed by a second meeting at St. Paul, Minn., in December, at which time it was decided to hold the present convention.

In the absence of Rev. E. G. Lund, president of the league, Rev. William H. Zuber, of the Trinity Lutheran church, St. Paul, presided at the meeting. The programme opened with a prayer by John Anderson, Rev. Frank E. Jensen, of St. James Lutheran church, was substituted for Rev. G. H. Trabert, and gave a Scripture lesson, read by John Anderson.

The hymn, "No Thank We All Our God," sung by the delegates, was followed by an address by Rev. Alfred Hanson, of St. John's Lutheran church, Minneapolis, on "Organization and Unity." Miss Esther Osborn sang a solo. Rev. J. C. Peterson, of the Danish Lutheran church, of Minneapolis, delivered an address. He said in part:

I have read somewhere that John Wesley, the father of Methodism, once surprised his hearers by saying, "I am a Methodist in the gates of hell in a dream, but I am a Methodist in the gates of heaven." "Yes, but are there any Methodists in reality?" "Are there any Presbyterians, any Episcopalians, any Catholics, any Lutherans, any of any of them?" Then he went to the gates of heaven and asked the same question. "Are there any Methodists in reality?" "Are there any Presbyterians, any Episcopalians, any Catholics, any Lutherans, any of any of them?" Then he went to the gates of heaven and asked the same question.
