STARVING WIFE'S STORY MARRIED

MATRIMONIAL INFELICITIES OF A YOUNG WOMAN WHO SINNED

DESERTED BY HER HUSBAND

Was Forced to Give Her Child to Hospital Authorities and Apply for Public Relief Herself.

Starving and broken-hearted was Mrs. Philip Quinlan's condition when she called on Humane Agent Moak yesterday. She is sorry now that she married Quin-lan, and sorry also that she led a loose life before her marriage. She is now drinking the dregs of sorrow and she lays it all at the door of a man who feigned love and sincerity and led her to marry him, and now he says that he married her only for revenge, that he did so in order to increase her happiness temporarily that he might make her sorrow the greater afterwards.

Her maiden name was Lena Gable and a charming and beautiful girl she was. While attending one of the fancy balls last winter, she was wronged by her escort and now she is not only repenting for her husband's inhuman treatment, but she is reaping the reward of the bad company she kept in the past.

Quinlan and the girl, for she is but a mere girl, just out of her teens, were married about three months ago. In about three weeks after their marriage she gave birth to a baby girl. This was a signal for Quinlan to desert her, for he knew the child was not his own. He then lost interest in his home and wan-dered to places where he could dissipate and turn his mind from the poor wife and child, who were at home on the verge of starvation.

The child from lack of nourishment became sick and the mother rather than allow both herself and her child suf-fer turned the baby over to the city hos-pital. Then she went back to her home pital. Then she went back to her home and lived in the greatest turbulence of mind a mortal can experience. Her child removed from her; her husband coming home drunk; his relatives also calling and telling her how little they thought of her. All these things increased her misery and made her desperate.

Yesterday she called on the authorities and succeeded in having a warrant issued for her husband's arrest. She says that she is afraid of him, as he has threatened her life and she wants to be relieved of his insults and compel him to

BLECKINGER HELD OVER

GRAND JURY WILL LOOK INTO HIS SHOOTING ESCAPADE.

Judge Hine yesterday bound over Frank Bleckinger to await the action of the grand jury. Bleckinger was up on the charge of assault with a dangerous weapon. "Doe" McGlynn, the young man at whom he shot last Sunday night, testified that he went to Bleckinger's house on the invitation of Bleckinger to help him drink a can of beer, and that when he got near the house Bleckinger threw a stone at him, and that, while trying to dodge it, he ran against Mrs. Bleck-inger, knocking her down. Bleckinger at this juncture brought out a shotgun and fired at him, three or four of the shot lodging in his shoulder.

Bleckinger testified that when passing McGlynn's house with a can of beer Mc. Glynn taunted him, and asked him for a dripk of the beau He said that McClynn.

Probate Court Delays Disposing of the Yould Cases.

The case of the Yould minors, Mabel, Will, Helen and Tom, came up in the probate court yesterday and was continued a week. Humane Officer Moak some time ago entered complaint that the father was a habitual drunkard and that the mother was guilty of serious misconduct, and petitioned that the children be committed to the Children's Aid society at Union Park, as they were growing up under bad moral influence. The commitment was delayed, as several mistakes were embodied in the petition. So much time has lapsed since then that the parents have been able to prove their good intentions toward the children.

DEATH TO HAIR ROOT AND BRANCH

New Discovery By The Misses Bell A Trial Treatment FREE To Any

We have at last made the discovery which has baffled chemists and all others for centuries—that of absolutely destroying superflous hair, root and branch, satirely and permanently, and that too without impairing in any way the finest or most sensitive skin. It is scarcely possible to overstate the importance of this discovery, or the great good and satisfaction it will be to those afflicted with one of the most disfiguring and aggravating blemishes—that of superfluous hair on the face of women, whether it be a mustache or growth on the neck, checks or arms.

tache or growth on the neck, checks or arms.

The Misses Bell have thoroughly tested its efficacy and are desirous that the full merits of their treatment to which they have given the descriptive name of "KILL-ALL-HAIR" shall be known to all afflicted. To this end a trial will be sent free of charges, to any lady who will write for it. Without a cent of cost you can see for yourselves what the discovery is; the evidence of your own senses will then convince you that the treatment "KILL-ALL-HAIR," will rid you of one of the greatest drawbacks to perfect loveliness, the growth of superfluous hair on the face or neck of women.

Plense understand that a personal demonstration of our treatment costs you nothing. A trial will be sent you free, which you can use yourself and prove our
