COUNTY TO RECOVER

EX-OFFICIALS LIKELY TO SUED IN THE BOURNE 1 MATTER

KANE SAYS THEY ARE LIABLE

He Holds That County Should Not Lose the Money Appropriated , by Bourne and Will Commence Suits.

Certain ex-county officials will probably be sued for the money stolen by Bourne from the county. County Attorney Kane said vesterday that there was no doubt as to the ex-officials' liability and that he would begin suits against them. The defendants will be ex-County Au ditor Sullivan, ex-County Treasurers El mund and Arosin, County Auditor John son and their bondsmen. Johnson and Arosin are bonded in surety companies, while Sullivan and Elmund had personal

LECTURES ON FAITH.

Prof. Woodbridge, of State University, Speaks Today. The first address in the December state university series at the Y. M. C. A. will be given by Prof. F. J. E. Woodbridge, of the department of philosophy, at 3:30 this afternoon. The professor's subject is "Faith," and his reputation as a lecturer and a student of modern science and philosophy makes it certain that the ard philosophy makes it certain that the discourse will be a suggestive one to wide-awake men. The other speakers in the series are Prof. G. N. Pauer, Dr. S. M. White, Dean Pattee and President Northrop. Such a veries has rarely been offered to the men of St. Paul.

Owners and Agents, Please - Take Notice.

That in order to answer the frequent requests for information, both locally and from abroad, as to available West side locations for trackage and manufacturing sites, the Sixth Ward Improvement Association, at its regular meeting Nov. 27th inst, instructed its secretary to give notice in the daily papers, requesting all owners and agents desiring to lease or sell such properties, to send to the secretary the description, price and terms of the same, so that the association can readily give the desired information can readily give the desired information and refer parties directly to owners and agents. MASTER HANDS...

In the days when most of the outter was made at home in a small hand churn it was often said of the good housewife, that she was "a master hand" at buttermaking. The men in charge of the making of "Star Brand" butter are likewise "master hands" in the art of butter-making. They are experts in their line. They knew every detail of perfect butter-making with the thoroughness that comes from years of experience. They have at hand every facility that can insure perfect results. The churning room is without doubt far the best in the Western country fitted up with every devithat butter-making science ha perfected. OTTO CLAUSSEN'S Proves Need of Larger Appropria tion for Street and Sewer

Work-Fund Should Be

$75,000 Larger.

City Engineer Claussen's report for 1901 which is now being prepared, will show some large increases in city improvements, notably sewers. Owing to the in-ments, notably sewers. Owing to the increase in the cost of labor, and the natural advance in the cost of sewer construction, improvements in this line are double what they were last year.

Last year St. Paul was credited with 175 miles of sewers and drains. This year the figure will come nearer to 200 miles, not to speak of the man holes and catch basins, which were added to the number.

basins, which were added to the number already in existence, about 7,000. Another improvement that shows vast strides over previous years is cement sidewalks. This year's additions should give St. Paul about 175 miles of cement walks, 300 miles of wood walk and about 3 miles of gravel walks. Of the latter, last year there was only five miles in existence, but the area is being gradually Paved streets is the only improvement that suffers this year when compared with other years. True, there is an increase, but it is decidedly small. Last year the improvements in this line representation. sented an expenditure of about $150,000, but the amount when tabulated this time will be found not to exceed $160,000. The report, which Mr. Claussen will issue shortly, will go far toward substantiating the position he has taken, that the city is growing and more moves is need.

city is growing, and more money is needed to care for improvements made from year to year. This appeals especially in the case of paved and unpaved streets, and the sweeping of the same. For sweeping, St. Paul inflicts a tax of about 56 cents on every man, woman and child in the city, while in New York the figure is nearly $1.35. Sewers demand constant is nearly $1.35. Sewers demand constant flushing and repairs.

Mr. Claussen is now asking that his street, sewer and garbage fund be increased from $175,000 to $250,000, but it hardly likely that the charter commission will stand for the latter figure. Instead of placing a fixed limit, the commission seems rather to prefer a measura mission seems rather to prefer a measur that would allow expansion, such as so much per capita, or per lineal miles or streets and sewers. There is every reason to believe that in five years $250,000 will be as inadequate as $175,000 is now.

