PROF. SMITH ON CHILD STUDY.
The letters which have been appearing in the Sunday Globe from Prof. A. J. Smith, who is spending the winter in Chicago, have been read with interest not only by teachers, but those who are generally interested in education. Prof. Smith's ideas are those of a trained scholar—not a theorist. They are therefore valuable as well as instructive.

Tomorrow Prof. Smith's letter will treat mainly of child study, and his ideas will be found most interesting to those who are directly or indirectly concerned.

FOUR MUST BE PRESENT.
Corporation Attorney Makes Ruling on Fire Board Expenditures.
Since last June the board of fire commissioners have been ignoring the provisions of the charter which requires a four-fifths vote of the full body when an expenditure of money is to be made. At the last meeting of the board attention was called to this fact by President Warner, and the issue has been sustained by the corporation attorney. As a rule only three of the five members of the board have been present and this is low the mistake was made.

Technically speaking, expenditures and contracts made by the board are illegal, but should any controversy arise that is low the mistake was made.
