GOVERNOR SAYS STREET RAILWAY MAGNATE OFFERED $5,000 FOR CAMPAIGN FUND

IF TAXATION WAS HELD DOWN

East Side Turner Hall, Minneapolis, the Scene of the Political Sensation of the Present Campaign.

Gov. John Lind made the most sensational utterance of the campaign in an address at the East side Turner hall. Minneapolis, last night, openly charging that the vice president of the Twin City Rapid Transit company had endeavored to influence his action as a member of the state board of equalization by promising $5,000 to the Democratic campaign

AUDIENCE WAS THUNDERSTRUCK. The large audience listened in silent. amazement to this startling charge. Then, as its full force seemed to break over the surprise all felt, yells went up from a thousand throats, cheers for Lind, and shouts of contempt for the representative of the railway company.

"When the board met," continued the governor, "the assessment of this corporation was raised from $2,700,000 to $4,600,000.

"This may explain the venomous attacks which have been made upon me by newspapers friendly to this great corporation. Their latest charge is that I am insane."

"I am just insane enough to turn a deaf ear to all such overtures as the one I have just related to you, and to No further explanation was required to demonstrate to that audience why the hostility of this company had been so fiercely aroused against Gov Ling. The governor stated that just before leaving the West hotel to deliver his first speech last night the gentleman in St. Paul to whom the vice president of the Twin City Rapid Transit company made this statement, hastened a messenger to him with the word that he could make use of the information just as he pleased and the evidence, if required, would be ASSESSMENT STILL TOO LOW Gov. Lind stated that in increasing this assessment no injustice had been done, as the company was still paying less in taxes, proportionately, than many other taxpayers, and are paying dividends on $10,000,-000 capital stock.

READ THEM THE BILL. His first meeting last night was at the Ninth ward headquarters, 1925 Cen-tral avenue. Here he met a large audience, mostly workingmen, and talked to them for ten minutes on matters special interest to them. Gov. Lind read the bill which the last legislature passed providing for the granting of twenty-five-year franchises to street railway companies, and which would have become a law but for his veto. He held it up and asked if those present wanted him to sign that bill. The au-

ACCUSES THE VICE PRESIDENT. Turner hall on the East side was the next meeting place. There were 500 people in the hall when the governor arrived and more came after-Two little girls took a prominent part in the event by giving a unique Bryan and Lind yell. The governor took pleasant notice of the compliment. It was at this meeting that Gov. Lind referred to the strenuous attacks made upon him throughout the campaign by certain Republican newspapers because he had been a member of the board of equalization that raised the assessment of the Twin City Rapid Transit com-

dience responded with a united "no."

These attacks have been venemous. Raid the governor, "but perhaps I can give you a suggestion as to their provo-cation. Before the meeting of the board of equalization, the first week in August, to be exact, the vice president of the Twin City Rapid Transit company came to a friend of mine in St. Paul and said: 'You tell the governor that if the board of equalization does not increase our assessment more than $750,000 we will contribute $5,000 to the Demoeratic state central committee to apply on the campaign fund." WILL STAND BY HIS GUNS.

Another din of enthusiasm was proveked when the governor declared that:
"We care not if they down us in this campaign, there is manhood in American citizens that will rise above temporary defeat and impel us to stand by our guns and fight out this battle to the bitter end. There is a right and justice and integrity, and these must and will

SPEAKS IN THIRD WARD. The governor next addressed a large audience in the Third ward, at 510 Plymouth avenue. The hall was entirely filled and the meeting a splendid one. Here Gov. Lind again referred to some of the unscrupulousness of the enemy, and stated that he would, so long as he was governor, use every means within his power to compel every human being in this state, whether he dwells in castle or cabin, to bear his equal share of the burdens of taxation. Gov. Lind also appealed to the manhood of the citizens by paying: "I want you men to vote your convictions on election day and not allow