DEATH OF LUCILLE MOOR RE-FERRED TO COUNTY ATTORNEY

Evidence Taken at Apartments of Mrs. Lillie Chambers, Who Refuses to Answer Certain

County Attorney Kane attempted to induce her to divulge the names of people supposed to be connected with the case, but it was of no use. She said she had known Miss Moor three or four weeks before her death. They had become acquainted in the reception room of a store, where Miss Mcor was with several women, and one of them, a mutual friend, had introduced Miss Moor. County Attorney Kane attempted to get Mrs. Chambers to tell the names of some of these women, but she refused point blank. She also insisted that she knew nothing of the man Kelly, who was said to have frequented the apartments of Mrs. Armstrong. Mrs. Chambers also would not admit any acquaintance with Mrs. Fink, or the slightest knowledge of

JOHN HAYEK LET OUT FOR UNBE-COMING CONDUCT.

The police commission held a meeting yesterday afternoon, and after investigating the charges of M. Shapiro, who owns a saloon at Seventh and Olive streets, made against Officer John Hayek, passed a resolution removing him from the force. On the night of the 21st inst. Mr. Shapiro made charges of drunkenness against him, for conduct unbecoming an officer. Shapiro said he had given the officer several drinks that night, and when he finally refused him any more unless he paid for them, Hayek became angry and raised a disturbance at his place.

On the other hand, the officer said
Shapiro's place was frequented by women after closing hours, and that he simply came into the saloon and ordered them to leave the place and go home, when Shapiro jumped on him and cold him he was running the place. The commission directed Chief O'Connor to investigate the charges that women frequented Shapiro's saloon and that he was running a disorderly heave. The chief will report the rederly place. The chief will report the re-sult of his investigations at some future meeting.

Officer Thomas Mooney, of the Prior or charges preferred against him by William Willige, who charged the officer with conduct unbecoming an officer and drunkenness. It was claimed that Officer Mooney had fired his revolver four times without neavocation near the Fort simes, without provocation, near the Fort Snelling bridge, at a boy named Frank Doyre, whom he was chasting. The lad testified that the officer was talking to a boy friend of his, and that he finally told him to come on, as the officer had talked long enough to him. On the other hand, Officer Mooney testified that he was waiting on the corner, near Harris' place, for a car, when a man owning a rig which was standing across the street accosted him and said his lap robe had been stolen. Officer Mooney had seen the Doyre boy in the ylcinity of the rig, and thinking that he knew something about the robbery, he looked for him and finally saw the boy peeplay around the building. He started across the street and young Doyre ran, and he fired his revolver in the air to try and scare the lad. The commissioners decided to fine him $20 to warn him to be more careful about discharging his revolver in the 1u-The monthly payroll, amounting to $14, 309.98, was passed.

The clothes were found under a pile of lumber in the basement of the new canning company's building, on Water street. No clew to the thief was found.

WRITE RIGHT.

"Scatter Decent, Helpful Things." Good, philosophical Ras Wilson once said to a new reporter, "Young man, write as you feel, but try to feel right. Be good humored toward everyone and everything. Believe that other folks are just as good as you are, for they are. Give 'em your best and bear in mind that God has sent them, in his wisdom, all the trouble they need, and it is for you to scatter gladness and decent, helpful things as you go. Don't be particular about how the stuff will look in print but about how the stuff will look in print but let 'er go. Someone will understand. That is better than to write so dosh bling high, or so tarnashun deep, deep that no one understands. Let 'er go."
"So on the above plan," says M. W. Porter, of Topeka, Kans., "I will write what I know of Grape-Nuts Breakfast Food from personal experience. After a mentally, a thing I had never done at that season of the year.

I found the food an excellent stimulant for the brain, and I could do more and better work than I had ever done. It was a revelation to discover how closely the brain and digestive organs were in sympathy with each other. Whatever retarded the work of one had a corresponding effect on the other, and the food that tended to put one in proper shape acted ing effect on the other, and the root that tended to put one in proper shape acted accordingly on the other. I know that my great improvement mentally and physically came from dispensing with un-wholesome food and using Grape-Nuts liberally."

SINKS' CASE IN COURT.

Seeking to Compel Dr. Ohage to Grant Him Scavenger Permits.

Attorney Butts, for George W. Sinks, scavenger, and the attorneys of the corporation counsel's office vesterday submitted the arguments in the case brought by Sinks against Health Commissioner Ohage in Judge Otis' court.

Sinks is praying for a temporary writ of mandamus to compel Ohage to Issue permits to him for scavenger work, and Ohage alleges that Sinks' methods have not been lawful, and refuses to issue the permits. According to Dr. Ohage's story, Sinks would visit people with orders to do scavenger work, and threaten to have them arrested unless they signed the order.

The case was up last Saturday and Attorney Butts said at that time that the health department was trying to ruin Sinks' business. He was cautioned by the court not to use violent language and subsided. Butts was in something of a hurry to have the case settled, but in spite of that fact it was continued until
