

TO NAME THEIR JUDGES

DEMOCRATIC JUDICIAL CONVENTION WILL MEET TODAY

For Two Places There Is Very Little Contest, and for the Third the Outcome Seems to Be Settled by the Result of the Primaries—Populists Also Will Meet Today—Minneapolis News.

MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 15.—Democratic judicial primaries were held this evening, and the Populist primaries were also scheduled, but, as usual, it was impossible to locate them satisfactorily, and it is doubtful if more than one precinct in four was open to the voters.

The Democratic convention will be called to order at Harmonia hall at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning by Chairman Donahue. P. B. Winston is slated for chairman. It will be composed of 488 delegates, making 245 votes necessary to a choice.

A guess at the winning ticket would seem to read:
F. J. BROOKS, Chief Justice.
C. M. POND, District Judge.
F. J. GEIST, County Judge.

As to Brooks and Pond, there are no dissenting voices. Their nominations are practically conceded by everybody, but as to Geist, many Democrats refuse to believe that he will prove a winner. So far as the returns could be analyzed this evening, however, the above ticket stands out.

The strength displayed by Geist has surprised the other fellows, and it is only faintly that they reaffirm that the third man—for one place now seems to be conceded to the Silver Republicans—will be either J. W. Lawrence or J. C. Haynes. As between Lawrence and Haynes, it would seem that in case other Brooks, Pond or Geist falls of a nomination, Lawrence will be the winner.

The nomination of Brooks is the most certain of either of the candidates. Delegates from all sections of the city are for him, either instructed or implicitly so. It is much the same as regards Pond, although in a less degree. As to Geist, he has no more than a possibility, which he has conducted on the quiet, and his friends now claim that he has carried the First, Third, Sixth, Tenth and Twelfth wards solidly, with quite a following from the Eleventh, and the probability that he has more than a majority of the Ninth ward. This, if true, will be more than enough to nominate him, but if the claims are inflated, it is probable that he has a large enough support to insure him a place on the ticket.

The Silver Republicans met tomorrow morning at the office of D. W. Parsons, chairman of the committee of the Democratic convention, to make a request for presentation to the Democratic convention, that they be accorded one of the judgeships. They also appointed a committee of conference which will be present at the Democratic convention when it assembles. From the sentiment which was prevalent at the meeting, it would seem that the conclusion that their request will be granted. In that case their choice will be between A. L. Smith and John Day Smith, with chances favoring the former.

The Populist judicial convention is called to meet at the Temple at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. They will probably adjourn to await the action of the Democrats and then simply ratify the action of the latter. The adjournment of the Populist convention is also due to resume tomorrow morning. As the conference committee and the Democrats settled all matters left open in the Populist convention, it is probable that all it will do will be to ratify existing nominations and adjourn.

TO SEE NON-RESIDENTS.
Rolling That Will Be of Benefit to Creditors.
MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 15.—Walter N. Carroll, as receiver in the stockholders' suit in the Citizens' bank, this morning filed an application with the district court for authority to begin an action against the non-resident stockholders. It states that the Citizens' bank is insolvent, and that the non-resident stockholders, there will be an unpaid balance of $60,000 due the Citizens' bank. The suit is in a stock held by non-resident stockholders.

A similar application was filed in connection with the Citizens' bank, in which the stockholders' suit in which Clarence H. Childs is receiver. Judge Elliott granted the application, and the receivers to begin action in the proper courts.

These are the first suits of the kind since the recent failure of the Citizens' bank. In the case of Hanson vs. Davidson, in which it was held that such actions could be begun in the district court, the action against the non-resident stockholders.

If these actions are successful as a class, it will mean a vast saving eventually to the creditors of insolvent concerns, though at present there are not a great many companies in such a predicament. The most notable is the Citizens' bank. It is said that in the Citizens' bank there is $100,000 of non-resident stock. No estimate has yet been made in stock. No estimate has yet been made in stock. KEEP OFF SIGNS BARRED.
Public Park Grass Is No Longer to Be Held Sacred.
MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 15.—One of the most important actions ever taken by the board of park commissioners was that of today, in ordering all "keep off the grass" signs in the park removed. The action was taken on recommendation of President Powell.

NEWS OF THE RAILROADS

NEW FLOUR RATE HAS GONE INTO EFFECT

Some Suspicion That the Lines Will Not Maintain the Tariff—Changes Incident to the Absorption of the Spokane Falls & Northern Are Announced—Freight Employees and Conductors Awaiting Replies.

The new flour tariff of 20¢ cents to New York went into effect on all the lines yesterday, but it is a question how soon it will be changed. The roads distrust each other, so that it is not believed that the tariff will be maintained, and it is expected that in a few days the flour rates will be changed again.

Ten days hence the 22½-cent rate will be effective, but, if the present rate is cut, it is probable that some lines will withdraw the higher rate and cut to suit themselves. The situation is not pleasing to any of the roads, but as the present petition remains so keen at present an improvement is not expected.

ANNOUNCES THE CHANGE

PROFITS OF STROLLERS.

Considerable Amounts of Money Gathered by Italians.

From the New Haven Register.
When an Italian "goes broke," which isn't very often, by the way, he does not run to the Selectmen with a long tale of poverty and woe; neither does he land at the poorhouse and settle down for the rest of his days. Not at all. The unfortunate son of the land may, however, be a little more than a stand-by which will put him on his feet and turn the tide his way—bandaged, perhaps, but not broken.

There are six street pianos in daily use in New Haven. Four of these are owned by an Italian saloonkeeper on Cut street, and the other two by individuals who operate them. The first mentioned pianos belong to his countrymen, who call for them every morning and always play to good purpose. The men who drag the pianos to the streets all day divide their receipts with the owner every evening on returning.

While the money taken in during the day is less than $5, the trip is considered poor. On the other hand, receipts average about $6 or $7 per day. Routes where this has been gathered are carefully watched and cultivated, and kept as secret as possible from competitors in the field.

One of these pianos cost $250 in New York, and they are made most substantially in order to stand the wear and tear of street service. The owners each year contract for the "barbaric" of tunes, ten in number, which supplied by the dealer at a cost of $35.50, following the original investment, this cost is charged to the owner.

A bright Italian maid that she street told a Register reporter that her father "went out" occasionally, and always played to good purpose. The man who drag the pianos to the streets all day divide their receipts with the owner every evening on returning.