STARTED YESTERDAY AT ANOKA. It was a busy day for the governor, but a most gratifying one to the success of his mission. Large audiences and great enthusiasm greeted him upon ev ery occasion. The Republicans of Anoka, one of the strong Republican towns of the state, opened their eyes yesterday to the most complete surprise they have perhaps witnessed for many a day. Since the beginning of the campaign Tams Bixby's high privates of that place have labored incessantly to arouse an immovable prej-udice against Gov. Lind because of a grievance which, forsooth, they claimed a title to. The two Republican papers of the town have contributed their most vigilant efforts to fostering this spirit of hostility and what help was needed from the state committee was cheerfully and abundantly given. So cheerfully and abundantly given. determined were the Republicans a place in which to speak. But this plan failed, as did all others. A local one I have just related to you, and to newspaper man, fraught with the spirit veto all bills such as that providing for both of the edict that had gone forth the twenty-five-year tenure of all street to keep Lind out of Anoka, even went overture that if the Democrats would agree not to have the governor speak there during the campaign, they, the Re-publicans, would "consent" to steer their Van Sant, of Winona, around the

The magnanimity of this gracious offer did not commend itself to the Demo-crat, who could think of no reason for wanting Van Sant to stay away from anoka, believing that every time he mounts the stump the success of the Democratic ticket is aided that much, and so he had to decline the proffer. The consequence was that Gov. Lind did invade Anoka, and his reception (and this was the surprise) was a most cordial and enthusastic one. He spoke in the town hall, which was packed to overflowing, and it is barely possible that some few in the audience were Republicans. The Wise murder trial, which is in progress in the town, had been absorbing the attention of the politicians for the past week or two, but they found time to leave the court room and pause in their discussion of the merits of the startling case, and attended the meeting occasioned by the presence of Gov. Lind in their town. It was a terrible joit to the "old boys" who had worked so faithfully to "keep John Lind out of Anoka." out of Anoka."

Van Sant Enthusiasm Absent at Sleepy Eye Republican Meeting. SLEEPY EYE, Minn., Nov. 2.-(Special.)—Congressman J. T. McCleary addressed a fair sized audience at the opera house this evening. Previous to the speaking a torch light procession with two bands, awakened considerable en-thusiasm. It was a noticeable fact, however, and conspicuous, because of its absence, that there were no transparancies in the line in honor of Van Sant, and only a few boys abong the line of the parade had the temerity to shout for that unfortunate candidate. The Lind yells completely drowned thoses for Van Sant, showing conclusively that the Republican candidate has little sympathy and can expect few votes in this city. The address was principally on imperialism, and a review of the ancient history of the United States. He failed to satisfy people who were looking for an address on the issues of the day. Before the ad-dress the Democratic club, of this place, had circulated a record of Mr. McCleary's representation in congress and it was ex. pected that he would deny or explain some of the points raised, but this he failed to do and the people of this place are still wondering about his Porto Rican vote and his attitude on the trust ques-tion. Mr. Mathews, Democratic nominee for congress, will address the people here

co, Nov. 2.—United States District Judge Estee has rendered a decision to the effect that the constitution does not folw the flag in an important libel case that has been before the courts here for some time. William H. Marshall was sentenced to six months imprisonment for criminal libel on account of publications he made about the late Chief Justice Judd. He made an appeal to the supreme court of Hawaii on technical grounds, alleging that the methods pursued during his trial were not in accordance with American procedure. The lower court was sustained, and Marshall turned to Judge Estee with a writ of Judge Estee held that the laws of Hawaii allowing conviction of defendants upon a verdict by nine jurors were still in force at the time of Marshall's trial, which was long after the passage of the resolution annexing Hawaii, to the union. The judge said that Hawaii before being annexed "was a free, enlightened state, possessing all the attributes of sovereignty, and when the islands were annexed by the United States not only the lands, but the people, with their laws and customs, remained in force until new laws were enacted for the government of the territory.

THREE VITAL QUESTIONS.

Powers Will Insist on Removal From Power of the Dowager.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—It was stated today in quarters well versed in Chinese affairs that outside of the questions of indemnity, punishments, etc., now under negotiation at Pekin, there are three vital and far-reaching questions to be determined, viz.: First, the removal of the empress dowager, personally and through the influence of her advisers, trom all participation in the Chinese government; second, the creation of an indemnity fund by the increase of China's customs revenue, either by the payment of the duties in gold or by doubling the present silver duties; and third, the establishment of a minister of foreign affairs in place of the old and cumbersome system of the stung li yamen. The demand for the retirement of the empress dowager is said to result from the conclusion now generally accepted that the imperial government of China was responsible for the Boxer uprising. As the empress dowager was the ruling authority of the imperial government during the uprising, this responsibility is brought home directly to her.

The plan of doubling China's customs duties has arisen from the need of finding a source to pay war indemnities which the various powers demand.

The plan of substituting a minister of foreign affairs in place of the tsung li yamen has long been in contemplation, as foreign representatives have found it very difficult to deal with this mixed body and to locate responsibility upon it, particularly during the Boxer trouble. Fusion Presidential Candidate, in an Interview at Chicago, Confidently Predicts His Own Election.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.-Hon. W. J. Bryan, Democratic presidential candidate, tonight gave out the following statement in the form of an interview; in the form of an interview:

"The Republican campaign has been a failure. The full, dinner pail argument has been repudiated by the workingmen, and the Republicans are compelled to confess that a large proportion of the labor vote will be cast for the Democratic ticket. Besides believing with the Democratic sin the general doctrine of equal rights to all and special privileges to none, the laboring men are against the trusts, the large army and the colonial policy. The laboring men are also drawn to the Democratic party by the fact that our party is opposed to government by injunction, to the blacklist and to Chinese immigration, and in favor of arbitration, and of a cabinet officer selected to represent the wage earners.

"The Republicans are now hoping to hold their strength among the farmers, but they have no policy which will beacti

"The Republicans are now hoping to hold their strength among the farmers, but they have no policy which will benefit the farmer. The man who makes his living on the farm is the victim of all the vicious legislation for which the Republican party is responsible and receives none of the benefits conferred by special legislation upon corporations and syndicates. The farmer pays more than his share of the taxes and receives less than his share of the consideration of government. Republican policies have lessened the value of farm lands, increased the proportion of tenants and have driven the farmers' sons away from the farm thus intensifying the struggle for existence in the cities.

OPPOSED TO TRUSTS.

OPPOSED TO TRUSTS. "The farmers are almost unanimously pposed to the trusts, and they can have to sympathy with the imperialistic policy of the Republican party with its attendant increase in the military establishment."

"The believe that the election will show that we have gained among farmers as well as in the cities;
"The small business men and the professional men are also feeling the effect of the industrial despotism which has grown up with this administration.

"The poor are coming to the Democratic party because they want a chance in the race for life, and many of the well-to-do are coming because they realize that the Democratic party affords better protection to honest wealth than the Republican party.

MADE TWELVE SPEECHES.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—William Jennings Bryan's programme in Chicago today comprised twelve speeches. The crowds that greeted him were greater than those at the meetings of yesterday and last night. The candidate began his itinerary at Handel hall, in the downtown business district, going from there to the public library, where he spoke to an outdoor gathering of workingmen. After luncheon he made two addresses in "Old Vienna" pavilion, at Sixtieth street and Cottage Grove avenue, one to the crowd in the building and the other to the throng that was unable to gain admittance. Here was the only semblance of disturbance manifested during the day. Two of the men in the audience followed, almost simultaneously: "How about North Carolina?" and Mr. Bryan was replying when one of the questioners insisted on asking a question concerning trusts, whereupon the crowd demanded that he be thrown out and threatened to lynch him. Mr. Bryan insisted upon answering, however, but could not do so for some time, owing to the uproar made by the crowd by expressing its resentment towards the inquisitor. The latter was saved from violence only by police interfering.

This record includes more speeches made, more miles covered and more places visited than all other candidates for the offices of president and vice president of the United States for the last 100 years, with the exception of the record speeches, made at 19,000 miles covered. This wonderful campaign was finished by a two weeks' tour of the state of New York divisors. Mr. Roosevelt finished this tour in excellent health and good spirits, and, as he said tonight, "with a slightly weakened voice, but able to go on with the campaign a
